LAST THREE PRESIDENTS OPPOSED TO PROHIBITION

PRESIDENT WILSON SAYS: "I am in favor of Local Option. I am a thorough believer in LOCAL SELF-GOVERNMENT and believe that every self-governing community which constitutes a social unit should have the right to CONTROL the matter of the regulation or the withholding of licenses."

WILLIAM HOWARD TAFT Ex-President, Statesman, Jurist and Professor. In an address on Civic Duty, said: "Nothing is more foolish, nothing more utterly at variance with sound policy, than to enact a law which, on account of conditions surrounding the community, is incapable of enforcement. Such instances are presented by sumptuary laws by which the sale of intoxicating liquors is prohibited under penalties in localities where the public sentiment . . . will not sustain the enforcement of the law."

THEODORE ROOSEVELT Ex-President, Soldier, Explorer and one of the most remarkable leaders in the United States, is a strong champion of LOCAL SELF-GOVERNMENT and Home Rule. He has never raised his voice in behalf of statewide prohibition, and so he has suffered attacks from radical and hysterical prohibitionists. As between a man of Theodore Roosevelt's ability and standing and those who are the paid emissaries of professional propagandists, the voters of Oregon will not be slow in passing upon the wisdom and credibility of the witnesses.

With these three National Leaders agreed on the Issue of Prohibition, Isn't it wisdom to follow their course?
