TUMALO.

(Special to The Bulletin.)
 TUMALO, Jan. 24.—On Tuesday afternoon Mrs. R. U. Flockinger and Mrs. C. P. Becker entertained with a "barrel shower" and tea party for the bride-elect, Miss Fay Gerking. The living room of the Flockinger home, where the affair was given, was decorated for the occasion in streamers of cupid and hearts. An effective color scheme of pink and white was used. After the guests were assembled little Mildred Taylor dressed as Dan Cupid entered the room drawing a sled on which was placed a large basket heaped with the "parcels" for the bride to be. Miss Gerking was the recipient of many beautiful and useful gifts, each of which was accompanied with a suitable rhyme. The "heart and dart idea" was uniquely carried out in the refreshments. Besides the guest of honor others present were: Mrs. J. N. B. Gerking, Mrs. J. W. Brown, Mrs. J. W. Snyder, Mrs. Fred N. Wallace, Mrs. John Coen, Mrs. C. J. Mock, Mrs. Albert Harper, Mrs. G. W. Horner, Mrs. Frank Dayton, Mrs. Mildred Taylor, Mrs. Byron Gady, Mrs. Bob Sturgeon, Mrs. John Marsh, Mrs. Blake Becker, Mrs. Ida Lundberg, Mrs. Vera Dickenson, Mrs. J. C. Tullar, Mrs. Minto Howard, Mrs. Jess Harter and Miss Margaret Mock.
 The Tumalo Literary Club was entertained at their monthly meeting on Saturday by Mrs. J. M. Griffin, Mrs. Arthur Dickinson and Mrs. Fred Wallace at the home of the latter. The house was prettily decorated in the club colors, crimson and grey. The "Oregon Day" program consisted of a paper on Joaquin Miller by Mrs. Dickenson, a brief review of the history of Oregon by Mrs. Griffin and a paper on Eva Emery Dye by Mrs. Wallace. Each club member was presented with a little souvenir in the shape of book marks in crimson and grey signed by Mrs. Dye. The guests were also served with apples picked by Mrs. Dye and given to Mrs. Wallace on a recent visit to the author's home in Oregon City. A motion was made and carried to entertain the husbands and sweethearts of the club members some evening in the near future. The president appointed a committee of Mrs. R. U. Flockinger, Miss Rose Lillie and Miss Margaret Mock to make arrangements for same. A sub-committee of Mrs. C. P. Becker and Mrs. Mildred Taylor was appointed to prepare a program for the men's pleasure. After the business was disposed of a social half hour was enjoyed during which the hostess served delicious refreshments.
