RIGHT BUYING---

Right buying accounts for our increasing business. We have never maintained that people ought to trade with us simply because we're here. We offer our merchandise in competition with all markets. If the mail order houses can sell cheaper than we do you have a right to send away for goods but if you intend to send away for anything in the grocery line, all we ask is that you give us a chance to compete. We are meeting mail order prices under the same conditions and we know our customers can be better satisfied when they can see what they are getting.
