Little Talks on Banking

Lost Paper

If a person loses a check the bank on which it is drawn should be notified immediately as the bank cannot be held liable for the payment of the check unless it has had an official "stop payment notice."

When a check has been lost or stolen and falls into the hands of an innocent third party, that third party can collect it. If the bank refuses payment on account of the instructions it has received, the innocent purchaser can recover from the endorser from whom he received the check, but not from the original drawer.

Forgery

One of the prime requisites of a good teller is to know the handwriting of the bank's customers. Should a teller pay out money on a check on which the signature is forged, the bank is liable and must make good the loss to its customer.

The writing in the body of the check does not necessarily have to be the same as the handwriting of the drawer, but if a fraudulent change is made in the body of the check after the check has been signed, it constitutes a forgery and the bank is liable if it pays the check, unless the forgery has been made in the careless manner in which the check is written.

GRAND JURY FINISHES ALL ITS WORK IN TWO DAYS

Brought in Two Indictments—McCabe Goes Free—More Arguments in Jefferson County Matter Held.

(Special to The Bulletin.)
PRINEVILLE, Dec. 9.—The grand jury finished its work yesterday after hearing three cases. Mrs. Fannie C. Poch, who was mixed up in the McDaniel murder case, was indicted for perjury, and Ed. D. White of Prineville, for subornation of perjury. Both cases arose out of White's divorce suit. The defendants have pleaded "not guilty" and will be tried tomorrow. No bill was found against F. S. McCabe, no complaining witness having been found to testify against him.

The civil suit of the United Warehouse vs. Seethoff resulted in a verdict for the plaintiff. Kirsten vs. Horticultural Mutual Fire Insurance Company, a case arising out of the burning of the Bend cold storage plant last winter, is being tried today.

FLOUR MILL BUSY

Changes at Plant Nearly Finished—Shipping Much Flour and Feed.

Except for the erection of new machinery now on the road the work of reconstruction and repair at the Bend Flour Mill Co. plant is now practically finished. The latest improvement to be completed has been the removal of the frame office building from its old location to a place adjoining the mill making communication between the office and the plant more convenient.

In the past week the company has shipped five carloads of flour and feed to Redmond without making any appreciable diminution of the stock in its warehouse. This week it has been unloading two cars of barley and has 100 tons more on the road, in addition the company has stocks of wheat stored for later delivery.

WOOL PROSPECTS GOOD

Killing of Sheep in European Countries Affects Prices Here.

The seventeenth annual convention of the Oregon Woolgrowers' Association was held in Pendleton last week. Prospects for the coming year are most flattering. President R. N. Stafield declared, by reason of the embargo placed upon wools of English colonies, and by reason of the short supply in this country.

The European war will have effect upon the wool market for years, Stafield said, inasmuch as large stocks of sheep are being killed for food in European countries. He predicted that half of the European sheep, now numbering 124,000,000, would be destroyed by the war.

COOPER-GORTON WEDDING.

James K. Cooper, and Miss Gladys M. Gorton were married on Thursday by Judge Eastes at his home. Mr. Cooper was formerly the manager of the Pioneer Creamery station here. The couple plan to leave at once for their home in the Crescent country.

JUDGE DELAYS LEVY MEETING

SPRINGER HAS TO BE SENT FOR

Says He Was Killing Hogs and Lost a Day—Court Hears Taxpayers and Leaves Levy Unchanged at Twenty-Four Mills for 1915.

The annual farce of a tax payers' meeting to consider the budget advertised by the county took place in Prineville last Wednesday. Called for the morning session of the court the meeting did not begin until 2 o'clock because of the non-arrival until that time of the chief comedian, Judge Springer. Even then the Judge came only because he had been sent for.

