

CENTRAL OREGON NEIGHBORHOOD NEWS.

TUMALO.

(Special to The Bulletin)
TUMALO, Aug. 7.—F. E. Dayton has just finished baling his first crop of alfalfa.

Crops in general on the Tumalo project are reported to be about 20 per cent better than in former years. Everything points to a bumper crop of grain and spuds.

Howard Solberg lost a valuable horse last week.

John R. Couch and wife from Washington, former residents of Tumalo, are visiting relatives here. Mr. Couch says that Central Oregon looks good to him.

Mrs. Aultie Gady, who has been confined to her home on account of illness, is again able to be about.

Miss Payne-Bell, a sophomore at Reed College was visiting her aunt, Mrs. C. P. Becker last week.

Mrs. Herspool, who has been the guest of her sister, Mrs. F. E. Dayton, for four weeks, will leave Monday for her home in Walla Walla.

Mrs. Herspool is a talented musician.

W. D. Barnes, who has recently purchased a new Overland car is making many side trips lately.

J. Alton Thompson, who has been employed as deputy game warden in the upper Deschutes country, has returned to his home for a few days.

Mr. and Mrs. Decker of Bend spent the week end with friends in Tumalo.

N. G. Wallace and son, Herman, from Prineville, spent last Sunday fishing on the Deschutes.

G. N. Clifton is making extensive improvements on his ranch east of Tumalo, having lately fenced with rabbit wire. Mr. Clifton expects to erect a modern bungalow in the near future.

M. E. Brink, republican aspirant for circuit judge, was making the rounds of this precinct last week. Mr. Brink speaks very enthusiastically for county division.

BRICK YARD.

(Special to The Bulletin)
BRICK YARD, Aug. 7.—A number of friends of Mrs. Wm. Douglas met at her home Tuesday afternoon to bid her good bye as she was leaving for Eugene on Wednesday, in hope that the change would be beneficial to her. Word has been received that she stood the trip without any ill effects.

Thursday before the third wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Neely, friends of the couple met at their home and gave them a real old fashioned charivari. Cigars and candy were passed around and the remainder of the evening spent in dancing.

The ladies of the brick yard were entertained Thursday afternoon by Mrs. Jarrard.

The Bend Brick & Lumber Co. is burning its fourth kiln for this season. It contains 450,000 bricks. Their principal deliveries this week are to the Mannheim, Mutzig, Bend Steam Laundry and Bend Hardware buildings.

Mr. and Mrs. Grey of the Brick yard and Mrs. Grey's brother and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Roberts, of Bend, spent Sunday on the Tumalo.

LOST CREEK.

(Special to The Bulletin)
LOST CREEK, Aug. 1.—Miss Nelda Wiegell left last week for Tacoma where she expects to attend school the coming year. She will visit relatives and friends until school starts. James McEwan was a business visitor during the past week.

Mr. Deneer is buying on his ranch near Hampton.

Carton Denny, who has been the guest of Howard Wiegell for some time past, has returned to his home at Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. S. J. Hubbard have gone to Lakeview on a pleasure and business trip.

J. R. Wiegell came in last Saturday to visit his family.

Kenneth Holmes is over to the Gap ranch helping "Bill" Brown during the haying season.

HAMPTON.

(Special to The Bulletin)
HAMPTON, Aug. 4.—The annual picnic of the Hampton Sunday school will be held on Lizard Creek August 27. Basket lunch at noon. Everybody cordially invited to attend.

Harold Fogg, who has spent the past year near Dundee, Oregon, returned home Friday to help his father through harvest.

It is understood that wedding bells have rung again in Hampton valley. The happy couple are James Brickey and Miss Hannah Dunn.

Miss Ethel Fogg left Sunday for Dundee, Oregon, to visit with her mother, Mrs. A. S. Fogg, a month before going on to Salem to attend the Willamette university this winter.

Mrs. J. H. Searcy of Carlisleville, Illinois, is expected this week to visit her son, W. H. Searcy.

Miss Darle Burton and Miss Lora Crow called on Mrs. L. A. Hunting Tuesday.

HAMPTON BUTTE.

(Special to The Bulletin)
HAMPTON BUTTE, July 29.—Mrs. McMillen, who has been visiting with relatives for some weeks has returned to her home in Washington.

Miss Nelda Wiegell, of Stauffer, passed through here Wednesday on her way to Tacoma.

Bert Meeks needed 10 acres for Roy Fouts this week.

Chas. Stauffer of Stauffer, passed through here Wednesday on his way to Bend.

Dave Dunn was a business visitor in this vicinity last Monday.

J. O. Perry of Surprise valley, passed through here Tuesday on his way home from Bend with a large water tank. Mr. Perry has drilled a well on his homestead and has an abundance of water.

Mrs. Oscar Butzlein visited with Mrs. Bert Meeks last Thursday.

Mr. Corbett of Benjamin lake has moved his family to Mrs. V. P. Wray's homestead.

Jay Christian, who has been visiting his daughter, Mrs. Lester Hall, came over Thursday and took a car out for Bend.

Mrs. Bert Meeks and two children returned from Bend Monday where they visited friends.

Oscar Butzlein and Burrell McNett are helping Horace Brookings haying.

Horace Brookings has erected a hay stacker and has a crew of men to put up his hay.

P. C. Deneer came up from Lost Creek Friday to do some moving on his homestead. He purchased a mower and rake from Mrs. M. W. Sheppard.

MILLICAN.

(Special to The Bulletin)
MILLICAN, Aug. 7.—R. R. Keller was home Tuesday night.

