

CENTRAL OREGON NEIGHBORHOOD NEWS.

SISTERS.

(Special to The Bulletin.)
SISTERS, Feb. 22.—Miss Jennie Woods was the guest of Miss Hazel Templeton on Sunday.

Ed Strahm was a Sunday visitor at the Ruble home.

M. Balesy returned Sunday from a two week's visit in Portland.

C. S. Hudson and family of Bend, were in Sisters Sunday.

J. M. Kief received the sad news of the death of his mother at Douglas, Washington, last Wednesday.

C. Paul, lineman for the Pioneer Telephone Co., was over from Bend last week making repairs on the local line.

E. H. Howell is in Prineville closing a deal for the sale of the F. M. Booth place a few miles north of Sisters.

Miss Hazel Templeton is spending the week with Mrs. Arthur Wurzweller at the Swamp ranch.

Max and Albert Wurzweller arrived from Portland Thursday where they have spent the winter. They are assisting with the branding and separating of their cattle preparatory to turning them on the range.

Robert Smith was called to North Yakima last week on account of the serious illness of his brother, Alex, who has been in poor health for the past two months.

Ireal, the ten year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Harrington, living one mile east of Sisters, had the misfortune to fall while playing in the yard at her home Sunday, breaking her collar bone. The injured child was taken to Redmond where Dr. Hoch reduced the fracture and the little girl allowed to be brought home where she is doing nicely.

A very successful mother's meeting was held at the school house on Friday afternoon. About 25 ladies were in attendance. A most interesting program was rendered after which refreshments were served to about 75 pupils and guests. A portion of the program consisted of an actual demonstration of the work being done by the pupils in Miss Waldron's room. The object being to show the parents and other interested in school work just what the pupils are doing and accomplishing.

After the entertainment a Parent-Teachers Association was organized with Mrs. E. L. Waldron, president; Miss Florence Waldron, vice president; Mrs. E. H. Howell, secretary. Mrs. Waldron gave a most interesting talk touching mainly on co-operation of parents, pupils and teachers for the upbuilding and betterment of all. The association will meet the last Friday of each month and all parents and others interested in school work are invited to attend.

STAUFFER.

(Special to The Bulletin.)

STAUFFER, Feb. 16.—A meeting was held at the school house Saturday to try to make some arrangements to furnish conveyances to carry the children to and from school. It is not considered safe for the children to walk on account of mad coyotes.

Perry Hartoon moved the Jack Smith cabin onto his claim Sunday.

Mr. Jones, of Endicott, Washington, is visiting at J. H. Hassler's this week. He expects to take a homestead.

Gus McLouth came over from the Gap Ranch Friday, returning Sunday. He is grubbing sage brush for Mr. Brown.

Mrs. Best, Mrs. Washburn and Mrs. DeWitt called on Miss Brookings Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Darrah spent the week end in this valley.

Lloyd Forbes is trapping over at the Gap Ranch.

New cases of hydrophobia are heard of every few days. Jim Smith and Mrs. Overall had their dogs killed. Mrs. Overall's dogs were not mad but they had been bitten by coyotes.

DRY LAKE.

(Special to The Bulletin)

DRY LAKE, Feb. 13.—Mrs. Wilson and Mrs. Winslow from Buck Creek were Dry Lake visitors Friday.

Harvey Winslow returned from Bend Saturday bound for his home in Buck Creek.

Miss Laura Peterson made a pleasant call at the G. A. Garske home on Thursday.

John and Will Pauech from Ibex spent Thursday visiting friends here.

Miss Laura Peterson and Mrs. Felton made a short visit at Barnes on Tuesday.

Mrs. Peterson visited at the Mrs. Ring home Thursday.

Miss Vernie Garske spent Friday at Pringle Flats.

O. Everett from Camp Creek paid a short visit at the F. Brown Ranch Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Kins were Pringle Flat callers Thursday.

Geo. Geiger and daughter Anna were week end visitors at Mr. and Mrs. Alexanders'.

Miss M. Wilson visited with her sister, Mrs. Nelson the fore part of the week.