After the discussion of the budget was over the court agreed upon a tax levy of 24 mills for 1914, made up as follows:

- County school fund..... 3 1/2 mills
- road fund (to cover registered road warrants)..... 3 1/2 mills
- High school..... 1 1/2 mills
- General purposes, including state tax..... 15 1/2 mills

In this levy the state tax is estimated at $50,000. Compared with last year the total millage is reduced from 26 mills to 24. More particular (Continued on last page.)

SPORTSMEN'S RESOLUTIONS

Local Rod and Gun Club Adopt Resolutions to Submit in Portland.

The annual meeting of the Oregon Sportsmen's League was held in Portland on Sunday and Monday. G. P. Putnam attended on Monday as the representative of the Bend Rod and Gun Club and presented a communication, approved by the Tumalo Rod and Gun Club, containing recommendations as follows:

- 1st. Recommending that the open season for deer east of the Cascade mountains be changed to open from September 1st to continue until November 30th instead of as at present, owing to the fact that the deer in the month of August and September are up in the summit of the mountains making it almost impossible to hunt them. Also there is the danger of forest fires caused by careless hunters in the dry season, which here is during the month of August and prior thereto.
- 2nd. Recommending that the Deschutes river and its tributaries be closed to trout fishing during the months from October 1st to April 1st.
- 3rd. Recommending that the money procured from Fish and Hunting Licenses be placed in the Fish and Game fund and used for the propagation and protection of Fish and Game and not placed in the "General Fund" as at present as has been suggested.
- 4th. Recommending that on any stream that the State stocks with fish that anglers be allowed within six (6) feet of either bank, on any property bordering on such streams in the state and shall not be considered as trespassers on such property owned by private individuals or corporations.

HENRY TWEET SHOT SATURDAY

WAS HUNTING GEESE UP RIVER

John Peters Arrested on Sunday Charged With Shooting—Tweet Was Near Peters' Place But Across River—Is Doing Well.

Henry Tweet was shot through both legs when on a hunting trip up river on Saturday. John Peters, who is charged with firing the shot that wounded him, is in jail in Prineville pending action by the grand jury that is now in session. Following the shooting the injured man walked over four miles to telephone for help.

Mr. Tweet, in company with W. G. Mustard, went up river hunting on Friday and on Saturday was near the Peters' place but on the opposite side of the river. As they walked along four shots were fired, it is alleged, from the Peters' cabin, one of them taking effect.

When Dr. Coe, who had been summoned by telephone from the Cort Allen place, arrived he found that the bullet had passed through both Mr. Tweet's legs near the body but that no bone or artery had been touched. The wounded man was brought back to town and is doing well.

On Sunday Sheriff Elkins came over from Prineville and arrested Peters, returning with him to the county jail that night. He has employed Vernon A. Forbes as his attorney.

DUBUIS MAKES INSPECTION

Desert Land Board Inspector Here Three Days—His Report Printed.

John Dubuis left Friday night on his return to Salem after spending three days here inspecting the enlargement work on the Central Oregon canal recently completed by the C. O. I. Co. The inspection was made as the result of a recent order of the Desert Land Board. While here Mr. Dubuis took advantage of the fact that there was no water in the canal to make an intensive study of its capacity on the first seven miles of its length.

At the meeting of the Desert Land Board held December 1 it was ordered that the report of Mr. Dubuis' investigations on the C. O. I. project be printed apart from the biennial report of the project. It is understood that the report will be filed soon but that there may be some delay in having it printed.

TRADED ON THE ROAD.

There is an injunction against trading horses when crossing a stream but apparently none forbidding a swap on the Bend-Burns road. W. R. Titus of Imperial took advantage of this on his way to Bend on Monday, according to his neighbor, C. H. Bishop and after the swap had to have Bishop's help to get to town. Bishop thought it was a good joke on Titus and so probably does the man with whom he exchanged. Titus is not saying anything.

BANQUET SATURDAY NIGHT IN HONOR OF G. P. PUTNAM

Over 100 of His Friends From Bend and Laidlaw Attend Dinner of Congratulation.

