WEDDING IS A HAPPY EVENT

MISS RATLIFF IS NOW MRS. McREYNOLDS

Pretty Ceremony At Presbyterian Church Thursday—Miss Elizabeth Davis Maid of Honor—Carl Hunter is Best Man for Occasion.

Last Thursday evening at the Presbyterian church occurred the wedding of Miss Grace Ratliff and Lewis Guy McReynolds, with some 200 guests in attendance. Dr. Hartman performed the ceremony which concluded about seven thirty so that the couple could catch the Portland train. The church was beautifully decorated, and with the large attendance, excellent music and general attractiveness, the occasion proved one of the most impressive in Bend's social history. The bride was given away by her brother-in-law, H. B. Ford, and Miss Elizabeth Davis acted as maid of honor, with Carl Hunter as best man. The bride wore a white gown of trimmed with satin and exquisite soft lace, and carried a shower bouquet of white roses and lily of the valley. The groom was conventionally attired, and wore the same gloves that his father used at his wedding thirty-five years ago. Lucile Shury as ring bearer, and Helen Palmer and Esther Foss as flower girls made a charming trio in their white frocks and pink sashes. Miss Davis, maid of honor, wore an extremely attractive gown of crepe de chine and brocaded satin under shadow lace. The center aisles of the church were artistically arranged with numerous streamers of pink and white. Ferns and mumsukia backed the altar, forming a darker background for the word "Love" lettered in soft pink flowers. Above, and just concealing the choir loft, were more ribbons of pink and white, clustering under a huge white bell. During the bridal procession the 12 members of the Bend Glee Club sang the Lohengrin Wedding March. There were many out-of-town guests and among them the two sisters of the groom, Mrs. Lee Hobbs of Powell Butte and Mrs. S. D. Percival of Gateway. Upon their return from a week's honeymoon Mr. and Mrs. McReynolds will make their home with the groom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. M. McReynolds. Mr. McReynolds is assistant cashier of the First National Bank.
