

Bend Theatre

"EVERY SHOW WORTH WHILE"

WEDNESDAY AND THURSDAY
"THE BUILDER OF BRIDGES"
FEATURING AUBREY C. SMITH

FRIDAY AND SATURDAY
PARAMOUNT TRAVELOQUE
CHARLIE CHAPLIN FEATURE
COMEDY

"IN CLOVER"
ALSO SATURDAY MATINEE
SUNDAY, MONDAY AND TUESDAY
CLARA KIMBALL YOUNG IN "MARYING MONEY"

THE BUILDER OF BRIDGES

A REMARKABLE STORY OF A CIVIL ENGINEER, IN CHARGE OF THE CONSTRUCTION OF A LARGE BRIDGE. HE IS LED INTO ROMANCE THROUGH SUBTERRUGUE AT FIRST, BUT THE LOVE AFFAIR LATER BECOMES SERIOUS AND THE CULMINATION IS MARRIAGE.

PRINEVILLE HAS HOPES

Journal Says Strahorn May Build From There.

(Creek County Journal.)
Robert E. Strahorn may build his railroad from Metolius to Burns through this city according to information received in letters and telegrams from him this week.
He says that he is sure the line through this route would be much more productive, and that if a way can be found through the mountains south east of this point he is open for negotiations.

He will be taken over this proposed route at an early date by a party of Prineville business men and will commit himself further after passing over the ground personally.

SMALL THEFTS REPORTED.

Residents in Center addition report that sneak thieves have been busy in that part of town during the last few days. The thieves have a liking for wood, clothes and small articles of household furniture. Clothes lines have been stripped and collars have been reported ransacked for fruits and jellies.

WALL STREET WISE ONES.

You Can't Fool Them by Losing Things on That Thoroughfare.

While carrying a bar of gold weighing about two pounds from the United States assay office in Wall street recently a messenger dropped the little package from among other bundles he had in his care. Upon discovering his loss he retraced his steps quickly, but no sign of the gold could be found. He was notified he would have to make good. The policeman on duty near the assay office had this to say:
"It will be some half baked idiot who will pick that bar up. The wise ones of this street will never do it. If they saw it on the street they would think it a box of some kind and leave it severely alone. These very shrewd Wall streeters can't see their way a quarter of a block without matches in broad daylight.

"Two years ago a bank messenger dropped a leather bag with no more or less than $75,245 in it right in front of J. P. Morgan's office, corner of Wall and Broad. Was it picked up right away? Not for two hours. And who picked it up? Why a bunch of lumberjacks with packs on their backs came up Broad street, saw the bag, kicked it and then one of them, after a hurried look around, dared to pick it up.

"He hid down his pack, and so did his companions, while they examined it. I happened to be watching, and I saw the bills. They apologized apologetically to their jargon when I took it from them and saw by the lettering on the bag where it belonged.

"I didn't let on how cheap I felt myself. I had seen the bag an hour before, but refused to believe it worth while picking up. Some swift for a cop."

But he was no exception in Wall street—New York Sun.

Remarkable Memories.

Thomas Fuller could write verbatim another man's sermon after hearing it only once, says the London Chronicle, and could do the same with as many as 500 words in an unknown tongue after hearing them twice, which reminds one also of "Memory" Thompson, who, among other remarkable feats, could repeat from memory the name of every shop in the Strand in proper order.

Scotch Doggerys.

The simplicity and ignorance of the rural Scotch magistrate often quite equaled that of the English, immortalized by Shakespeare in Dogberry, and here are two examples, quite in the true Dogberry vein.

"That is a most tragical event which has just happened," said a friend to Bullie Blank. "Your neighbor, Mr. H., has committed suicide."

"Who out?" inquired the battle expert.

"Perhaps it was he—it was certainly another Glasgow battle—who, his health being proposed at a banquet in honor of his recent dignity, responded stoutly to the toast:
"I wanna but say, my friends, that I'm proud of the honor of being made a battle of this great city, and I'm even, I think, entitled to the honor, for I've gone through all the various stages of degradation that a battle has the due to reach it."—Youth's Companion.

SNOW FALL HELPS FARMERS.

