

Central Oregon Neighborhood News

POWELL BUTTE.

POWELL BUTTE, Oct. 9.—Rosa Bussett has been on the sick list.

S. D. Mustard spent the early part of the week in Prineville putting in his exhibit at the fair.

Ora Foster has purchased a separator with which he expects to finish up this year's threshing. It will be slow work, for it is a small machine. He expects to start in at 6 M. Cornetts place on Monday if the weather permits.

Mr. and Mrs. Allen Willcox returned Sunday night from Portland. Mrs. E. A. Bussett and Mr. who Mrs. Allen Willcox motored to Bend Monday.

Miss Lisa Moore commenced her school this week Monday. She is teaching the same school she taught last winter.

Mrs. Lou Reed visited her parents Mr. and Mrs. Tuck over Sunday.

Miss Ada Moore spent Sunday at home, returning to Redmond Monday morning.

School commenced in the Twin Butte district this week.

Mrs. Tuck is moving to Redmond to live for a while.

Miss Lisa Moore spent Wednesday at the fair ground fixing the booth for the Keep-at-It Club, of which she is leader.

Reaves Willcox left for Portland Wednesday evening. J. M. Shearer took him to Redmond. Mr. Willcox goes to Portland for medical treatment.

A pleasant party was held at the E. A. Bussett home on Thursday evening for the young people of the neighborhood. The evening was spent with games and music. Refreshments were served to the guests.

J. L. Gibson's car met with an accident on the way to Prineville. In turning out to pass a freight train, the car struck a rock in such a way as to break an axle.

J. A. Riggs has a crew of men putting up his second crop of alfalfa on the Bogart forty.

Mr. Nicely, on the John Lucky place has the hay later at work there now, hailing his hay.

Miss Fay Bussett and Gladys Paula returned to Prineville Sunday, after spending several days with their home folks.

The new home of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Wilson was the center of attraction on Saturday evening, when a number of neighbors and friends gathered for a house warming. Dancing was indulged in until a late hour, when refreshments were served. All report a most enjoyable time. Many were prevented from attending on account of its being fair week.

SISTERS.

(Special to The Bulletin.)

SISTERS, Ore., Oct. 9.—Large herds of sheep pass through town almost daily on their way from the summer ranges in the mountains to their winter quarters. The grass on the range this year was fine and the sheep are in good condition.

Mr. Blackman, traveling Sunday school organizer for the Presbyterian church in this state, held services in the local Presbyterian church Sunday evening. Those present listened to a spirited address.

J. D. Bowman, who has been away for several days, has returned and is making much needed repairs on bridges on the roads leading from town. Herman Seaman and Clyde Gist are helping with the work.

M. E. Harrington has been busy the past week hauling brick from Bend to the Metolus.

Oida Taylor is clerking at the Redding store this week.

John Dennis made several trips to the Crook Co. Fair this week taking Sisters people with him each time.

C. L. Gist was busy making regular trips to the Crook Co. Fair, also taking passengers from Sisters with him.

Dr. Robbins attended Crook Co. Fair.

Nels Kopang was up from his homestead last week working in the mill.

Bill Arthur is working at the J. P. Duckett saw mill.

C. Branton has gone to the valley after a load of fruit.

Ellis Edgington was hauling hay to town this week.

Anton Roach's wife and new-born babe have returned from a recent visit to Mrs. Roach's mother in eastern Washington.

John Taylor is ill. Dr. Robbins is treating him.

At one o'clock on the morning of Sept. 27, a baby boy arrived at the home of Roy Woodworth, of Cloverdale. Dr. Robbins is in charge. Mother and child are doing nicely.

Jim Atkins was in town this week after lumber. Several teams are hauling lumber to Grandview this week.

The Forest Service is building a cistern on Black Butte for the purpose of storing water for the ranger station on the Butte. This will add much to the convenience of the ranger stationed on the summit during the summer months. At the present time water for domestic use is carried in cans on horseback to the summit.

Mr. Weinstein is on a business trip to Portland.

For farm land loans see J. Ryan & Co. Reasonable rates, prompt service.—Adv.

MILLICAN.

(Special to The Bulletin.)

MILLICAN, Ore., Oct. 9.—Jim Beaton was employed at the Geo. Cook's a few days.

Mrs. J. J. Holland, Frank Perch and Reuben R. Keller called at the Cook home Monday afternoon. Margaret Schmitt, who broke her arm sometime ago, is now able to attend school.

Tuesday J. J. Holland returned home, from Prineville, by way of Redmond and Bend. While at Bend he called at the Leo Keller, Fleming and Rosin homes.

Wednesday forenoon Mrs. Keller visited with the Hollands.

Mrs. C. M. Rosin and two children came out Wednesday afternoon and packed her household goods and returned with J. J. Holland to Bend, where she will spend the winter. Mr. Holland came back Sunday, bringing a letter with him.

Mrs. Keller visited with Mrs. Johnson's short time Thursday.

P. B. Johnson went to Bend Wednesday, returning Thursday. He had his car repaired while at Bend.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Kiger are living at the A. Norton place, while Mr. Kiger is doing Miss Selma Brown's plowing.

