County Judge States His Position on

$5.00 Coyote Bounty. Writing on the subject of the $5.00

Princeville, Ore., Nov. 6, 1914.
I wish to explain to the people of Crook county my position in regard to the $5 bounty advertised by the unty court for coyote scalps.

The state has quit paying its share of the bounty and all adjoining cousties have refused to pay any thing for scalps. Because of these facts and because scalps are being rushed will present papers at the different in from the boundaries of this county which properly belong to other of institute subjects.

ADVENTIST CHURCH GROWS

Past Year Has Seen Large Increase in Membership and Financial Aid.

L. W. Blair of Powell Butto, promnent in the Seventh Day Adventist brought in a report covering the past year's work of the church all over the country. According to it the memserahip of the church has increased by more than 8000, there has been "a wonderful growth in tithes and offerings, and the movement has penetrated into a number of new countries until the heralding of the message telling of the soon coming the Saviour, which is one of the prin-oipal beliefs of the church, is now being sounded in 85 countries."

The report contains many interesting figures showing the amounts re-ceived by the church for its work, its membership, its missionary staff and other activities.
