

Your Druggist

THE STORE
THE GOODS
THE SERVICE

Drugs and Medicines, Domestic, Imported, Simple Drugs, and Rare Chemicals, Toilet, Bath and Nursery Needs, Surgical Supply and Sick Room Comforts, Home Remedies and Private Formulas, Sundries and Specialties. Cigars, Candies, Perfumes, Kodaks. In fact there's nothing missing in this very Complete-Stock Drug Store. Whatever you want from any drug store you can find here and if we haven't got it we'll get it.

Our large Weather Chart Calendar now at your disposal.

REED & HORTON

BEND The Rexall Store OREGON

Wedding and Anniversary Gifts at the Art Shop.

OPEN AFTERNOONS

LOCAL NEWS ITEMS

Marsh Aubrey was up from Tumalo on Saturday.

Dr. U. C. Coe is in Portland this week on business.

Ivan Knotts of Imperial, was in town last Wednesday.

George A. Jones was in Portland on business last week.

R. H. Parsons, of Redmond, was up on business on Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Brooks left Monday night for Portland.

The annual dinner of the Emblem Club will be held Saturday night.

Mrs. H. E. Beach entertained a few friends last Saturday night for her husband on the occasion of his 37th birthday.

Miss Grace Ward returned Tuesday morning from a visit to Portland.

R. L. Schee, of Redmond, was a business visitor in Bend on Saturday.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Rollins, this morning, an eight pound boy.

Frank J. Glider, formerly of Bend, is now located at Christopher, Washington.

Mr. and Mrs. John E. Ryan left Thursday for Portland, returning on Sunday.

E. L. Clark, of the La Pine Supply Company, was in town yesterday on business.

Maurice Cashman has accepted a position with the R. M. Smith Clothing Company.

Edward Brooks returned on Saturday, leaving again for Portland on Monday night.

The Commercial Club luncheon will be held next Saturday at the American Bakery.

A dinner dance was held last Saturday evening at the Emblem Club. About 25 couples attended.

Mrs. Fred Estes leaves tonight for El Centro, California, to join Mr. Estes, who is located there.

Miss Jean Buswell, of Portland, is visiting with her brother W. A. Buswell, of The Bend Company.

N. H. Bogue, head engineer of the Strahorn surveying party located south of Bend, was in town on Saturday.

Carl Cook, formerly salesman for the Bend Flour Mill Company, leaves tonight for Portland to locate permanently.

Mrs. Hugh O'Kane left Monday night for Portland where she will visit with friends and relatives for two weeks.

Frank Jennings, manager of the Shevlin-Hixon commissary, returned Tuesday morning from a business trip to Portland.

The Oregon Transfer Company has moved into its new quarters in the room formerly occupied by the Log Cabin Saloon.

J. Ryan & Company, real estate, will move the latter part of this week into rooms recently remodeled in the Lara building.

C. A. Nichols, of Leavenworth, Washington, opened a pool and billiard parlor this week in the J. H. Bean building.

Dwight M. Davis returned Tuesday morning from a six week's visit to Kansas City, where he has been visiting relatives.

Miss Hazel Archibald, of Seattle, will be the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Brooks upon Mrs. Brooks' return from Portland.

Carmody Bros. expect to open their new cigar store in the Lara building this week. The fixtures and stock have been received.

C. W. Reed, of Wellsville, Missouri, arrived in Bend last week to attend the annual meeting of the R. M. Smith Clothing Company.

W. N. Eyre arrived on Monday morning from Cowley, Wyoming to be present at the funeral of his brother, the late "Glen" Eyre.

Mr. and Mrs. William Heniken of Fort Rock were in Bend on Saturday. Mrs. Heniken left Saturday night for St. Louis to visit several weeks.

Baptist church. Bible school 10 a. m. Preaching service 11 o'clock. Young people's meeting 6:30 p. m. Preaching service 7:30 p. m. E. G. Judd, pastor.

F. H. Pinkstaff, formerly a teacher in the Tumalo public schools, and Mrs. Pinkstaff, moved into Bend last Friday and will reside here permanently.

The latest geological survey publications and several copies of the Deschutes river profiles are at the office of George S. Young for distribution.

Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Dodgson left Tuesday night for Prosser, Washington, where Mrs. Dodgson was called on account of the serious illness of her mother.

Rev. Henrikson, of Portland, will be here to hold services in the Scandinavian language Sunday, February 6th, at 3 p. m., at the Methodist church. All are cordially invited.

Howard Gerrish, who has been employed for the last several months in the R. M. Smith Clothing Company, left Saturday night for Portland to enter the Walker business college.

W. W. Floyd of Caldwell, Idaho, L. B. Kidwell of Portland and O. P. Holland of Spokane; horsebuyers, are in Central Oregon this week filling orders for horses for freight shipment.

Miss Alma Lambert and Tony Trahan were married last week. Mrs. Trahan is a trained nurse who is well known in Bend. It is understood that they will live in Deschutes addition.

Mrs. Laura Heddington returned Friday from Hunters, Washington, where, for several weeks, she has been visiting with her mother. Mrs. Heddington also visited with friends near Hermiston.

Miss Birdella Hershey entertained 10 young lady friends last Saturday afternoon at the home of her aunt, Mrs. K. D. McIntosh. The afternoon was spent in various games. Refreshments were served.

Frank C. Schlappi and Lucien Cobb have brought to The Bulletin office lists of books they have read, one having read more than six of those mentioned in the recent Bulletin editorial and the other a few of these and several others.

Miss Beulah Keagy, daughter of Rev. and Mrs. Franklin W. Keagy, of the Methodist church, left Saturday night for Salem where she will enter the Willamette University at the opening of the second semester.

Work was commenced this week in the addition to the building on Wall street recently purchased by E. F. Logan from C. S. Hudson. Mr. Logan expects to move his furniture stock from the Lawrence building as soon as the work is completed.

The postponed business meeting and election of officers for the Library Club will be held next Tuesday afternoon, February 8, at the library. A large attendance is requested as many matters of importance to the club will come up at that time.

A meeting of the Upper Deschutes Livestock Association will be held on Friday afternoon, February 11, in Bend at the office of the Deschutes National Forest. Matters concerned with grazing of stock on the upper Deschutes river will be considered together with improvements and management.

T. A. McCann, superintendent of The Shevlin-Hixon Company, left on Tuesday night for Spokane where he will attend the Northwest Lumbermen's convention in session there this week. Mr. McCann was accompanied as far as Fallbridge by Mrs. McCann and her sister, Miss Moore, who will spend several days in Portland with friends.

Plans are being made to take a census of the town and adjacent additions for the purpose of determining the present population of Bend. Mayor Eustes and John Steidl are backing the movement, the plan being to organize a squad of high school pupils for the work.

A get acquainted social was held in the Presbyterian church under the auspices of the Bible class of the Sunday school last night. A large number of church patrons attended.

NOTICE.

The adjourned meeting of the stockholders of the North Irrigation Company for the election of directors will be held at Hunter & Stants' office at 5 p. m., Monday, February 7.

All kinds of men, women's and children's woolen hats and gloves at reduced prices at Williams and Heath second hand store in old Lara building, Bend. 47-49p

Pool and billiards at the Metropolitan. Just the thing for a little relaxation in the evening.—Adv. 1f.

Drop in at the North Pacific Fish Market and see the different varieties of fish on sale.—Adv.

Go to the Royal Cafe for your dinner.—Adv. 44 1f

Buy your groceries at McClincy's.—Adv.

The Log Cabin Barber Shop can attend to your tonsorial wants.—Adv.

FOR YOUR NEXT SUIT See DICK The Tailor All Kinds of CLEANING AND PRESSING Phone Black 1481

Incomparable Values in new laces and embroideries Just Received.

- Fine Swiss Embroideries, 16 and 24 inch, per yard. .60c
- New Swiss Edges for trimming dresses in pink, blue, red and lavender at per yard 08c
- 10 inch fine Swiss Embroideries at per yard 25c
- A large assortment of new French Vals at 5 and 7 1/2 c
- French Cotton Cluny Laces at 5 and 10c
- Mercerized Cluny Laces at 5 and 10c
- Dainty Armenian Edges at 5 and 10c
- Wide English Torchons—New Patterns at 5 and 10c

We are just opening up a new shipment of Silks and Woolen Dress Materials.

