ROBINSON SUCCEEDS MILLER.
R. B. Miller has recently resigned as traffic manager of the O-W. R. & N., being succeeded by F. W. Robinson, his assistant. Mr. Miller is well known in Bend, having made frequent trips here on business for his company. Mr. Robinson visited Bend a year ago in company with Ben L. Winchell, traffic director of the Union Pacific system, and other officials. In certain quarters the change is looked upon as one of the first steps toward the complete absorption of the O-W. R. & N. by the Union Pacific.

"Old Dutch" at the Bend Theatre tonight and Thursday night is a rollicking, clean cut comedy and will jolly you to the heart. Lew Fields is one of the country's best known character comedians and appears in the title role.—Adv.