E. Ring and son spent Thursday visiting friends at the Peterson ranch.

Jack Moser transacted business in Buck Creek Wednesday, returning on Friday.

Miss Vernie Garske was a Buck Creek visitor on Friday.

John Fausech from Ibex spent Saturday visiting friends here.

The library books have arrived. Books are free to all.

Mr. Neth has been visiting in the neighborhood the past week.

Mr. Lemke from Ibex spent Friday in this vicinity.

CLOVERDALE.

(Special to The Bulletin)

CLOVERDALE, Feb. 22.—Cloverdale and Plainview held a debate last Friday, Plainview winning the decision of the judges.

Mrs. H. A. Beyers, Mrs. Tucky, Mrs. Wilbur Beyers, Mrs. G. Cyrus, Mrs. Johnson and Mrs. Harley Beyers visited the school Friday.

Mrs. Skelton is still on the sick list.

Mrs. Kruczek and daughter were visiting at Mrs. Kelley's on Friday and at Mrs. Weise's Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Klein were Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. Andrus.

Vern Skelton spent last week visiting in Prineville.

Mr. Van Matre went to Bend Monday and will return Tuesday with his wife and children.

Mr. Burnside moved his family back on the home place Friday.

There will be no preaching on Sunday. Sunday school at half past ten.

The Council meets next Friday evening.

Mrs. Carson attended the mothers' meeting at Sisters last Friday afternoon.

Mrs. George Rivetts and son called Monday on Mrs. Waldron.

Dick Smith brought a car load of Sisters young people to Cloverdale on Sunday.

George Wilson and Hazel Templeton were calling in Cloverdale on Thursday evening.

SUNNYSIDE.

(Special to The Bulletin)

SUNNYSIDE, Feb. 22.—Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Leverenz of Plainview passed through here Tuesday on their way to Bend.

G. M. Couch had the misfortune to lose a fine young horse of lockjaw last week.

The clearing on the McNutt place is progressing rapidly under the direction of F. Becker.

Miss Freda Clark and brother Roland, attended church services at Pinehurst Sunday evening.

Oscar Green has recently purchased the J. B. Nichols place and will take possession immediately. Mr. Nichols leaves shortly for Rogue River Valley where he has already bought a home.

Alva Silvers and sisters of Sunnyside visited Pinehurst Sunday school Sunday.

J. R. Little of Pinehurst was a caller at the Couch home Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. C. Peterson have rented their place to E. G. Dietrich and leave for their home in Washington.

A farewell party was given Monday night in honor of Mr. and Mrs. C. Peterson.

J. R. Hall, who has a homestead here was adjudged insane last week and taken into custody. He was found in the woods near Sisters with his shoes off laboring under the delusion that he was at his mother's home preparing to take a bath.

Mr. and Mrs. E. G. Dietrich have moved to the place vacated by Mr. and Mrs. C. Peterson.

A box social will be given at Sunnyside school house Saturday night, March 3.

HORSE RIDGE.

(Special to The Bulletin)

HORSE RIDGE, Feb. 20.—The people of this part of the country are feeling hopeful since the weather has begun to warm up. The fall sowing of crops is looking fine. We have had two days of rain and wet snow this week which insures us a sufficient amount of moisture for a crop.

Dan Willey returned a few days ago from the Willamette valley with the intention of moving there soon. However, the prospects on his homestead seem so flourishing he has decided to remain here. His wife said she regretted to leave her good neighbors around the homestead.

J. L. Clingan returned Wednesday from a trip to Prineville.

The people of this community have just completed a new school house so we will start our first term of school.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Clingan is a 12 pound boy on the 21st. They are doing well.

Mr. Balesy got water in his well at 18 feet.

In the near future Pringle Flats will have a telephone line. A company of homesteaders will put it through, from Mr. Kim's place on the north side of Hampton Butte and connect with Mr. Johnson's line at Millican valley. They are all ready cutting poles. Another step toward civilization.

Mr. Martin is about to trade his homestead for land down the valley.

Oliver Garrett has gone out after being out on his homestead the last few months.

Mr. Hallmeyer is making a 16 foot wind mill for his well.

