HAMPTON.

(Special to The Bulletin.)

HAMPTON, Jan. 5.—This community was greatly shocked Saturday evening when word was received that Mrs. Streeter had been found dead in bed by Miss Mabel Streeter and A. Ames. Miss Ethel Streeter, whom Mrs. Streeter had been staying with, had left her mother Friday evening apparently as well as usual. Mrs. Streeter had been in poor health for some time. It is supposed that Mrs. Streeter made up her mind to end her suffering after her daughter left as a strychnine bottle was found on a chair by her bed. Coroner coincider was notified at once and came, bringing Dr. Edwards of Prineville with him.

At the inquest which was held on Sunday evening several witnesses were examined and the jury brought in a verdict of suicide. The jury consisted of J. P. Whigget, O. Logan, H. Winslow, E. M. Peck, H. Pursley and Mr. Lamb. The sympathy of the neighborhood is extended to the Misses Streeter in their sad bereavement. Services were held Monday at the home by Reverend C. A. Burton. Interment was made in the Dry Lake cemetery. Mrs. Emma Cordelia Streeter was born in Crown Point, Indiana, December 12, 1861, and died near Hampton, Crook county, Oregon, January 1st, 1916, aged 55 years 18 days. She leaves her father, two daughters, Misses Mabel and Ethel of Hampton, Oregon, and two sons, Edward Zieseness, of Athabaska, Canada and Murry Zieseness, of Chicago, Illinois, and many warm friends and neighbors.

Crook County Swine Buyers!

Last year Mr. Lawson imported into the county choice hogs of a number of breeds, the best that could be bought in the United States. The progeny of these importations is now ready for service. The gilts and boars range from ten months to a year old. In buying these hogs it was Mr. Lawson's desire to give the small ranch owner a chance to weed out his scrubs and get pure bred stock.

The gilts and boars will be sold at one price, $20.00, two gilts and one boar, unrelated, $50.00. They will be allotted under the "first come, first served" rule. Kindly bear in mind that these hogs are from the finest sows of the breed, mated with the best boars that the country has produced.