STOP AND SHOP AT

MANNHEIMER BROTHERS

TODAY, GROUNDHOG DAY.

Mr. Groundhog did not see his shadow today. It was a coalition between Jack Frost and Jupiter Pluvius against old Sol that dispelled Mr. Groundhog's shadow. According to the familiar oracle Mr. G. will not return to his hole for another six weeks, and as a result spring will soon be on its way.

BIRDS ARE FED.

Many people about town have shown a keen interest during the last few weeks in feeding birds. Hundreds of birds, it is thought have been kept alive as a result of the attention shown them. Regular feeding places have been established by many children about town.

Try our fresh bread and pastry. Carmody Brothers, Bond street. Adv. 35 1f

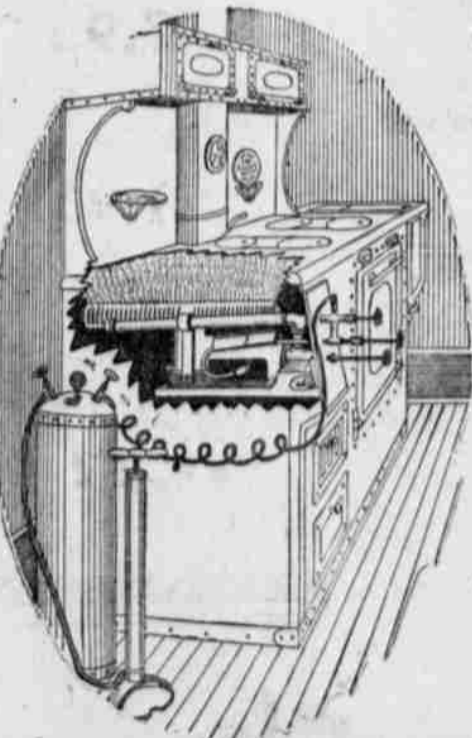

Buy your groceries at McClincy's.—Adv.

KNIGHTS MEET SATURDAY.

The Knights of Pythias convention will be held in Redmond on Saturday, as announced in The Bulletin last week. All members of the Lodge are expected to attend, get down on the night train.

Have you tried that lipped salmon down at the North Pacific Fish Market?—Adv.

SAVE TIME and MONEY

Why carry wood and ashes when you can save all of the unnecessary labor by using a Royal Blue Gas Producer. Burns gas manufactured from coal oil distillate at a saving of from 30 to 50% over wood or coal.

Free Demonstration. F. DEMENT'S GROCERY.

BRIDGES & UTTER Sales Mgrs.

BEND'S ECONOMY CENTER

YOU GUESSED RIGHT

ITS

Warner's

THE VARIETY STORE

Sathers CUT PRICES

For still another week, we shall continue to give PRICE REDUCTIONS on Mackinaws, Overcoats, Flannel Shirts, Stag Shirts, Angora (warm) Vests, Knit Toques and Knit Sets for Children.

- $3.50 Infants' Knit Sets $2.95
- $1.50 Knit Toques 85c
- $2.25 Angora Vests . . . $1.60
- $5.00 Stag Shirts $4.45
- $3.50 Stag Shirts $3.15
- $2.00 Flannel Shirts . . . $1.80
- $1.50 Flannel Shirts . . . $1.35
- $1.00 Flannel Shirts . . . 90c
- $15.00 Overcoats $13.45
- $7.50 Mackinaws $6.75
- $5.00 Mackinaws $4.45

Closing Out Crockery and Graniteware. We have a considerable assortment of Crockery and Graniteware and are giving CUT PRICES TO CLOSE OUT.

HORSE FRIENDS NEVERSLIP CALKS

Protect your Horses from FALLING while the ground is slippery. A "Never-Slip" WILL DO IT.

The Skuse Hardware Company

Rockers Rockers Rockers

Our Rockers are the best in style, finish and design. Easy and comfortable to rest in. Our prices are right. Come in, sit down and try one. You will be satisfied.

E. M. THOMPSON

The furniture man. If you don't trade with us we both lose money.