Toys Ninety Feet High at Panama-Pacific International Exposition, San Francisco. 1915

THE tallest toys in the world are being constructed for Toyland Grow Up, a twelve acre playground in the great fun section, "The Zone," at the Panama-Pacific International Exposition. The figure of the lady on the left is Miss Emmaline Imogene Eggen Rights Pankhurst. The figure on the right is the "Tin Soldier." Both are ninety feet high.

"IT'S YOU."
A friend of The Bulletin sends the following clipping:
If you want to live in the kind of a town,
Like the kind of a town you like,
You needn't slip your clothes in a grip
And start on a long, long hike.
You'll only find what you left behind,
For there's nothing that's really new.
It's a knock at yourself when you knock your town.
It isn't your town—it's you!
Real towns are not made by men afraid,
Lest somebody else gets ahead.
When everyone works and nobody shirks
You can raise a town from the dead
And if, while you make your personal stake,
Your neighbor can make one too,
Your town will be what you want to see.
It isn't your town—it's you!
