SERVICE.

The sweetest lives are those to duty wed.
Whose deeds, both great and small,
Are close knit strands of an unbroken thread.
Where love ennobles all.
The world may sound no trumpet, ring no bells,
The book of life the shining record tell:
Thy love shall chant its own beatitudes
After its own life working. A child's kiss
Set on thy sighing lips shall make thee glad,
A sick man helped by thee shall make thee strong.
Thou shalt be served thyself in every sense.
Of service which to men thou renderest.

—Robert Browning.

BOOKS ON FARMING.

A. E. Lovett, County Agriculturist, has at his office a circulating library for farmers, composed of up-to-date books on all lines of farming. Farmers are invited to call at the Commercial Club rooms in Redmond and get the book or books in which they are interested. The books will be loaned to farmers for two weeks, at the end of which time they must be returned to the office or an extension of time be obtained. All are invited to stop in and look the books over.

Try True Blue flour. Ask your grocer for it.—Adv. 36 tf

We lost county division; prohibition won by a safe majority. It is rumored the "Turks" of the entire world are on the run, some of them will probably be overtaken in about two weeks. We lost our porter, and until we can find another we hope you will be satisfied with our work. The Metropolitan.—Adv. 36 tf

Before purchasing your Xmas candies try the American Bakery. A full line of fresh candies just arrived.—Adv. 37 tf
