

CENTRAL OREGON NEIGHBORHOOD NEWS.

RIVERS.

(Special to The Bulletin.)

RIVERS, Aug. 31.—Mrs. C. H. Genung called on Mrs. A. B. Taylor Sunday.
A. Gay struck good clear water at the depth of eighteen feet in his new well.
Mr. and Mrs. J. McKay and children were callers at the Rivers' home Sunday.
M. Hallmeyer returned from Bend Saturday evening.
Warren Libby made a trip to the Maury Mountain sawmill today to haul a load of lumber for A. Gav, who is going to build a cabin on his claim.
Mr. and Mrs. E. Nelson are the proud parents since Wednesday, August 26, of a baby daughter.
A. Taylor and Mr. Garry left Sunday for Paulina.
F. Mikula returned home last week.
H. Larkin is shipping one hundred and five cattle to Portland for Fisher Logan.
E. Danielson intends to leave for California with his wife and children, who will remain there this winter. He has a position waiting for him there.
Chas. Miller and wife will leave for Indiana in a short time, to pay a visit to her folks who reside there.
The Palmer family visited Mr. and Mrs. E. Danielson Sunday.
Dr. G. Heas expects to return to Chicago in the near future.

DRY LAKE.

(Special to The Bulletin.)

DRY LAKE, Aug. 22.—Mr. Mayfield from Prineville passed through here Thursday on his way to the Barb Wire Ranch.
C. Gulverson was a lucky recipient of the Dry Lake mail route contract which will go into effect at an early date.
G. Lampke transacted business in Buck Creek Thursday.
Mrs. Alexandra called on Mrs. F. Brown the fore part of the week.
Dick Fuller, who is employed at Prineville, was home on a short visit Thursday.
Mr. Tackman, from Prineville, transacted business in Dry Lake on Thursday.
Mr. Weathers and wife from IbeX passed through here Friday on their way to Barnes.
L. Bennett transacted business in IbeX Wednesday.
John Morris from Camp Creek, was a Dry Lake visitor Wednesday.
C. A. Bengston left for Bend the fore part of the week, where he intends to purchase a new stock of supplies for his store.
Mrs. Snider and daughter were

Tuesday visitors at the F. Brown ranch.
Mr. McVetty has been employed on Sam Sammons' ranch the past week.
Miss Maudie Wilson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. Wilson, left for Willamette valley the fore part of the week, where she expects to spend several months visiting with relatives.
Bernard Cox visited at the Fuller ranch Tuesday. Mr. Cox returned the fore part of the week to live on his homestead after his five months leave of absence.
Miss Theresia Garske called on Mr. and Mrs. Lampke Monday.
Charles Ivey spent Sunday at the Tom Long place.
Miss Laura Peterson was a Sunday visitor at the F. Brown ranch.
Mr. and Mrs. Lampke were IbeX visitors Sunday.
John Pausch from IbeX, and Mr. and Mrs. Alexandra of this place, spent Sunday at the Garske home.
Mr. Lambert from IbeX passed through here the fore part of the week.
Mr. Miller visited at the Fuller ranch the fore part of the week.
Mr. Miller from Buck Creek passed through here on his way to Bend Monday.

BROTHERS.

(Special to The Bulletin.)

BROTHERS, Sept. 6.—Mr. and Mrs. Bonney from Portland and Mr. and Mrs. Ousley from Idaho, have arrived on their homestead.
Postmaster and Mrs. P. H. Coffey are spending a few weeks in Spokane, Washington.
Mr. King, who has been spending some time with his family here has returned to Washington. His son, Oscar King, will remain here this fall and winter.
Oscar Cruse and Osruv King are hauling lumber for Mr. Ramey from the Maury Mountain mill.
E. E. Varco spent last week in Prineville and Bear Creek on business.
A special meeting of the school district was held last Monday and voted a 20 mill school tax. A party will be given next Thursday night at the school house in the interest of the school. All will be made welcome.
Several from this place are making final proof on their homesteads this fall.
Miss Laura Bishop has been engaged to teach this fall term of school by the board of directors which met last Monday. School will open the second Monday in September.
E. E. Varco reports having cut about 250 acres of rye, wheat and oat hay, which he says was a fairly good crop in these parts this year. The oats were filled with grain much better than any other grain crops.

PINEHURST.

(Special to The Bulletin.)