The recent fall of snow throughout Central Oregon is reported to have been a boon to the farmers throughout this section. The fall sown grain will be particularly benefitted. The fall sown grain in many parts of the county is reported to be in good condition.

TROG CASE DISMISSED.

The failure of the complaining witness to appear brought about the dismissal of the case against Mrs. Emily Trog, a homesteader on the high desert, charged with killing a horse belonging to E. H. McDonald.

FORREST APPOINTED AGENT.

While here this week E. N. Strong, agency supervisor of the Oregon Life Insurance Company of Portland, appointed Ashley Forrest as district agent. Mr. Forrest was formerly book keeper for the First National Bank.

TEACHERS ENTERTAIN.

The teachers of the Bend high school entertained last Friday evening at the Emblem Club. There were about 75 present. The evening was spent in various games appropriate for the season. Punch and wafers were served during the evening. The teachers plan to give these parties about once a month.

WANTS HITCHING POSTS.

Bend, Ore., Nov. 15, 1915.

To the Editor:
SIR:—
No doubt you are interested in the welfare of your city which prompts me to write you concerning the same. You are aware that every dollar spent in your town will benefit your business directly or indirectly as it does and every other man located there with the purpose of gaining a livelihood. Your council has provided you with streets, sidewalks, water, lights, etc., all in order that

LOTS---LOTS---LOTS---TOTS---LOTS---LOTS---LOTS

Saw Mills are Building---Railroad Talk is Going On---Bend is Booming, but

We are Selling Lots at HALF PRICE!

LOTS $75, $100 AND $150

Terms: $5.00 Cash and $5.00 Monthly, 6 per cent interest. Our Property lays from six to ten blocks of the Business District.

James A. Eastes

Let the Pessimist "Pest" and the Knocker "Knock." We are thoroughly inoculated with the Bend Fever and nothing can stop our sure and rapid progress.

CENTRAL OREGON'S LEADING INSURANCE AGENCY. MEMBER PORTLAND REALTY BOARD.

life may be more agreeable to you during my sojourn here.
And where, may I ask, is the busy industrious farmer to be his team when he goes to your town to spend his hard earned dollar? Your city has provided accommodations for possibly half a dozen teams and yet the business men of the town expect us to go to Bend to trade. The farmers should boycott the town until there are provided hitching posts of a sufficient number to accommodate the teams that come into your town.

The present "back in the alley" racks are a disgrace to a thriving and prosperous town such as Bend. Please remember we have not all lived in or near Bend always. We have seen others and know how to appreciate a good thing and we at least demand necessities and a decent tie rack would not only be a decided improvement to your town, costing very little, but will be the means of bringing more and better satisfied patrons to Bend so wake up that bunch of city dads and tell them to "GET BUSY" or someone else will.

Yours truly,
E. C. TROTTER.

CHRISTMAS is only five weeks away

ARE YOU PLANNING TO SHOP EARLY THIS YEAR?
WE WILL HAVE A SHIPMENT OF LATEST CHRISTMAS NOVELTIES IN THIS WEEK.
THEY MAY SUGGEST SOMETHING TO YOU, BECAUSE THEY ARE DIRECT FROM THE COAST AND ARE USEFUL.

For the THANKSGIVING TABLE

IF YOU WANT TO MAKE YOUR TABLE ATTRACTIVE AND INVITING COME IN AND LOOK OVER OUR ASSORTMENT OF NOVELTIES FOR THAT OCCASION. THEY WILL PLEASE YOU.

Owl Pharmacy

THORSON

The LEADING and only EXCLUSIVE

JEWELER

IN BEND.

My Specialty in Repairing is

WATCHES

Work Guaranteed. Give Me a Trial.
Wall Street, Opposite Post Office.

REAL ESTATE

Our Lot Sales Have Increased 25%

during the past two weeks. The reason is because intelligent buyers want close-in lots at a reasonable price, with modern conveniences, such as city water and electric lights. We are the original owners of this kind of property. Let us show you our close in with easy terms of payment. Call at our office and get particulars.

Lots at $200

D. E. HUNTER

MANAGER
Office corner Wall and Ohio Streets.