CHAMBER APPROVES BILL

The Portland Chamber of Commerce has given its approval to the deferred residence homestead bill as approved by the Oregon Development League. The bill provides that the entryman shall cause the cultivation of one-eighth of his land during each of the first three years after filing; he must establish residence during the fourth year, and during that and the fifth year must reside on the land for at least seven months. The proposed law is intended to aid the homesteader in bringing his land to some sort of cultivation before taking his family there to reside, a plan that must be worked out before the millions of acres of lands in the dry belts of the west will ever be peopled. It contemplates that the entrymen shall have three years to do that before he is required to make the place a home. In Oregon alone there are 16,000,000 acres of unappropriated government lands.

FORESTERS FEED BIRDS.

The district forester at Portland has issued a circular letter to all forest officers urging them to feed game and birds in their respective localities during storm periods. The National Forest appropriation is limited to the care of fish and game supplied to stock the forests or the waters therein, and cannot be used for the purchase of food for game and birds. However, the matter is a worthy one, especially during this year of exceptional storms, and each forest officer is urged not only to use his best efforts to furnish game animals and game and song birds with something in the way of food, but is asked to appeal to ranchers and stockmen generally in his vicinity to do their part in aiding the work.
