

FORESAW HIS DOWNFALL.

Napoleon Had Planned to Secure a Home in This Country. When Joseph Bonaparte left me, the impression on my mind was that had he not been Napoleon's brother he would have passed for a very remarkable man.

BANANAS AS FOOD.

The Best Way to Serve Them is Baked When Full Ripe. Children under three years of age do not chew their food thoroughly; they bolt it. For this reason they should not have bananas to eat uncooked.

"Pins and Needles." After being for a long time in a constrained attitude a peculiar numbness and pricking are often felt in the arm, leg or foot. This is caused by some interruption to the circulation and can usually be removed by rubbing or exercise.

Why Wet Land is Cold. C. G. Hopkins, soil expert, says that five times as much heat is required to evaporate water from the surface of a soil as would be needed to raise the temperature of the same amount of water from the freezing to the boiling point, says Farm and Fireside.

When Your Eyes "Snap." When you read in books and things that so-and-so's eyes "snapped" with excitement or anger you are not to suppose that his (or her) orbs made a snapping sound as they glanced about the room.

Overpledged. "Lend me $10, old man. I pledge you my word of honor I'll pay it back next Saturday."

In Motor Circles. "Now, ma," cautioned pa, "don't force too much on your guests at dinner."

For Rough Weather. "I think I've got a winner in ladies' footgear."

Fanny Dickens. Fanny, the sister of Charles Dickens, was one of the first students entered at the old Royal Academy of Music when it opened its doors at Tenterden street in 1823, and at that time the students lived at the academy, only going home for the week end.

Compulsory. A certain amateur aviator talked recently about a flying trip with a professional, when he fell 1,200 feet into the water without knowing it.

A Querulous Question. "The sameness of these meals is getting on my nerves."

Fair Division. Scene: Police court during dispute over eight day clock. Magistrate—I award the clock to the plaintiff.

Hindering the Process. Doctor—Well, John, how are you today? John—Very bad; very bad. I wish Providence 'ud 'ave mussed on me an' take me. Wife—"Ow can you expect it to if you won't take the doctor's physic?"—London Mail.
