

The Edison

"Makes Music All the Day"

No phonograph has the power to reproduce the natural tone possessed by THE EDISON.

It is our pleasure always to play the new records because we want to acquaint you with this greatest of all phonographs.

REED & HORTON

LOCAL NEWS ITEMS

There will be a meeting to discuss county division questions in the Commercial club room tomorrow (Thursday) night at 8 o'clock. Everyone is urged to attend.

J. N. Masten, of La Pine, was in town on Monday.

Fred N. Wallace was up from Tumalo on Saturday.

E. L. Clark, of La Pine, was a visitor in Bend on Saturday.

SAY!

Do You Give This Kollum the Once Over

every week? If you don't you really have no idea how good the programs are at THE BEND.

FOR INSTANCE—Just take tonight. You can see Pauline Frederick in AUDREY, taken from the famous novel, with a news picture. Then every Friday and Saturday

OVER FIVE-HUNDRED people see Helen Holmes in The Girl and The Game, and laugh at Ham and Bud's antics. It

ISN'T JUST CHANCE that our Sunday-Monday programs are so good. We choose them especially for these days, and this week we have chosen The Heart of Paula. This is a love story of old Mexico and has a HAPPY AND SAD ending. We will show the sad ending Sunday, and the happy close Monday.

P. S.—sometimes stands for an attached Punk Squib, but in this instance it means that

P. D. Q. you will have the opportunity to see Mary Pickford in The Eternal Grind.

Bend Theatre

The home of all Paramounts and other good pictures.

The Round-Up

of the Summer months and vacation days is over. The season for cold resisting, warmer garments is here and a visit to our store will prove that it's worth while to lay in your stock of clothing right now while our

Stocks are Bristling

from collar buttons to trunks with NEW GOODS FOR FALL AND WINTER.

- SUITS
- OVERCOATS
- MACKINAW
- SHOES
- HATS
- HUNTING COATS
- GLOVES
- SHIRTS
- CAPS
- NECKWEAR

A. L. FRENCH

MEN'S FURNISHINGS

"THE STORE THAT SETS THE PACE."

H. Reingold, of Portland, arrived in Bend on Saturday to take charge of H. Reingold & Company's store in Bend.

The Bend Brick & Lumber Co. is delivering lumber this week for the Warner warehouse and the Prince garage.

Mrs. James Ryan and children returned Sunday morning from a several weeks' visit with relatives in Seattle.

Mrs. G. P. Putnam, who has been visiting her parents in Connecticut this summer, returned to Salem on Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Warner spent Sunday with the Misses Mary and Susie Benson at the Mountain Crest View ranch.

I. Wellington Gardner, Frank Gilbert, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Easton and Miss Elsie Olsen spent Sunday on the Metolius.

A. C. Shelton and W. A. Kuykendall, of Eugene, passed through Bend on Friday after a two weeks' visit to Crater Lake.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Gray arrived yesterday morning from Sonora, Cal. Mr. Gray has taken employment in the box factory.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Hibbard left on Sunday night, after spending several months here visiting their daughter, Mrs. C. P. Niawonger.

M. C. Athey, editor of the Harney County Tribune, who is advance agent for the Harney County Sage Brush Orchestra, was in Bend Sunday.

H. D. McBride returned from Medford on Friday to make preparations for the opening of his confectionery store in the O'Kane building next month.

Horn—On Friday, to Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Varco, a boy weighing six and a quarter pounds. Mrs. Varco is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Bishop.

Dr. David N. Rogers, of Portland, chairman of the State Board of Health, arrived in Bend last night and will leave tomorrow for Klamath Falls.

E. C. Landingham, Ed. Swalley, Chas. Griffith and Mrs. Lena McPherson returned Monday night from a two weeks' camping trip on the south fork of the McKenzie river.

Paul C. Garrison returned Friday night with his family from Idaho, where they spent the summer. He left again on Monday on a two weeks' trip into the eastern part of the state.

P. Huntington was over from Sisters on Monday with Mr. and Mrs. A. Pedasult, who expected to remain here. Being unable to find satisfactory accommodations they returned to Sisters the same day.

Seth Stookey, who has recently brought a number of horses to this section to carry on the range through the winter, left on Friday for Wilbur, Wash., where he will arrange to bring his family here in the near future.

Howard Palmer left on Saturday for The Dalles, where he expects to live permanently hereafter. On account of his health he has been compelled to move to a lower altitude. His wife and daughter are already at The Dalles.

There will be an informal meeting of the Parent-Teacher association and a reception for the teachers at the Reid school on Friday evening at 8 o'clock. All members of the association and all parents whose children are attending school are invited to attend.

