VOL. I

JULY 26, 1916

NO. II

THERE ARE A GREAT MANY REASONS WHY THIS STORE IS ALWAYS BUSY, and keeps doing more and more business each week. People don't flock to a store just by chance--there's a reason for it--a real reason of WORTH and SAVINGS. Buying in large quantities, direct from the manufacturer, for spot cash, enables this store to undersell--enables this store to give you the cleanest, newest, best merchandise the world affords, at a great saving in price. And again, the great volume of our selling enables us to keep our good constantly on the move--always fresh and new stocks for our customers to choose from. Being grateful beyond measure for the tremendous increase in this spring's business, we take this occasion to thank our old and many new friends for their loyal support and patronage.

Preparedness Wins in Business, in Life, in War, in Peace; We've Prepared for Fall Trade on an Unprecedented Scale. Ours is the Store of Assortments and Values

Puritan Undermuslins

Dainty, pure white, good fitting undermuslins at reasonable prices!

The fabrics used in Puritan Undermuslins are good quality and perfectly bleached. All of the garments are neatly made--the stitching is even, turned seams are used, the trimmings are carefully matched. The laces and embroideries are unusually good, beautiful and durable.

They are garments that dainty women like to wear.

We carry a wide range of Puritan Undermuslins, including night dresses, princess slips, combination garments, drawers, corset covers and skirts.

We will be fully prepared to do justice to your wants. Everything decreed fashionable in Men's, Ladies', Misses' and Children's Clothing of all kinds will be found here in the largest varieties and always for less money. In another few weeks thousands of dollars worth of the world's newest and best merchandise will be stringing into this store ready for the fall rush. In the meantime we are making reductions on all summer and spring goods and want you to note carefully each item listed below and take advantage of these savings. Everything is exactly as represented--we guarantee this--this store stands for no misrepresentation in any of its advertisements. You may come, confidently expecting goods and values exactly as stated.

For the convenience of those who wish to know just the main features of the new fall styles the following may be of interest.

Waistline.--The preference is for the normal waistline, but the high and low waisted effects are also in evidence.

Skirts.--Semi-circular skirts have adoption. There is some use of long tunics. Pleated effects are coming in strongly. Tailored skirts measure 2 1/2 to 3 1/2 yards, the dressier skirts from 4 to 6 yards. The slightly longer skirt will have adoption. Distended draperies, bustles and polonaises are a feature of dress skirt of extreme type. Redingote and long line draperies are also good. Flare skirts hold their place and tiered and ruffled skirts have a following.

Sleeves.--Long sleeves continue to dominate. A few of the afternoon dresses have three-quarter or elbow-length sleeves. Close-fitting sleeves appear in many of the tailormade, but in dressier garments the sleeves show fullness above or below the elbow. Leg-o-mutton and flare effects, as well as puffs at the shoulder or at the elbow, are among the novelties.

Collars.--The neck-finishes are an important feature. High collars are in favor, many opening at the throat. Cape, sailor and Japanese effects are also in evidence.

Suit Coats.--Both the flared and the straight line effects are employed. The fitted styles are being taken up. In length the suit coats are usually from 32 to 36 inches, but shorter as well as longer lengths are employed to some extent.

Separate Coats.--The wide ripple effect at the hem and either seven-eighth or full length are the leading styles in separate coats. Many show novelty in collars and sleeves.

Butterick Patterns and Publications on sale at this store hereafter.

This is the "Norman" an
COLLAR

It is designed to meet the fashionable demand for a collar that will admit of the wearing of large knot cravats.
