

THE BEND BULLETIN.

VOL. XIV.

BEND, OREGON, WEDNESDAY AFTERNOON, JUNE 21, 1916.

NO. 16.

TUMALO MOVES FOR DIVISION

ACTION TAKEN LAST SATURDAY

Resolutions Adopted Calling on Other Sections to Get Together and Start Proceedings — Jefferson County Man Tells of Benefits.

The first movement toward a division of Crook county at the coming election was taken Saturday night by the Tumalo Development League at a meeting at Tumalo. Over 25 members were present, including settlers from various parts of the section.

JUP. PLUV. AND OLD SOL DO A LITTLE CO-OPERATING

Warm Weather and Much Needed Rain Put Everyone in Good Humor — Crops are Benefitted.

Old Jup Pluv. and Old Man Sol must have been inoculated with some of this "co-operation" stuff of which Central Oregon has been hearing so much spasmodically for the last three months or so.

PREPARES FOR FIRES.

W. G. Hastings, supervisor of the Deschutes National Forest returned on Sunday evening from an extended trip over the southern part of the forest where he arranged with the various rangers a campaign against fires during the summer months.

J. L. GAITHER TAKES CHARGE

J. L. Gaither, formerly manager of the Pacific States Telephone & Telegraph Company, at Monroe, Washington, arrived in Bend on Saturday to take a similar position with the company here.

O'KANE SEES OLD FRIEND

Hugh O'Kane was surprised on Monday by a visit from an old friend, Colonel Newport, of Hermiston.

OLD TIMER VISITS

Visiting Bend for the first time in 23 years C. S. Staats arrived here from Toppenish, Washington, Tuesday afternoon, coming overland by auto.

CHAUTAQUA OPENS HERE ON THE FOURTH OF JULY

Season Tickets Now on Sale at $2.50 Each—Single Admissions Amount to $6—12 Programs in All.

The Bend Chautauqua opens on July 4 and continues until the 9th with two entertainments daily. In addition there will be a morning program for the children conducted by Miss Georgia Letta.

At a meeting of the local guarantors held Thursday night last year's committee was re-appointed to have charge of the affair this year.

The resolutions adopted at the meeting were as follows: Whereas, the Redmond and Prineville Commercial Clubs entertained in their respective cities representatives of kindred organizations from other parts of Crook county, in the avowed advocacy of harmony among the various sections of the county;

TROOPS CALLED, WAR TALK RIFE

MONDAY EXTRA TELLS OF NEWS

Mexican Invasion Will be No "Joy Junket," says L. A. W. Nixon—Hardships Face Troops—Problems in Big Southern Country

President Wilson, war, Villa, Carranza, mobilization, Mexico, and national guard, were words that were on the lips of almost every person in Bend within a few hours after The Bulletin had published an extra on Monday noon, containing the news that President Wilson, through Secretary of War Newton D. Baker, had issued orders for immediate mobilization of the national guard of all the states in the Union, subject to call for immediate service on the Mexican border.

HOO-HOO HAVE BIG TIME HERE

PUT IN TWO DAYS OF ACTIVITY

Visit Tumalo Project and Inspect Saw Mills—Take Lunch at Camps—Concatenation Held on Friday—Dinner at Emblem Club Sat.

After two days of strenuous sight seeing in the hottest weather known here this year, and after a Hoo-Hoo concatenation, a dance and an Emblem Club dinner, the Hoo-Hoo visitors of Friday and Saturday left Saturday night on their return to their homes in Portland and Seattle.

ADDITIONS BEING MADE AT BROOKS-SCANLON MILL

More Dry Kilns Planned—Stacker and Unstacker Being Built—Box Factory Begun.

A renewal of construction activity at the Brooks-Scanlon plant is about to take place to result in the addition of a number of new buildings which will add to the general efficiency and at the same time give employment to a number of additional men.

TO HOLD WOOL SALES FRIDAY

375,000 POUNDS ARE OFFERED

Opinion Held That Central Oregon Crop, Stored in Bend, Will Bring A Record Price of 21 Cents — Sheep Men are Optimistic.

More than 375,000 pounds of Central Oregon wool will be offered for sale next Friday at the United Warehouse in Bend at prices, it is believed in many cases that will exceed 21 cents a pound.

That the sheepmen of Central Oregon will sell at the prices ranging about 21 cents per pound, and that the buyers will not hesitate to offer this price is generally thought to be certain.

W. W. Brown, of Fife, is the largest contributor to the supply that will be placed on sale. Brown's clip this year is 96,000 pounds and has been sold for several months at 18 cents per pound, which brings $16,200.

"KEEP TO THE RIGHT" SIGNS TO GIVE DRIVERS WARNING

Innovation to Minimize Accidents is Taken by City—Rules of Road Have Been Disregarded.

Corner street signs, bearing the words "Keep to the Right," will be erected on the principal business streets corners some time this week.

NEWSPAPERS INJURED HER, SAYS MRS. JESSIE THAYER

Woman Who Was Associated in Business With Dry Lake Postmaster Plans Libel Suits

That her reputation had been seriously damaged by newspaper reports of her alleged connection with the postmaster of C. A. Benton, the Dry Lake postmaster who recently pleaded guilty to the charge of misuse of United States money orders, is asserted by Mrs. Jessie H. Thayer, who was in Bend on Saturday before leaving for her home at Dry Lake.

SHIPS MANY SHEEP.

Eleven cars, comprising 2,654 head of sheep, were shipped from Bend on Saturday by Alex Mackintosh to Byron, California, for the mutton market.

CONTRACT IS SEVERED.

With the failure, on last Saturday, of the Kaiser Construction Company of Vancouver, B. C., to produce its earnest fee of 10 per cent of the amount of bonds with which to construct the Stutless Lake Irrigation Project, the contract which existed between the district and the Kaiser company is said by officials of the district, to have been automatically severed.

TO ENLARGE LAUNDRY

Larson Plans "L" Shaped Addition Covering 3,700 Feet.

The immediate enlargement of his laundry building to provide for the growing business is contemplated by J. Edward Larson, proprietor of the Bend Steam Laundry. The plans call for a 29 foot extension on the south side of the present laundry running back 80 feet and then extending 35 feet across the rear.

TO HEAR C. O. I. CASE

Hearing Before Public Service Commission in Bend July 11.

The complaint of the C. O. I. Co. Water User's Association vs. the Central Oregon Irrigation Company will be heard before the Public Service Commission of Oregon in Bend on July 11, according to information received this week by H. H. De Armond, attorney for the Water Users' Association.

MARCELLUS LARA DIES.

Marcellus Lara, a well known real estate man of Seattle, and 41 one time associated with the Lara store in Bend, died last Wednesday night at the Harrison Apartments in Seattle. The late Mr. Lara was 76 years old and is survived by one son, Albert M. Lara, of Bend.

TO PLAY BEND SUNDAY.

The Shevlin-Hixon Company nine will meet the Bend nine next Sunday on the local diamond.

SHEEP RETURN.

Twenty two of the 259 cars of sheep from the winter range about Shanika, Arlington and the Bakoven country, arrived in Bend on Tuesday and were taken to the summer ranges in various parts of the interior.

TO ERECT NEW FOUNDRY.

A permanent brick building 40 by 60 feet will rise on the grounds occupied by the Hufschmidt-Dugan Iron Works to replace the foundry building recently destroyed by fire.