William McMurray, general passenger agent, and F. W. Robinson, traffic manager, of the O-W. R. & N., arrived here in their private car on Friday and left for Portland Saturday night after spending Saturday in inspecting the town and surrounding country.

I. Wellington Gardner, Los Angeles capitalist, who visited a few days last week with his brother-in-law, Frank Gilbert, returned to his home on Monday morning, going via Klamath Falls. Mr. Gardner is much impressed with Bend and vicinity, and will return in a few weeks.

A meeting has been called by L. D. Weist, chairman of the Prohibition Party of Crook County, to be held Sept. 24 at 2 o'clock. Rev. H. C. Hartranft will speak on the "Brewers' Amendment and Absolute Prohibition." Several other meetings are being planned by the party for several towns in the county for the rest of the campaign.

W. D. Barnes was up from Tumalo on Tuesday.

C. T. Chaifan is in town today from Plainview district.

G. A. Smythe, of Burns, is in Bend today on business.

Phillip Brooks, of Vancouver, B. C., will arrive in Bend on Saturday.

Thomas H. Wilson, formerly of the Klamath Falls Record, was in town today on business.

C. J. Catlow left for Portland last night to arrange for new programs for the Bend Theatre.

Fred W. Horstkotte, of Spokane, arrived in Bend this morning to inspect the new Shevlin-Hixon sawmill.

V. A. Forbes has begun the erection of a house in Pinelyst Park, which he will occupy when completed.

Scandinavian-Lutheran church services will be held on Sunday evening at the Commercial club rooms at 7:30 p. m.

Mr. and Mrs. C. M. McKay and Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Rhodes made a trip to Paulina and East Lake. Mr. McKay planted 2,000 rainbow trout in the lakes.

The Baptist Women will meet for work and business at the home of Mrs. Foley Thursday at 2:30. Members are asked to note that the election of officers will be held at this meeting.

Sam McMurtie, who has been seriously ill in Spokane, is reported to be improving and will return to Bend the latter part of the week. Mr. McMurtie was taken ill while attending the Spokane Interstate Fair.

McBride Confectionery Store will open about October 14 in O'Kane Building.—Adv. 29-32p.

Dance at the Hippodrome after the concert Saturday evening at 9:30. Peerless Orchestra.

Bend Doings for next seven days

Thursday. County Division meeting, council chambers, 8 p. m.

Friday. Parent-Teachers' Assn. meeting and reception, Reid school, 8 o'clock.

Saturday. Tumalo Fair, Tumalo, beginning 9:30 a. m. Harney County Sage Brush Orchestra concert, Hippodrome, 7:30 p. m.

Sunday. Sunday school rally, Presbyterian church, 10:45 a. m. Preaching services at all churches. Prohibition meeting, Grange hall, 2 p. m.

Monday. School Board meeting, H. J. Overturf's office, 8 p. m. Football turnout, Baseball park, 6 p. m.

Tuesday. Mr. E. Aid benefit, Bend Theatre, 8 p. m.

Don't forget the big dance at the Hippodrome every Tuesday and Saturday evenings.

ERICKSON ARRESTED. Oliver H. Erickson, who has been called frequently before City Recorder H. C. Ellis, is being tried today before Judge J. A. Estes upon complaint of J. B. Miner, for taking the latter's automobile without permission. Erickson was recently arrested on the charge of driving an automobile while intoxicated.

MEN WANTED. Wood cutters and several good all-around men wanted at the Brickyard at once. Phone Rural 72. adv. tfe

Dance at the Hippodrome after the concert Saturday evening at 9:30. Peerless Orchestra.

Four chairs at your service at the Metropolitan. No waiting.—Adv.

CHURCH NOTICES. Catholic. Masses on Sunday, 7:30 a. m. and 10 a. m. Mass on Saturday, 8:30 a. m., followed by religious instruction for children.

Christian Science. Christian Science services are held in Sathers hall every Sunday morning at eleven o'clock.

Baptist. 10 a. m., Bible school; 11 a. m., preaching service. The subject is "Forward." 7:30, Evening worship and sermon. J. L. Pefinger, pastor.

Presbyterian. Annual Rally day exercises will be rendered by the Sunday school next Sunday morning at 10:45. The following program will be rendered: Song, by the school; prayer; Scripture reading by response; an exercise by the primary department; song, by the school; exercise by the beginners; song, by the school; missionary exercise by the juniors; talk to the children by the pastor; closing song; benediction. The evening service will be held at 7:30, at which time the pastor will speak from the theme, "The Relation of the Bible to an Education." This address is to be made in the interest of the Bible study course, which this year is being recognized by the high schools of Crook County. H. C. HARTRANFT, pastor.

