Council Orders Question of Charter Amendment for Strahorn Road to he Voted On-Several Ordinances Passed-Bills are Paid

The election to amend the city charter for the purpose of enabling the city to issue bonds and purchase terminal property desired for the Strahorn railroads will be held on Tuesday, August 15. An order to this effect was passed by the council at its meeting last night. At the same time complete arrangements for the election as oulined by Keeler Brothers, of Denver, were made. The bond issue provided for by the election is $35,000. The election is set for the earliest date possible under the terms of the charter. Yesterday's meeting was the first held in June, there having been no quorum present at the regular meet-ing time last week. Decause of the amount of business to transact two sessions were held, one in the atter-noon and a second in the evening.

At the afternoon session the chief business was the passage of a number of ordinances and preliminary consideration of others. The ordinances passed provide for the keep-ing of hotel registers, for the regu-lation of public dance halls, for the The Central Oregon Editorial Asso-regulation of traffic on the city ciation was formed at a meeting held streets and to vacate a portion of Greenwood avenue in connection with the recent adjustment of the streets leading down to the new bridge.
