FRANCES STEIDL FORTUNATE.
Miss Frances Steidl, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Steidl, may receive as a present two valuable lots in Bemidji, Minnesota, from the original townsite company of that town. When Bemidji was platted the company said it would give two lots to the first child born in Bemidji. When Mr. and Mrs. Steidl moved from Bemidji to Bend this fact was lost sight of until recently when it was learned that these two lots had been deeded to another child thought to have been the first born in that place. It has since been conceded by the company that Miss Steidl was the first child born in Bemidji and she is soon to be the recipient of a deed for Minnesota property.