Geo. Millican went to his rye patch last Saturday to see how the hayens were progressing.

Alwyn Lee, his brother and J. Beatson, did Holland's haying last week.

Sunday morning, July 30th, Clifton Evans' house was completely destroyed by fire. Mrs. Evans had just left the room with the children when their oil stove exploded.

When she went to look the whole kitchen was one mass of flames. She then took her baby, laid him out in the sage brush and went back into the house, saving a little bedding, but upon leaving the burning house got burned herself, rather painfully, but not seriously.

Mr. and Mrs. Schmorl attended the dance at McKinley's mill July 29th.

Mrs. P. B. Johnson made a business trip to Bend Friday.

Mrs. J. J. Holland's callers for the week were Mrs. Geo. Powers, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Cook, Miss Beale and Roy Cook.

Mr. Holland is home from Prineville where he is helping E. C. Staton harvest for a few days and to attend the special meeting held at the school house Saturday. An eight mill levy was voted and carried at the meeting to help defray the indebtedness of the district. It was also intended to vote on having the school house moved but it was decided it would be more advisable and agreeable to all to try and split the district and get another school house in the vicinity. While at the school house little Margaret Schmorl broke her arm above the elbow. She was at once taken to Bend to the hospital. While turning on the merry-go-round she fell and the board fell on her arm and broke it.

Messrs. Owen and Clevenger moved their mower and rake east of here, where they will be busy for some time, haying for various ranchers.

Mrs. P. B. Johnson and children and Walter and Roy Keller autoed to Vernon Clevenger's Sunday. They got there all right, but had rather a hard time coming back as the engine refused to go and Mrs. Johnson, being a new hand, did not know how to remedy it, until Mr. Geo. Roberts came along and helped her out of the difficulty.

Messrs. Beatson, Messingale and Keller were home over Sunday.

Mr. Hostland has put up 78 loads of hay and has 25 acres more to cut.

POWELL BUTTE.

(Special to The Bulletin)
POWELL BUTTE, Aug. 7.—Just after commencing work Saturday morning some part of the header run by Mr. Edwards was broken. He plans to have repairs completed so that they can work again by Monday afternoon.

New potatoes are now selling for 2 1/2 cents per pound but only a few are being taken to market.

S. D. Mustard is finishing his hay hauling today.

C. C. Montgomery has recently returned from a trip to Spokane and other Washington points. He was one of those who took a chance at the homestead drawing but he drew a blank.

Mr. and Mrs. Yates are enjoying their new Ford now a days. They were Redmond visitors Sunday evening.

Miss Orisa Sears was called to Prineville Monday on account of the illness of her grandmother, Mrs. Alice Sears.

J. F. Rice has been confined to his home for some time on account of rheumatism.

The Powell Butte Sorosis met with Mrs. S. D. Mustard on Wednesday and held a most enjoyable session. Plans were discussed which may eventually mean a ladies club hall somewhere in this locality. The hostess assisted by the Misses Orisa and Ada Sears served refreshments.

Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Bayn, J. A. Riggs and Miss Hazel Bayn made the trip to Suttles Lake Sunday. A number of families are camped there and many of the Redmond people were spending the day there.

Mrs. E. N. Hall had a rose bush of which she was justly proud. It had three large red roses on it. Tuesday evening the Halls went to Redmond to the movies and in their absence some miscreant went into the yard and with a pocket knife cut off the roses and nearly all of the bush besides.

Mr. and Mrs. Allen Willecoxon were Sunday visitors in this vicinity. Mr. and Mrs. Reeves Willecoxon came down with them from Bend and will stay for a few days on their ranch.

On August 18 the young people are planning to give a basket social to which every one is invited to come and bring a basket. There will be a short literary program before the baskets are sold. The proceeds will be used to paint the hall which will add greatly to its appearance.

Thursday evening was the regular meeting of the Development League. There were about 368 remaining from the Fourth of July celebration after all expenses were paid, and this sum together with some taken from the treasury was used to purchase one hundred folding chairs for the hall. Some were also donated by the Redmond Commercial Club.

On Sunday the Sunday school held their annual picnic in the grove on the old John Rhode place. The Sunday school and preaching was held out of doors and then the dinners, after which the young people played various games.

J. A. Riggs, Miss Hazel Bayn and Lina and Mary Moore spent Monday evening at the Saunders home.

AS GOOD AS A CHEW OF "SPEAR HEAD"

That Means the Supreme Degree of Rich, Luscious Tobacco Flavor

NO OTHER CHEW EQUALS IT

Nature varies the flavor she puts into the different grades of tobacco leaf—and the best of all is the flavor of choice red Burley that pleases you so mightily when you chew Spear Head. The delicious fruity flavor of a chew of Spear Head is a revelation to the man who has never chewed or who has been chewing near-good tobacco.

For chewing is the one way to get all the wholesome, healthful, appetizing flavor of the tobacco leaf—providing you chew a high-grade plug like Spear Head.

No other tobacco can compare with Spear Head in the wholesome satisfaction it gives.

You get more savory sweetness in a chew of Spear Head than in a whole plug of ordinary tobacco.

And you get it in its purest form—Spear Head is made amid the most wholesome surroundings, in a great new factory that's kept absolutely clean and sanitary.

Try this rich, mellow, satisfying, pure chew. Such a chew cannot be obtained in any other tobacco than Spear Head. In 10c cuts, wrapped in wax paper.

A desirable bread knife free with every annual subscription to The Bend Bulletin.
