TUMALO.

(Special to The Bulletin.)
TUMALO, July 19.—There was a good attendance at the W. S. L. Club meeting last Friday afternoon. The main business was in connection with the cook book the ladies expect to have published. A large number of favorite recipes have been handed in to Mrs. Byron Cady and Mrs. Arthur Flata, who have charge of sorting them and as all recipes are tested the book will prove a reliable one. The following committees have been appointed to take charge of the several displays at the fair next fall: fancy work, Mrs. Minto Howard; Mrs. Fred Piskatag and Mrs. Alfred Hansen; flowers, Miss Fay Gerking; Miss Margaret Mook; Mrs. Flata and Miss Gertrude Woodcock. After the business meeting the hostesses, Mesdames Pinkstaff, Howard and Hansen, served delicious refreshments. Saturday night a crowd of friends attempted a surprise party on Mr. and Mrs. Blake Becker. The newlyweds heard the autos coming and slipped out of the house before the party arrived but returned after the house had been thoroughly searched. The younger members of the crowd of 47 spent the evening playing old fashioned games on the lawn. Later refreshments of sandwiches, pickles, cake and coffee were served.

DOING THEIR DUTY.

Scores of Bend readers are learning the duty of the kidneys. To filter the blood is the kidney's duty. When they fail to do this the kidneys are weak. Backache and other kidney ills may follow. Help the kidneys do their work. Use Doan's Kidney Pills—the tested kidney remedy. Proof of their worth in the following: Joseph McDermott, Washington Street, Oregon City, Oregon, says: "I was almost flat on my back with kidney and bladder trouble. I was so lame and stiff that I could