PINEHURST, Sept. 6.—Grace Bradley spent Monday with Alma Yeager at Camp No. 6.
L. H. Root was a business visitor in Laidlaw Tuesday.
Mrs. Spangh went to Laidlaw on business Monday.
G. W. Snyder made a trip to Laidlaw Friday afternoon.
Mrs. G. W. Snyder and Nellie Snyder called on Mrs. Bradley Monday.
Mr. and Mrs. A. P. Jackson left Sunday evening for Portland.
Ruth Bayley was calling in Laidlaw on Monday.
H. A. Newcomb of Cove, Oregon, was visiting in this neighborhood a few days last week. He returned to Brownsville, where he will teach school the coming winter.
Nellie Snyder went to Bend Saturday, where she will attend high school this winter.
Vernon Reed was in Laidlaw Monday.
G. W. Snyder was a Bend visitor one day last week.
Mrs. Dietrich called on her daughter-in-law, Mrs. E. G. Dietrich, Sunday afternoon.
Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Root made a business trip to Bend on last Saturday.
Edna Root called on Mrs. McAlister Sunday.
G. W. Snyder made a trip to the sawmill Friday.
Misses Grace and Eunice Bradley, Ethel and Ivy Snyder and Violet and Myrtle Spangh spent Sunday afternoon with Esther Dietrich.
Lester Snyder went to Laidlaw one day last week.
Ruth Bayley spent Wednesday afternoon at the Snyder home.

HAMPTON.

(Special to The Bulletin.)

HAMPTON, Sept. 3.—There was quite a crowd out to Sunday school Sunday.
Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Peck entertained Sunday the following: Misses L. J. Fogg, Zola Bartholomew and Burr Black.
A. S. Fogg has just completed a tool house.
Al Love spent Sunday night at W. T. Harrison's. He was on his way to Bend from his sister's, Mrs. Overall, of Stauffer.
Mrs. Cornelia E. Streeter filed on land Monday that lies south west of Hampton Butte.
Wm. Spielman was a Hampton visitor Saturday afternoon.

Isaac Zieroff, Jimmie Brickley, Misses Hannah and Edith Dunn, Misses Laura Bishop, Eva Crow and Melvin Crow, attended a dance in Hampton valley Friday night.
Mr. and Mrs. J. Smith passed here enroute to Bend the first of the week.
Mr. and Mrs. O. J. Woods of Rolyat passed through Hampton on Monday.
Isaac Zieroff and Burr Black went over to Held Monday on business, returning Tuesday.
Mrs. Amanda Combs visited in Hampton Monday.
Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Harmon and Miss Darle Burton spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Harrison.
Vern Hoffman has gone to Bend this week.
Mr. and Mrs. Alexandra, Mrs. Kins, Miss Wilson and John Wilson of Dry Lake, were in Hampton shopping last Friday.
W. T. Harrison has been pulling brush for J. P. Wilquet the past week.
J. P. Wilquet and son Arthur, C. B. Harmon and W. T. Harrison camped on Cougar Butte Saturday night.
Harold Fogg and Arthur Wilquet spent Wednesday on Hampton and Cougar Buttes.
Leslie Hall and Ike New of IbeX were in Hampton shopping Monday.
Harold Fogg and Misses Zola Bartholomew and Ethel Fogg made a business trip to Brothers one day last week.
Mrs. C. A. Burris and Mrs. E. M. Peck are on the sick list.
Mrs. Neely of Imperial, was in Hampton Tuesday.
The Misses Streeter and Lee Riggs and H. C. Miller have gone to Sumner lake to gather plums.
Mrs. Snider and daughter, Miss Edna of Dry Lake, were in Hampton yesterday.
Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Peck, Mrs. Lucy Hicks, Miss Zola Bartholomew, Wm. Searcy and Burr Black are camping on Cougar Butte from Wednesday until Saturday.
A. S. Fogg is pulling brush this week.
F. G. Miller and Oscar Butzeln have gone to Maury Mountain for a load of lumber.
Jake Booth returned home from Uniontown, Wash., yesterday.

HAMPTON BUTTE.

(Special to The Bulletin.)

HAMPTON BUTTE, Aug. 31.—Mr. Pinkus passed through on his way home from Bend last Wednesday.
A. McKeown found his horses recently, which had strayed off in July.
O. C. Henkle came out in his car with Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Schroeder enroute to Lost Creek valley where Mr. Schroeder has a homestead.
Mrs. Bert Meeks and children visited with friends at Stauffer the past week.

C. J. Stauffer of Stauffer passed through on his way home from Bend with a load of freight for Mr. Schroeder, who recently moved onto his homestead.
Earl McFadden was a Stauffer visitor Sunday.
Jimmie Brickley and Miss Hannah Dunn called at the Meeks' home Sunday.
Miss Kate Brickley returned to her homestead after being out several months.
V. P. Wray is again running the Federal truck between Bend and Burns.

