THREE HIGH SCHOOLS WILL CONTEST FOR CHAMPIONSHIP

Bend Will Meet Madras Here on Friday Night—Phase of Preparedness To Be Argued.

The high schools of Bend, Madras and Prineville will contest for the inter-scholastic debate championship of Crook and Jefferson counties next Friday evening on the question, Resolved: "That the United States should adopt the essential features of the Swiss military system." Bend will meet Madras at Bend upholding the affirmative side of the question, and will meet the Crook county high school at Prineville, taking the negative side. The debate here will be held in the Baptist church and will begin promptly at 8 o'clock. The admission will be 25 cents.

Bend, at home, will be represented by Margaret Shrader and Margaret Thompson. The negative team going to Prineville will consist of Floyd Reynolds and Myrtle Pugsler.

The judges selected for the local debate are, Rev. A. M. Lambert, Redmond; Mrs. E. Porter, Metolius, and W. C. Anderson, principal of the Metolius high school.

Comstock at the Royal Cafe will give a party of ten a sleigh ride two hours for $2.50 or 1 hour for $1.50.—Adv. 46c

TO TRY DUNN LATER.

D. R. Dunn, indicted by the grand jury last week on the charge of horse stealing, was not tried at the time because of inability to secure necessary witnesses in season. Judge Duffy returned to Prineville this morning and it is understood that, if the witnesses are found, he may hold the trial at once. Dunn remains in the county jail, being unable to furnish the bail of $500 set by Judge Morrow.

LARSON HAS LONG TRIP.

After traveling 690 miles and spending four days on the road, J. Edward Larson, of the Bend Steam Laundry, arrived in Bend Tuesday night on his return from Burns, where he had been marooned for two weeks. Mr. Larson went to Burns two weeks ago on business, planning to return at once. Then the cold weather and snow set in and he was unable to come across country as he planned and he waited for the weather to break. When it showed no signs of breaking he started home by way of Riverside and Ontario, leaving Burns Saturday morning. He says he feels like a package of laundry sent by parcel post.

Odious Comparison.

A little girl from Brooklyn was taken to visit her maternal grandmother in Connecticut. During her stay the household made much of her, and on her departure she was hugged and kissed and wept over by each member of the affectionate family in turn. The scene made a deep impression on her young mind.

A visit to some Boston relatives followed. At the conclusion of it her uncle and cousins stood smilingly waving their adieus to the little one until she was out of sight.

The child's mother was beginning to wonder what made her so unusually quiet when a solemn little voice rang out from her corner of the car: "Not a tear shed!"—New York Post.

Pinched Him Financially.

An esteemed citizen went into a shoe store in a metropolitan town and asked to see some leather goods. Another minute and an obliging salesman was hauling out some boxes.

"That is a nice-looking shoe," remarked the customer as the salesman pushed his foot into a shiny right and started to lace it. "What is the price?"

"This pair is $8," responded the salesman as he finished the lacing and ran his hands across the vamp.

"Does it pinch you any?"

"Well, I should say it does!" was the prompt rejoinder of the customer. "Give me something about $5 cheaper."—Kansas City Star.

How the Roughhouse Started.

They were talking about various things at the club, when a member not especially noted for his cleanliness remarked, "Would you call a bath a luxury or a necessity?"

"In your case," replied the man addressed, "it would be both—a necessity because you need it so badly and a luxury because you take it so rarely."—Boston Transcript.

The Cow.

"Johnny," said the teacher, "write a sentence containing the word 'contents.'"

After a few moments' hard labor Johnny submitted the following: "The contents of a cow is milk."—Chicago News.

One of Its Uses.

"Willie, did you see my new shaving brush?"

"Yep. Mom is using it to paint the bird cage."—Columbia Jester.

COUNTY GETS MONEY.

Residents of Crook county paid in to the state $1,455 in automobile license fees in the past year according to a report just made by Secretary of State Oleott. Expenses amounting to $289 were charged against this sum and the balance of $1,165 paid to the county for road work.

ROUTE NOT RECOMMENDED.

(Juntura Times.) Word was received from Inspector Peacock by the Burns Commercial Club that he could not recommend the Burns-Bend mail route at this time. We won't say "I told you so!" but we are not surprised for there has been little in the action of the administration to encourage better conditions.

WARRANTS ARE CALLED.

County Treasurer Ralph L. Jordan, under date of January 20, will call Crook County General Fund Warrants up to and including registered Number 2242. Mr. Jordan stated that the present registered indebtedness of the county is about $50,000, after deducting the amount set aside for this call.

HE HAS TRAVELLED.

(Deschutes Valley Tribune.) Harry Cheoweth went to Bend last Sunday in the interest of irrigation. We hope he will meet with success this time. If Harry had traveled in one direction, as many r les as he has traveled over this country since he became president of the irrigation district, he would have been well around the world now.