Mr. Larkins' family, who left here last fall for Portland is back and will make their home here in the future.

Quite a number of cattle in this neighborhood have been shot with rifles.

We have nearly a foot of snow yet and 10 miles from here on the road to Bend there isn't any.

Con O'Ruffe had a fine mare die on his last trip to Bend.

Mr. Morrison of Bend, the veteran locator of this country is about to file on a homestead out here.

The Fairview Sewing Circle met with Mrs. Norcott Saturday afternoon.

A crowd of Tumalo people went out to the Mock ranch last Friday evening. The time was spent in playing cards and dancing after which refreshments were served. When homeward bound Neal Ray's "Jitney" ran into a ditch, but no casualties have been reported.

Mr. and Mrs. James Griffin and Mr. and Mrs. Carl Hatch spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Dan Smith.

A crowd of young people went to Bend Sunday evening to take in the movies.

Some of the farmers in this locality have been doing their spring seeding during the past week.

County Agriculturist Lovett was visiting some of the Tumalo ranches last week.

There is to be a get-together meeting of the Tumalo ranchers Wednesday afternoon at Tumalo. A. E. Lovett will address the meeting.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Thorp spent Sunday in Bend.

A meeting of the Tumalo Development League has been called for Saturday, February 27th, at which time the annual election of officers will be held and other important matters taken up.

A. J. Gonnason, of Kent, Washington, purchased a forty acre tract of the Tumalo Irrigation Project. He contemplates moving on his land in the early spring.

Several of the farmers living to the north of Laidlaw are making arrangements to improve the roads in their section by donation work; this work will consist of removing rock and running a road grader over the entire length of the road from Tumalo north to the Harper school house.

T. G. Becker expects to leave this week for Burns, Oregon, where he will engage in the wood business.

TUMALO.

(Special to The Bulletin)

TUMALO, Feb. 22.—The entertainment and "Mysterious Menu" social given by the Junior Sunday school Class proved a very successful affair. The program was well rendered and the "Menu" caused a great deal of fun. At the top of the menu cards was written this warning: "They are all both rich and rare, so your selection make with care." Such delicacies as, Bits of Stone and Sorceresses, Wild Ram, Fourth of July Adjuncts, Boston Loves Them, Chopped Printers Horror, A Heavenly Composition, A Musical Nut, A Noise and a Doctors Charge, A Chip off the Old Block, and Sour Help, upon investigation were found to be sandwiches, butter, crackers, baked beans, mince pie, apple cake, doughnuts, coffee, toothpicks and lemonade.

The Fairview Sewing Circle met with Mrs. Norcott Saturday afternoon.

A crowd of Tumalo people went out to the Mock ranch last Friday evening. The time was spent in playing cards and dancing after which refreshments were served. When homeward bound Neal Ray's "Jitney" ran into a ditch, but no casualties have been reported.

Mr. and Mrs. James Griffin and Mr. and Mrs. Carl Hatch spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Dan Smith.

A crowd of young people went to Bend Sunday evening to take in the movies.

Some of the farmers in this locality have been doing their spring seeding during the past week.

County Agriculturist Lovett was visiting some of the Tumalo ranches last week.

There is to be a get-together meeting of the Tumalo ranchers Wednesday afternoon at Tumalo. A. E. Lovett will address the meeting.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Thorp spent Sunday in Bend.

A meeting of the Tumalo Development League has been called for Saturday, February 27th, at which time the annual election of officers will be held and other important matters taken up.

A. J. Gonnason, of Kent, Washington, purchased a forty acre tract of the Tumalo Irrigation Project. He contemplates moving on his land in the early spring.

Several of the farmers living to the north of Laidlaw are making arrangements to improve the roads in their section by donation work; this work will consist of removing rock and running a road grader over the entire length of the road from Tumalo north to the Harper school house.

T. G. Becker expects to leave this week for Burns, Oregon, where he will engage in the wood business.

RIVERS.

(Special to The Bulletin.)

RIVERS, Feb. 14.—The masquerade hall given here the evening of the 12th was a grand success.

