

BEND LOSES ON COSTLY ERRORS

PRINEVILLE WINNER 8 to 2

Bend Gets Away Bad From Start—Clark Retrieved Himself From Defeat a Week Ago—Tetherow Not UP to Form

Prineville retrieved itself last Sunday from the 6 to 0 defeat of September 17 in a practice game by defeating Bend 8 to 2. Clark was in the box again for Prineville and he had Bend eating out of his hand all the way through. Three little hits, one of which was a home run by W. Russell in the eighth inning, was all that he allowed Bend. Prineville played in its usual snappy form, the infield working fast and cutting off Bend at every chance.

Bend lost the game, more than Prineville won it. The local nine got away in poor shape from the start with three errors in the first inning. Tetherow was not up to his usual pitching form Sunday. Thirteen hits were registered against him, but many of them were scratch hits made possible by show fielding. Bend's heavy hitters were unable to hit Clark, popping the ball for the most part in the infield.

Not in the entire season has Bend handled itself so poorly at the bat in the field. Prineville scored first in the first inning after Russell's poor handling of McCall's easy grounder. McCall was scored on Houston's overthrow to first. Prineville scored three in the third with two gone. Burdon singled and went to third on an overthrow and home on an overthrow. Ellis walked, stole second and was scored on Bechtell's single. Bechtell stole second and was scored when O'Donnell, in center field, dropped Albee's fly. Bechtell scored in the fifth on Baker's bad throw to the plate. Bechtell scored for the third time in the seventh after he singled, stole second, coming in on Lister's single. McCall scored in the eighth from third when Burden flew to Russell in center field.

Could Not Do Her Cooking.

Mrs. F. E. Hartmeister, Tea., Mo., writes: "I was affected with kidney trouble for two years. I got so bad this summer I could hardly do my cooking. I got Foley Kidney Pills and I feel like a new person." Too many women neglect symptoms of kidney derangement, weak back, swollen ankles and joints, aches, pains and rheumatism. Genuinely Dry.

Antofagasta, a seaport of Chile, on Morena bay, a great shipper of metal ores, borax and nitrate, is obliged to pipe its drinking water several hundred miles from the Andes. The city is one of the driest spots in the world, though a deep water port. Beyond it lies the great Atacama desert.—Argonaut.

Lucky Youth.

"Young Scadds is an absolute nincompoop. He doesn't know enough to come in when it rains." "He doesn't need to. With all his money he can afford a new umbrella every day in the week and also a man to carry it for him."—St. Louis Post-Dispatch.

Her Jewels.

Mrs. Subbuts—I wonder where little Willie and Davis are. Did you see anything of my jewels as you came along. Mr. Nextdore? Nextdore—Yes; I did, ma'am. Your jewels are in soak. I saw them swimming in the river.—Boston Transcript.

(N. Y.) SUN STROKES.

Roger Sullivan steps aside.—Newspaper headline. Students of Democratic politics know what a thin line divides stepping aside and sidestepping.

The Democrats seem to realize, to their dismay, that if they can't persuade Mr. Hughes to change from plaintiff to defendant the case is lost.

It is not what Wilson has kept us out of but what he's got us into that counts at present.

VILLA AIDED BY WILSON'S FAVOR AND BACKING.

In March last Villa made a raid into American territory. He was a bandit leader whose career of successful infamy had been greatly aided by Mr. Wilson's favor and backing. He was at the head of Mexican soldiers, whose arms and munitions had been supplied to them in consequence of Mr. Wilson's reversing Mr. Taft's policy and lifting the embargo against arms and munitions into Mexico. They attacked Columbus, New Mexico, and killed a number of civilians and a number of United States troops. On the next day the president issued an announcement that adequate forces would be sent in pursuit of Villa "with the single object of capturing him." On April 8th the announcement was made from the White House that the troops would remain in Mexico until Villa was captured. It was furthermore announced in the press dispatches from Washington that he was to be taken "dead or alive." Fine words! Only—they meant nothing. He is not dead. He has not been taken alive.—From Speech of Colonel Theodore Roosevelt, Delivered at Lewiston, Me., in Behalf of Charles E. Hughes.

Mr. Wilson during the past few days has become such a life long opponent of the pork barrel that he is almost sorry now he didn't veto some of those bills.

Secretary McAdoo warns Treasury employees against too much political activity, and if they don't disobey the order they are likely to be bounced.

A HEARTLESS ADMINISTRATION

This administration has displayed no more feeling of responsibility for the American women who have been raped and for the American men, women and children who have been killed in Mexico than a farmer shows for the rats killed by his dogs when the hay is taken from a barn. And now the American people are asked to sanction this policy in the name of peace, righteousness and humanity!—From the Speech of Colonel Theodore Roosevelt, Delivered at Lewiston, Me., in Behalf of Charles E. Hughes.

JASON MOORE IS COMING.

Jason Moore, the eastern promoter who has leased Summer and Albert lakes with the view to obtaining valuable mineral salts from their waters, is now on his way to Oregon, according to his Portland attorney. While here Mr. Moore will visit the lakes and see a site for a costly reduction plant. He is on his way to the lakes by way of Reno, and is expected to visit Portland later, probably by way of Bend.

MILICAN CROPS GOOD.

Mrs. M. E. Forgey, who has a homestead in the Millican Valley, reports that crops in that section were never better. No one as yet has tried to raise alfalfa, but all have succeeded this year with hay and grain. On her own homestead Mrs. Forgey has raised 30 tons of rye hay.
