NEW MACHINE AT BANK

First National installs Burroughs Ledger Poster—Mechanical Marvel

The First National Bank has just installed the latest model Burroughs ledger posting machine, which is as near mistake proof as anything this side of the Pearly Gates can expect to be.

The machine is a mechanical marvel, adding and subtracting in a various number of combinations, and it automatically records the fact when accounts are overdrawn. All computations are made by the machine and customers accounts are printed on a loose leaf form instead of being with a pen, as formerly. It is a great saver to a minimum, and equips the First

National with the best to be had in bookkeeping conveniences, er of time and labor, reduces errors
