

BOSTON TEAM WINS
BASEBALL CHAMPIONSHIP

The Braves Humbled Connie Mack's Athletics in Four Straight Games, New World's Series Record.

The world's championship baseball series between the Philadelphia team of the American League and Boston for the Nationals, resulted in a spectacular victory for Boston, the Braves winning four straight games from the Athletics. This never before happened in a world's series. It is the more remarkable too, because a few months ago Boston was a tall ender in its league.

The first game went to Boston, 7 to 1. Rudolph pitched for Boston, and Hank Gowdy reached first every time at bat. Bender was knocked out of the box in the sixth.

Boston won the second game with a 1 to 0 score, the only run coming in the ninth inning. Bill James pitched for Boston and Plank for the Athletics.

The third contest went to the Braves 5 to 4. It was a twelve inning go, and the score tied in the second, in the fourth and in the tenth. Gowdy was again the hero of the day, his double in the twelfth bringing in the winning run. Bush pitched for Philadelphia, and Tyler and James for Boston.

The last game was won 3 to 1. It was won in the sixth when two runs were made after two men were out. Johnny Evers brought them in with a single. Shawkey pitched until the sixth for Mack, when Pennock, a new figure in big baseball, relieved him. Rudolph pitched for the Braves.

SENATOR MUENTER SAYS AKOZ QUICKLY CURED BAD STOMACH

Former U. S. Collector of Internal Revenue Praises Medicinal Mineral.

August E. Muentner, 521 California street, San Francisco, former state senator, representing San Joaquin county, and until recently United States collector of Internal Revenue in San Francisco, has just ended stomach trouble of several years' duration by using Akoz, the great medicinal mineral discovered by John D. Meckenzie.

Acute indigestion, sour stomach and gas troubled Senator Muentner after eating heartily until he tried the Akoz internal treatment. He was greatly surprised to note a great improvement in two weeks. At the end of a month there was no trace of the old disorder.

"For several years I had severe stomach trouble," said Senator Muentner in speaking of his recovery. "After eating a hearty meal I would suffer acute indigestion. My stomach was sour, and I was troubled with much gas. I tried various remedies, but they gave me only temporary relief until I tried Akoz."

"After taking the Akoz internal treatment two weeks, I found that I was deriving much benefit from the same. At the end of a month there was no trace of the trouble. I can now eat anything without fear of the former distress."

now exists only in the maps of half a century ago. In 1853 Aaron Rose's place, later called Roseburg, on Deer Creek, where it empties into the South Umpqua, was chosen as the county seat.

Gilliam county was carved from Wasco and Umatilla in 1855. Its first county seat was Alkali, now called Arlington. It is named for Colonel Cornelius Gilliam of Polk county.

"Grant county was carved from Wasco and Umatilla counties October 14, 1864, and was named for the nation's hero, U. S. Grant, Canyon City, a typical western mining camp, was its first county seat and one of its first county judges was Joaquin Miller, afterward famous as the Poet of the Sierras.

"Jackson county was named for President Andrew Jackson. It was created on January 12, 1852. Jacksonville was established as the county seat on January 8, 1854.

"Josephine county was taken from Jackson county January 22, 1856. It was named after Josephine Rollins, the popular daughter of the discoverer of gold on Josephine creek.

"Klamath county takes its name from the Klamath Indians, whose home is in that district. It was cut out from western Lake county on October 7, 1852. Linkville was its first county seat. It can trace its lineage back to that mother of counties, Wasco county. Originally what is now Klamath county was part of Wasco county. The southern part of Wasco became Jackson, which in turn was cut up to form Lake county, which lost part of its territory to form Klamath county, so that with out moving from his cabin some pioneer may have lived in Wasco, Jackson, Lake and Klamath counties."

"Hood River Came Later. Of later date is the Hood River division which was voted four years ago under the initiative law, the parent county again being Wasco.

At the present time in addition to the movement for the division of Crook county the western end of Lane county has filed a petition for separation and a division movement is on in Harney and Malheur, the plan being to form Davis county. Backers of this measure are advertising in Burns papers as follows:

"It is a great inconvenience for the residents of the Drewsey section to come to Burns for county seat purposes and if they desire to set up a county organization and handle the same, they should be allowed to do so. In justice to the residents of Drewsey and as a matter of saving Harney county tax payers several thousand dollars a year in running expenses vote yes on county division."