MILLICAN.

MILLICAN, Sept. 6.—While out deer hunting A. A. Gilmore killed a bear weighing about 300 pounds and consequently his friends have been enjoying bear steak for several days.
B. E. Davis and son Harold arrived home from Prineville Saturday.
School commenced here August 31st. Mrs. A. G. Allen is teacher. About 14 pupils were enrolled.
A meeting of the directors of school District 87 was held September 4th at the home of B. E. Davis, for the purpose of making arrangements to secure free text books for the district and also enlarge the school building.
A. D. Norton is plowing 20 acres of sage brush for L. Goodman.
Mr. Herwitz and wife were callers at the Goodman home Saturday.
Mr. and Mrs. Farrell of Oregon City passed through here enroute to Burns Saturday.
Diego, Cal. These people were very favorably impressed with the hay crops in our locality.
Lee Alley left Sunday for his home at Tillamook, Wash. He is making the trip on horse back across the mountains via the McKenzie pass.
Orsa Sears returned home Saturday from a week's visit with friends in Redmond.
Mr. and Mrs. Ray Mackey and the Misses Estes of Prineville autoed through this section Sunday on their way to Bend where Miss Leola Estes will have charge of a rural school near that city. Miss Pauline Truesdale accompanied them from here.
John Kissler and daughter, Mrs. Boeiger and Earl Stearns were Redmond visitors at the Frank Kissler home Sunday.
Mrs. Etta Arnold and son Everett of Bend autoed out Monday for a few days visit at the A. W. Bayn home. Miss Gladys, who visiting at the Arnolds', accompanied them home. Before returning Mrs. Arnold will transact business at the county seat.

Allen Willcoxon was a dinner guest at the Truesdale home Sunday.
Mr. and Mrs. Guy Sears were Prineville visitors Monday, the former to attend court.
Will Brown has been on the sick list recently.
Martin Snyder and family spent Thursday here on their way to their homestead east of here.
H. F. Dyer went to Bend Saturday where he will be for several days.
Mrs. Martha Forgy was a visitor in Bend the past week.
A. R. Marks and son spent Tuesday here.
Mr. and Mrs. Roberts, I. L. Owen and P. B. Johnson went to town in the Roberts' car Thursday.
I. L. Owen moved his family back on the homestead from Bend last week.
Mrs. A. Eglestein visited with Mrs. A. D. Norton Wednesday.
William King of Burns visited with relatives in the valley.
William Ream was a business caller in Bend the past week.
Mr. and Mrs. McNeal and family left for a stay in Bend Monday.
Mrs. Effie Kopper is visiting at the A. D. Norton home.
Mrs. Roberts visited with Mrs. F. B. Johnson.
Mrs. J. F. Caldwell and children were stoppers here Monday night.
We are now assured of getting mail twice a week as regular mail service has been established through here.

POWELL BUTTE.

(Special to The Bulletin.)

POWELL BUTTE, Sept. 7.—Mrs. S. D. Mustard returned from Spokane Tuesday evening where she had been for the past month visiting friends and relatives.
The crowd of young folks chaparroned by Mesdames Smith and Humphrey who had enjoyed a week of camp life on the McKenzie returned home the fore part of the week.
Allen Willcoxon returned home Wednesday from a week's combined business and pleasure trip to Portland. He visited Mrs. Willcoxon and Harriet while in Portland and together they took a run down to Seaside for a few days. Mr. Willcoxon says Mrs. Willcoxon and Harriet went to Tacoma last week, where they will visit friends before their return home.
"Sy" Buckingham, the Shores man, was a local visitor last week.
A. H. Rhode traded horses with Frank McCaffery Tuesday. He now has a fine big three year old which he intends to work with his Jumbo colt, the latter the biggest young horse in this section. Jumbo weighs a little less than a ton and he is still growing.
Mrs. Geo. Beckman was a visitor at Prineville Thursday.
Frank Kissler is making a citizen on his place, so also is George Braze.
Mrs. Mary Brown went to Redmond Thursday, where she will visit with her daughter, Mrs. Henry Young and family for some time.
John Rhode left Saturday for Astoria.

(Continued on page 11.)

The First National Bank of Bend

Welcomes the establishment of closer relations between BEND and PORTLAND and believes that great commercial advantage for both will be the inevitable result.

The First National Bank of Bend

U. C. COE, President    E. A. SATHER, Vice President    C. S. HUDSON, Cashier