McBride Confectionery Store will open about October 14 in O'Kane Building.—Adv. 29-32p.

See J. Ryan & Co., for farm land loans.—Adv.

Phone Red 161 for reserved seats for Sunday dinner at The Altamont. Open 5:30 to 7 o'clock.

Notice. The parties who hauled lumber from Cozy Restaurant corner Sunday morning, see owner and save trouble. A. G. BROOK. Adv. 29-p.

VOCAL MUSIC CLASS. About the middle of September I will start a class in vocal music. Those who are interested may write or call on me. Mrs. Franklin Thorndarson, River Terrace.—Adv. tfe

MUSIC CLASSES TO BEGIN. Mrs. Bernice Halley-Forrest announces that her classes in music will start on September 12.—Adv 26tf

ZULLIG SAYS CROP GOOD. Robert Zullig, who was formerly employed at The Bend Company saw

Favored Fall Fashions

Distinctive Garments for Fall are now being shown here. SUITS of the better kind in serge, poplin, etc.

at $15.75 to $29.50

Serge Dresses

are greatly in vogue this season. The styles are varied, straight lines and plaited effects—navy is the favored color. Prices are modest, quality considered. $6.75 to $19.50

—For the School Girl we especially direct your attention to our Peter Thompson made Middy Dresses at $6.75

—New Fall Waists of organdie and voile, daintily embroidered and trimmed. Priced at $1.15, $1.25, $1.50

"They Lace in Front"

—The New Fall Gossard Corsets and Brassieres are here. Gossards for every type of figure. We can corset you intelligently from the most varied stock in the city.

Gossard Corsets—$2, $3, 3.50, $4, $5, $6.50

Gossard Brassieres—50c, 75c and $1.00

Warner's Corsets, $1 to $5

Our Needlework Novelties for holiday embroidering include the latest things. Pin Books, Silverware Cases, Camisoles, Gowns, Towels. We especially invite you to visit our ready to wear department where every convenience has been provided to make your selections with comfort and ease.

MANNHEIMER BROTHERS

Watch Us Grow

NOTICE.

The parties who hauled lumber from Cozy Restaurant corner Sunday morning, see owner and save trouble. A. G. BROOK. Adv. 29-p.

VOCAL MUSIC CLASS.

About the middle of September I will start a class in vocal music. Those who are interested may write or call on me. Mrs. Franklin Thorndarson, River Terrace.—Adv. tfe

MUSIC CLASSES TO BEGIN.

Mrs. Bernice Halley-Forrest announces that her classes in music will start on September 12.—Adv 26tf

ZULLIG SAYS CROP GOOD. Robert Zullig, who was formerly employed at The Bend Company saw mill, was in from his homestead in the Christmas Lake Valley on Monday to buy supplies for the winter. He reports that farming conditions in his vicinity are more than promising. There will be big crops of grain and potatoes and an unusual quantity of rye. His own rye crop, Mr. Zullig says, will be 10 times larger than he expected at one time. The grain in the field stands higher than his chin.

CALL FOR BIDS.

Notice is hereby given that the plans and specifications for the excavation for the new school building are now ready and may be seen at the office of Lee A. Thomas, architect, Thompson building. Bids for the excavation will be received up to noon on Monday, at the office of H. J. Overturf, clerk of the board. Bids will be opened by the board at a meeting Monday evening. 29c H. J. OVERTURF, Clerk.

Autumn...

In its grandeur is with us. All is peaceful, quiet and sublime. Nature in her nice, quiet way, is clothing herself for the after month. Let us pattern after her in choosing our fall apparel, selecting fabrics, tints and shades as fittingly becomes this beautiful season.

Varied Lines

Come to our store for selections. We are now nicely prepared to furnish materials of many fabrics. Accessories to match and admire.

New Goods

Our purchases for fall business are arriving and meeting with approbation and demand.

Low Prices

We are pleased to announce that although there has been heavy advances in all lines, our foresight in placing large orders in advance, enables us to continue to sell meritorious merchandise at near our former prices.

All Welcome

At this time we wish to especially invite the newcomer—the stranger within our gates, as well as our old friends tried and true, to make our store your store to the end that we may better serve you in the future than in the past, ever looking for improvement in store service and satisfactory dealings with all.

ESTABLISHED STYLE CENTER

E. A. Sather

BEND'S PIONEER MERCHANT

We Make Your Nickels and Dimes Look Bigger

WARNER'S

Bend's Economy Center