to Laidlaw Friday, returning home the same day.

Mr. and Mrs. Guy Sears visited their daughter, Miss Orlan at Prineville Saturday.

A. H. Rhode is clearing the sage from the northwest corner of his place and the improvement is quite noticeable.

Allen Wilcox returned Saturday morning from a business trip to Portland. Little Miss Harriett who has been visiting relatives in the valley metropolis for the past two weeks accompanied her father home.

The Kendall and Chapman manure spreader which has been out here for some time keeps in continual demand. As soon as one farmer is through another starts using it.

Local road supervisor Wilcox and crew have started work on the Prineville-Redmond road near the Matt Claybaugh place. The new road will be a mile in length and will intersect the Silver Lake road, thus doing away with the rocky hill which is always in bad condition for travel.

Mrs. E. A. Russett and daughter, Fay and Gladys Pauls returned to Prineville Monday after a few days visit with home folks.

Melvin and Ora Foster have commenced work on the latter's new house on their ditch land.

Water has been turned on in the canal several days ago, but had to be turned off later owing to a break in the flume. We are hoping the break will be repaired soon, however, as water for domestic purposes is getting short with some of us.

MILLICAN.

(Special to The Bulletin.)

MILLICAN, Feb. 20.—B. E. Davis went to Bend Monday, from where he will go to Prineville.

P. B. Johnson was a Bend caller last week.

R. H. Keller was in Bend the past week.

Miss Mabel Wornaleys of Eagle Point, Oregon, came out to visit Mrs. Effie Gless, and will perhaps take up a homestead here also.

Louis Gless and wife came to reside on their claim Tuesday.

The Witham family arrived in the valley last week and will now be at home on their claim here.

Mr. and Mrs. Conoway were in Alfalfa for the past week.

F. G. Kiger was a visitor at the Norton home Wednesday.

Mrs. A. G. Allen was an over night guest at Johnson's Monday.

Mrs. Martha Forney drove to the east end of the valley Tuesday.

Ben Goodman and W. B. McAdow were setting posts and stringing wire between the L. Goodman and W. B. McAdow claim the past week.

Frank Spencer arrived in the valley Thursday having spent his vacation in the State of Washington.

Mrs. Thos. Moffett visited with Mrs. L. Goodman Friday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Gless and Miss Mabel Wornaleys spent Sunday at the A. D. Norton home.

Rehearsals and preparations for the entertainment and box social to be given at P. B. Johnson's February 27th, are going on merrily and all who attend are assured of a very enjoyable evening.

B. E. Davis and son John have finished clearing 20 acres more of their homestead. This makes 40 acres in all that Mr. Davis has cleared of sage since coming here.

John Holland drove to Bend last week.

A special meeting of the horse-owners Development Association was held Saturday to receive bids for summer following 30 acres more of the demonstration farm. No bids were given so the matter will be taken up at the next regular meeting of the club, Saturday, February 27. Various other matters of general interest were discussed.

About 6 inches of snow fell Saturday, which gives plenty of moisture to all planted crops.

He Rode.

While walking along a dusty road in Illinois in his circuit days Lincoln was overtaken by a stranger driving to town. "Will you have the goodness to take my overcoat to town for me?" asked Lincoln.

"With pleasure. But how will you get it again?"

"Oh, very readily! I intend to return to it," was Lincoln's prompt reply.

Unusual Combination Offer!

$1.75—The Bulletin and Any One of These Clubs—$1.75

SEVERAL leading publishers of magazines have joined with us in one of the greatest subscription bargain offers ever put out in this country. Through this combination everybody will be able to get a yearly subscription to three magazines in combination with our paper at practically the price of our paper alone. In this list you will find forty different periodicals formed into thirty-five different clubs. Each club has three magazines, except one Special Club which has four magazines; some of these magazines sell for as much as $1 a year. They are all good and cover a large variety of choice reading matter, including History, Music, Religion, Education, Fashions, Fancy Needlework, Illustrated Current Events, Home Decorations, Fiction, Literature, Drama, Art, Science, Inventions, General Farming, Dairy Farming, Live Stock, Vegetables, Fruit and Poultry.

Under the splendid contract we have made with the publishers we are able to give our readers a choice of the clubs in combination with our paper one year for $1.75, just twenty-five cents more than the price of our paper alone. If you are a subscriber to our paper we ask you to renew so that you too, may get 3 magazines extra. Look over the list and select the club you like best. Send in your order today or give your order to our representative or call at our office when in town. If you are now a subscriber to any of these magazines and want to renew just send your order to us and we will have your subscription extended. If your subscription to our paper is past due, we advise you to pay up and take advantage of this bargain. If you are in the habit of buying your magazines through other channels, we ask you to justly compare our clubs and prices with that of any offer you receive. You, no doubt, are now a subscriber to some of these periodicals. You can save money by sending your renewal order to us. Here is a chance to get your home paper and a yearly supply of good reading at a real bargain. If you want one or more of these magazines sent to different addresses, just mention it.