Congratulating G.P. Putnam on his recent appointment by Governor-elect Withycombe and wishing him success in his new duties over 100 business men from Bend and Laidlaw and the surrounding country gathered at an informal banquet at the Pilot Butte Hotel Saturday night.

Governor West, who had come up from the inspection of the Tumalo Project, spoke on irrigation questions before leaving for his trail. Other speakers, including W. D. Bernea, O. Laugaard, J. P. Keyes and Vernon A. Forbes congratulated the guest of honor, pointing out the service he would be able to render the community, and at the same time urging that all assistance possible be given him.

Mr. Putnam made the last address saying that he was sorry to be leaving Bend but glad of the opportunity that might be his to help the community. Speaking for Dr. Withycombe he said that the governor-elect intended to do everything in his power to settle the irrigation question.

Mr. Putnam left for Salem Sunday night.

RESOLUTIONS PRESENTED

Statement of Appreciation for Withycombe and Putnam is Signed.

Preceding the dinner to G. P. Putnam at the Pilot Butte Hotel Saturday night resolutions expressing the appreciation of the town over his appointment by Dr. Withycombe and congratulating him thereon were signed by many present. The resolutions are as follows:

"Whereas, during the years of his residence in the town, Mr. Putnam has worked unceasingly by his voice and pen for the upbuilding of Bend and the development of Central Oregon, and

"Whereas, Mr. Putnam's new duties now call him away to wider fields of usefulness and even greater opportunities for public service;

"Now Therefore Be It Resolved; That we, the undersigned hereby express to Governor-elect Withycombe our confidence in his wisdom in the appointment of Mr. Putnam, and to Mr. Putnam our hearty congratulations and best wishes for success in the career now opening to him, and

TUMALO WORK DECLARED DONE

PROJECT ACCEPTED BY GOVERNOR

West Spends Saturday Here on Tour of Inspection—Turns Water into Reservoir—Many Speakers at Laidlaw Dinner of Celebration

Saturday the Tumalo Project was officially completed and inspected and accepted by Governor West, who spent the day examining all its engineering features. The Governor in person closed the gates of the Tumalo dam, impounding the first water in the big 1000 acre reservoir, which it is estimated, will take 140 days to fill.

Governor West arrived here on the morning train, and was escorted on his tour by close to a dozen cars from Bend and Laidlaw. He was accompanied by Project Engineer Laugaard.

With the inspection over, a big dinner of celebration, commemorating the completion of the project, was held at Laidlaw. As always, the ladies of Laidlaw covered themselves with honor, at the same time covering the long tables in the community hall with a wealth of good things. More than 300 people enjoyed the Laidlaw hospitality, whose completeness was the more remarkable because the whole thing had been arranged on short notice.

J. N. B. Gerking, often called the father of the Project, presided. Throughout Governor West was heartily lauded for the prominent part he had taken in conceiving the project and materially assisting in its successful completion. Engineer Laugaard and Representative Forbes also received many deserved encomiums.

GOVERNOR WEST SPEAKS.

Governor West, the first speaker, expressed his appreciation at his reception and pledged his continued interest in irrigation development, after he became a private citizen again. His chief attention was devoted to telling why he believed the Federal authorities had no possible excuse for going back on their agreement to contribute the $450,000 to the state.

Banking Revolutionized

On Nov. 16th, 1914, the Reserve Banks in twelve of the principal cities of the U. S. opened for business. This law means there will never be any more panics in the United States. Every Member Bank can at any time convert its notes into exchange or actual currency. The power of the Federal Reserve Banks to issue currency is almost unlimited; this currency is now printed and may be obtained at any time by Member Banks.

The First National Bank of Bend is member of the Federal Reserve Bank of San Francisco, California, and is entitled to the full benefit of this new law.

We will be pleased to give full particulars as to the many other advantages and safeguards of this law, in person or by letter.
