ANTI-SALOON LEAGUE WANTS FACTS

Directs Interrogations to All Who Seek Position in House or Senate To Learn Attitude Toward Any Changes in The "Dry" Law.

Anticipating an attack on the prohibition law at the coming session of the legislature the Anti-Saloon League of the state is directing a series of questions to all candidates for the senate and house intended to place them on record on the matter of changes in the "dry law".

The letter of the league containing the interrogatories is as follows: Portland, Or., April 15, 1916. Dear Sir:

"Believing that every candidate for public office desires to be frank and open with the public regarding his position on vital questions which are likely to come before the coming session of the State Legislature, we are asking every candidate for the Senate and House of Representatives in the coming primary to reply, for publication, to the following questions:

"1. What is your occupation? "2. The dry law now forbids the sale of any beverage containing so much as one half of one per cent of alcohol by volume. Will you vote against all attempts to increase this percentage?"

"3. The present law permits druggists to sell ethyl alcohol only, and in amounts not to exceed two quarts in 28 successive days, to any one person or family. Will you vote against all attempts to permit the sale of other un-compounded intoxicants, or to increase the amount of pure ethyl alcohol permitted to be sold to any one person within any 28 successive days, unless upon the written statement of a reputable licensed and regularly practicing physician that a greater amount is necessary for external use or application only?"

"4. The present law forbids the solicitation of liquor orders by mail. Owing to the common rule of law which deems a sale to be made where delivery is made to the common carrier, we are unable to reach the mail order solicitors who are violating this law. The U. S. Supreme Court has granted relief to West Virginia, basing their decision on the following words which appear in the W. Va. law and not in ours: "In case of a sale in which a shipment or delivery is made by common carrier, the sale thereof shall be deemed to be made in the county wherein the delivery thereof is made by such carrier to the consignee." Will you put these words into the Oregon law and relieve Oregon mothers, wives, sisters and daughters from the insulting solicitation by mail for liquor orders?"

(This does not abridge the right to send for and receive liquor, but would stop mail solicitation).

"5. Will you vote to require that druggists, when selling alcohol not denatured and not medicinally compounded, sell only to persons with whom they are personally acquainted, or who are vouched for in writing by some reliable person who is known to the druggist, which voucher shall be filed with the purchaser's affidavit in the county clerk's office; and forbidding the sale by druggists when they know or have reason to believe that alcohol so sought to be purchased is intended to be used in violation of or evasion of the law?"

"6. Will you vote for a measure forbidding the keeping or storing of intoxicating liquors in any store or other place of business or of public resort, or in any public storage house or warehouse except that unaccepted shipments of liquor in the custody of common carriers may be kept in the regular storage room or warehouse of such common carrier?"

"7. Will you vote for a measure empowering justices of the peace and requiring them, when complaint is made by a reputable citizen or citizens, to summon witnesses before them; to place such witnesses under oath and question them regarding their knowledge of liquor sales and liquor nuisances; reduce their testimony to writing; if the evidence adduced seems to warrant prosecution; require said witnesses to sign their testimony, and to forward such testimony to the District Attorney; and empowering the Justice of the peace, at his discretion, to require the witnesses to give bond or recognizance for their appearance to testify before the grand jury, or to give testimony in the trial before the said Justice or other magistrate as the District Attorney may elect, but such bond or recognizance not to run beyond the close of the next regular session of Circuit Court, unless it shall be renewed at the request of said District Attorney? (This would enable the gathering of evidence and the preparation for prosecution in remote districts of a county before material evidence could be destroyed, witnesses disappear, or an alibi be concocted by the witnesses in collusion. This would reduce the costs of the District Attorney's office to the taxpayers, and largely do away with the need for employment of detectives.)

"8. Will you vote for a measure permitting any person or organization, in the name of the state, either through the District Attorney or by private attorney, to bring action at the costs of the state for abatement of a liquor nuisance? (This is the law which finally made prohibition a real success in Kansas.)

"Each of the above proposed laws is offered for the purpose of meeting concrete situations which have arisen and still exist here in Oregon. All of them have been tested and have proven successful in other states where they are already in force.

"In publishing the replies to the above questions we shall list them as 'yes,' 'no,' and 'refuses to answer.'

"As we desire to publish the information not later than May 1, we ask for a speedy reply, for which we thank you in advance."

Harry Lauder

World-Famous Scotch Comedian, says "Tuxedo, for mildness, purity and fragrance, THE tobacco for me. In all my world wide travels I've yet to find its equal as a slow-burning, cool-tasting, sweet-flavored tobacco."

Harry Lauder

He's Searched "The Wide World"

The pipe of this king of laughmakers has left a trail of fragrant smoke clear 'round the world. Why is it he has never found "the equal" of Tuxedo? Because it has no equal—because that famous "Tuxedo Process," that makes Tuxedo mild, cool and non-biting, can't be used in any other tobacco.

Tuxedo

The Perfect Tobacco for Pipe and Cigarette

Tuxedo is aged three to five years. But the big secret of that unequalled mildness, coolness and sweet flavor is the genuine "Tuxedo Process." Many have tried to imitate it—no one has succeeded.

Try Tuxedo one week and you'll say as Harry Lauder does, that it's "THE tobacco for me."

PRINEVILLE TO CELEBRATE

Prepares to Observe Fourth and Chautauqua. (Crook County Journal.)

Prineville will celebrate on July 4th this year. The celebration was decided upon by the Chautauqua association at their regular meeting on Friday evening.

The committee on celebration was appointed at this time, and consists of Dr. J. H. Rosenberg, L. M. Bechtell, H. McCall and R. L. Jordan.

Plans for celebration and for Chautauqua week were discussed at length. The merchants have decided to hold "Dollar week" during this week also, and 26 of the leading business houses have promised to participate in an advertising campaign that will be of great assistance to the Chautauqua committee.

$25 FOR A NAME

Help us find a name for our butter and we will send you a check for $25. Try to embody in your suggestion something of the richness of flavor, the health wholesomeness and sweet-smelling goodness to our quality table butter.

The Norman Cream Company of The Dalles, Oregon, is anxious for all householders in Bend to enjoy the pleasure of its new product, of which it is justly proud. This butter is made for Eastern Oregon residents by Eastern Oregon industry; therefore it is fitting that residents of this section of the state should decide upon a name for his representative product.

Where there are fields of waving grains and clean feed aplenty, dairying, as an industry, always prospers. For the first time in the history of Eastern Oregon, a successful firm is manufacturing first class butter in this section of the state, taking advantage of the wonderful dairying opportunities of Eastern and Central Oregon.

The new product, which has just been placed upon the market is pronounced by experts as above standard in every way. It is manufactured in a wonderfully clean, cool, sanitary factory. And now, we want a name for our butter which will plainly tell of its goodness to the consumers.

THE NAME CONTEST CLOSES MAY 15

Send your suggestions to The Contest Dept., The Norman Cream Company, The Dalles, Ore., before that date.

Just a little postscript to invite you to visit our factory when you are in The Dalles. We will greet you cordially.
