Deals Put Through.

Two real estate deals of considerable importance were made here Tuesday. Joe Ringo having purchased the Crescent Hotel property at Crescent and J. N. Masten having purchased the Ringo ranch, which adjoins the townsite of Crescent on the south.—La Pine Inter-Mountain.

To Make New Surveys.

N. H. Bogus, chief of the Strahorn surveying crews and the entire outfit, including all the men who have been employed at different points on the lines, stayed in Paisley last Friday night. They were enroute to southern points on the Strahorn lines. While it is not definitely known where they will work, it is assumed that they are going into the Surprise valley country to run some additional lines. The last link in the line to be completed, that near Fort Rock was finished last Saturday thus making the lines as originally planned ready for the contractors.—Chewaucan Press.

Fine Fruit Raised.

If there are any who think this country is not adapted to fruit raising on account of the altitude, we would cite them to the various kinds of fruit raised by farmers in this section and brought into the local markets. J. L. Campbell has some Elberta peaches at his market which were grown on the Irvine ranch, on the river. These peaches measure on an average ten inches in circumference, and are of fine flavor. Other fruits and vegetables brought in to the local market prove that with proper care and cultivation the soil and climate of Central Oregon are well adapted to the raising of fruits, vegetables, grains and grasses. With proper irrigation Central Oregon would become the garden spot of Oregon.—Madras Pioneer.

Signs Are Appreciated.

Whoever the gentleman may be that recently placed about a dozen road signs between Fremont, the old Horse Ranch and the "Pot Holes" country, he deserves the thanks of the community. These sign boards are not only valuable to local people but tourists appreciate them about as much as good roads.—Fort Rock Times.

Coyote Scare On Again.

The rabid coyote scare seems to be on full blast again. Much of this may be imagination, but it will be well, nevertheless, for everyone to be alert and careful. "An ounce of precaution is better than a pound of serum."—Silver Lake Leader.

Metallus, The Logical Point.

The bond election on the railroad proposition this week at Prineville carried with one dissenting vote—the same as the former election. It is understood the present proposition does not necessitate connecting at any particular point on the Oregon Trunk, and probably means that connection will be made at what is generally considered the logical point—Metallus.—Jefferson County Record.

Culver Goes Wet.

It is said that cleanliness is next to godliness, then we should by all means take on a few more of the attributes of the Creator for we now have enough water to take a bath. We should do this by all means. The accumulation of those crusts which have formed during the many years in which we have seen so little water that we have shied at it when we saw it should be removed. Culver has gone wet, and we should take full advantage of it. The caution might be timely not to use too much water the first time, as those who approach a pool of water with parched lips and throat may easily take more than a sufficiency for their own good, therefore let us be as temperate in all things, and especially in this until we become familiar with this new element. So far as we are concerned, we do not hope to get the last layer off for several weeks, but then of course there are exceptions to all rules.—Deschutes Valley Tribune.

Redmond Schools Open.

School opened here on Monday and is now in full swing. Sixty-one are attending the high school, with many more to follow as soon as the fall crops are in. Of this number, 24 are from outside points. In the manual training department, just organized, there are 15 enrolled, and 18 girls are taking domestic science and art under Mrs. Lee. There are ten enrolled in the commercial department, and 16 in the teacher training department.—Redmond Spokesman.

Kills Big Deer.

Perry South has enlargement of the chest this week. He appeared before Judge Cleaves one day and bought a hunting license and the next morning he went out and killed the biggest buck that ever butted "round these parts." It was, according to Perry, of the Democratic breed and a seven pointer. The deer when brought to town weighed over 350 pounds and was the largest ever killed around Crescent. And when Perry tells the story he says: "The joke was on the other boys; they went out two hours ahead of men and didn't get anything." However, the honors belong to Mr. South for bringing home the biggest male deer ever seen in Crescent.—Crescent News.

FAMILIES SPLIT ON CAMPAIGN

Wives of Wilson Supporters Will Take Stump For Governor Hughes.

DIVERTING CAMPAIGN PHASE.

Washington.—Families are being divided by the present political issues. Here are a few examples: J. A. H. Hopkins of New Jersey is treasurer of the Progressive (genuine) national committee and has announced that he personally favors the re-election of Wilson. Mrs. Hopkins is a member of the Woman's party and will take the stump and do all she can to prevent the election of Wilson.

Gifford Pinchot is for Hughes and all the militarism Hughes and his backing can secure. Amos Pinchot, his brother, is a member of the American Union Against Militarism and will support Wilson as the lesser of two evils. Representative William Kent of California is a wild eyed enthusiast for Wilson and is heading a Wilson non-partisan league, while Mrs. Kent is a member of the Woman's party and will stump for the defeat of Wilson.

George Middleton has allied himself with the group of writers who have announced themselves for Wilson, while his wife, Fola La Follette, is one of the members of the Congressional union who will hold Wilson responsible for the defeat of the Susan B. Anthony amendment. Meredith Nicholson is a Wilson supporter, but Mrs. Nicholson will write and stump against Wilson on account of his attitude toward the federal suffrage amendment. Mrs. Louis F. Post is a member of the Woman's Peace party and an ardent Trotskyan pacifist. Louis F. Post, assistant secretary of labor, is for the administration's "reasonable" program of preparedness.

Mr. Wilson says his mind is progressive, but those who try to follow its progress can never tell the direction it is taking. It is just as likely to be progressing backward as forward.

THE GOOD JUDGE OVERHEARS THE GARDENERS CONVERSATION.

BY HECK, I DON'T MIND GRUBBING OUT GRASS ALL DAY IF I HAVE SOME W-B CUT TOBACCO. SAME HERE, IT'S RICH TOBACCO, CUT FINE, SEASONED WITH SALT, SO A LITTLE CHEW SATISFIES.

IT MAKES a hard-working man glad to have a dime's worth of W-B CUT Chewing in his pocket. A small chew is going to keep him tobacco contented and happy a long time—and he saves himself the labor of grinding, spitting. It's rich tobacco and pays both ways: finer in flavor—more satisfying and it saves money.

Great Yellowstone Trail.

The Yellowstone trail is one of the wonders and one of the curiosities of the west. It starts somewhere east of St. Paul, and it ends somewhere west of the Yellowstone National park. At intervals along the route there are places where the trail forks and the innocent wayfarer will have to do some thinking and make some inquiries as to which is "the really truly Yellowstone" and which is the side track. This uncertainty, however, is a part of the joy of the trail and adds greatly to the attractiveness of a trip over it.—Outing.

MARKET REPORTS.

PORTLAND UNION STOCK YARDS.
