WHIPP CONCERT APPRECIATED.

It was a small, but appreciative audience that listened to the Hart-ridge Whipp concert last night in the Bend Theatre. Mr. Whipp, who is a well known soloist had a very pleasing program selected from a wide range of prominent composers. "Invictus," by Wolf, Prologue (L. Pagliacci) by Leoncavallo, "Uncle Rome" by Homer and Danny Deever by Darnoch were especially appreciated. Mr. Whipp was accompanied by his wife. They left for Burns today where they will give a concert.