There will be another dance given the 13th of March.

Mr. Hallmeyer hauled out a large heating stove from Bend for the Improvement Club's hall.

A. B. Taylor is helping Ernest Nelson dig a well on his homestead.

W. Brown spent the week end at his home.

Charles Best was on the sick list the past week.

Edgar Livesley left for Bend this week for a load of groceries.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Mehrer have returned to their claim. They have been living on the Curran ranch for several months.

Mrs. C. C. Rhodes was a guest of Mrs. Sarah Best last Friday, the occasion being Grandma Best's 77th birthday anniversary.

There was a citizen's meeting at the school house last Saturday to discuss ways and means of getting the children safely to school and prevent danger from coyotes.

S. W. Best went over to Brookings Sunday to complete a job of carpenter work.

HAMPTON BUTTE.

(Special to The Bulletin.)

HAMPTON BUTTE, Feb. 17.—Mrs. Ben DeWitt of Stauffer made some purchases at Brookings store last Tuesday.

Chris Tinner is cutting fence posts.

Jan. Brickey is putting up a 10 foot windmill over his well. Bert Meeks is helping him build and raise the tower.

Mrs. Oscar Butzlein spent the day with Mrs. Bert Meeks last Tuesday.

Vic Johnson trapped two bob cats recently.

Mrs. Bert Meeks and children took dinner with Mrs. C. W. Ashbaugh last Sunday.

Joe Johnson returned from Bend Friday with a load of freight. He says the roads are quite bad.

POWELL BUTTE.

(Special to The Bulletin)

POWELL BUTTE, Feb. 22.—Mrs. E. N. Hall proved herself a gracious hostess when she entertained the Powell Butte Sorosis Wednesday afternoon. An afternoon devoted to business, supplemented with needlework and conversation was followed by a course of refreshments and was much enjoyed by those present.

Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Chapman are receiving congratulations upon the arrival of a son at their home on February 17th.

Mrs. Roy Hill, who paid a brief visit to her sister, Mrs. W. T. Smith and family left Tuesday to join her husband in their new home in Oklahoma.

Mr. Houston, the Prineville sheep man, is hauling hay from A. H. Rhode's place to Bear Creek.

Mrs. Allen Willcoxon and father G. H. Roe were dinner guests at the Truesdale home Thursday evening.

Roeves Willcoxon was a visitor at the county seat Friday, returning on Saturday.

J. L. Gibson made a business trip

(Continued on page 7.)

The Lafollette Nursery Co.

Prineville, Oregon

CENTRAL OREGON'S NURSERY

GET OUT of the rut. It's only a habit to do all our trading at the larger towns. Let us spend our money at home where it will do US the most good. REMEMBER a 26 cent phone message will transact a lot of business and save DOLLARS.

P. B. Johnson

MILICAN, OREGON.

EVERY DOLLAR YOU PAY FOR
BRICK THAT IS MADE IN BEND

STAYS HERE

Brick is the MOST ECONOMICAL Building Material there is.
All who have used our product are satisfied.

The Bend Brick & Lumber Co.

BEND PARK COMPANY

Real Estate

We Control and Have For Sale, at the Best Prices and Terms, the Largest Amount of

Business and Residence Property in Bend. Call or Write for Free Maps and Descriptive Matter

INSURANCE

Insurance Written in All Its Branches in World Known Companies

LIST YOUR PROPERTY FOR SALE OR RENT WITH US. OUR OUTSIDE Offices and Agents Better Enable Us to find You Purchasers and Tenants.

BEND PARK COMPANY

Oregon Street, Bend, Oregon.
Empire Building, Seattle, Wash.

JUST RECEIVED A CARLOAD OF

Shelled Corn

USE THE NEW
BEND FLOUR MILL CO.

Deschutes Spray

and

True Blue

The leading brands of patent flour.
Ask your grocer for them.

FEED

Large quantities of Shorts, Bran, Rolled Oats and Barley on hand at all times.

SEED

Seed Wheat and Rye in several varieties. Mail Orders solicited.

Bend Flour Mill Co.

A. J. KROENERT,
President-Manager.