Friday afternoon Mrs. Keller visited with Mrs. J. J. Holland.

Jim Beaton called at the Mt. Pine Inn Friday.

Earl Powers made a trip to Bend the past week.

Walter and Roy Keller stayed with the Hollands during their mother's absence.

Mr. Ream had business at Bend the past week.

Mr. Barney Coway is employed at the Millican ranch.

Mrs. J. J. Holland and children dined with the Kellers Saturday evening.

Frank Messingale left the employ of Geo. Millican the past week and made a trip to Bend, from which place he went to the Allen ranch to do some work. He will spend the winter on his own ranch, which is near the Allen ranch.

Sunday afternoon Mrs. Holland and children called on the Kellers. Geo. Millican has returned from Prineville.

Miss Selma Brown returned to Bend only staying on her homestead one day.

Quite a number from Prineville attended the fair at Burns the past week.

Mr. and Mrs. Leo Rooney were out Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Louis Glass in Glass' new car.

Mr. Goodman bought Barney Coway's team.

FRINGLE FLATS.

(Special to The Bulletin.)

FRINGLE FLATS, Ore., Oct. 6.—A. B. Davis made a trip to town this week.

Fred Hamilton has just completed his cistern.

The weather has been unusually pleasant until this week, which has been rather cold.

Mrs. A. B. Davis, who has been quite ill the past few days, is able to be about again.

E. E. Vance is out looking after his stock.

Ladies' Country Club met with Mrs. Floyd Huston this week.

Guy Davis attended the county fair at Prineville last week.

Jake Settlemeyer was in Prineville the past week attending court.

The pupils are busy this week with their monthly tests.

One new pupil entered this week: Frank Settlemeyer.

Those not absent the entire month were: Lillian Hamlin, Dwight Cottingham, Alfred Cottingham, Myrtle Hamlin, Carl Settlemeyer, Clara Settlemeyer.

Those having month old magazines they are willing to give away, please drop a card to Mrs. E. T. Stetson. Rivers, Ore. and postage will be sent for them.

We have at present The Bend Bulletin, Youth's Companion, Missouri Valley Farmer and Oregon Journal.

PINEHURST.

(Special to The Bulletin.)

PINEHURST, Oct. 9.—Chester Bayley, who has been visiting his uncle, R. H. Bayley, left here Monday. He will visit relatives in Oregon and Washington before returning to his home in Mitchell, South Dakota.

Mrs. L. J. Wimer was a caller at the Root home Wednesday morning.

STOP!

And investigate our prices before buying your groceries. We can save you money.

P. B. Johnson's
Millican, Ore. Telephone

Mr. Farmer:

Your Vegetables will bring the highest Cash Prices at

A. T. Bolton

Bond Street, Bend, Oregon. See us first when you are in town with vegetables to sell

Wars Women

Featuring FRANK KEENAN

Ably Supported by ENID MARKEY

A Plea
A Cry for Preparedness

Every Mother Should See This Production

ADMISSION
25 AND 35 CTS.

Dream Theatre

ADMISSION
25 AND 35 CTS.

Tonight and Thursday Night Only

Mr. and Mrs. R. R. Canberry called at the Swisher home Thursday evening.

Geo. W. Snyder is helping F. V. Swisher build a cement cistern.

George Root, who has been working for Grover Gerking, returned to his home Tuesday.

C. H. Spauld was a business caller at the McAllister ranch Friday morning.

Mrs. A. McAllister and daughter, Mrs. Grace Hogue were Bend visitors Friday.

L. H. Root hauled a load of wood for the school house Saturday.

Clarence Sandil was a visitor at the Geo. Snyder home Sunday morning.

John Stiles was a business caller in this neighborhood Sunday.

Harry McGuire has returned home from a two weeks vacation.

The Pinehurst school has ordered a basket ball and a foot ball.

CLOVERDALE.

(Special to The Bulletin.)

CLOVERDALE, Ore., Oct. 10.—Mr. Gibson, of Powell Butte was through this country Monday. Floyd Grube and his cousin, Harold Hance came out from Bend

Friday, returning to Bend Sunday. Mrs. Miller and daughter, Fay were

(Continued on page 11.)

We Know How to Swat the Fly

If you want to see a flyless store just drop around. We will not tolerate the appearance of a fly.

Our sanitary refrigerator counter keeps our fresh and perishable goods free from contact with dust or flies.

The very best of grocery merchandise in the very best of condition may always be purchased at

BAKER'S GROCERY

Wall Street, Near Ohio

Phone Red 161

To the Voters of Crook County

--he has no favorites
--he has no boss
--he knows the law
--and he enforces it

"Actions Speak Louder
Than Words"
"His is a Record for Law Enforcement"

WILLARD H. WIRTZ

Of Prineville

For District Attorney

Candidate for Re-Election---Only
Attorney in Crook County with Experience as a Public Prosecutor

Controlled by none and influenced alone by a desire to enforce the criminal laws justly, fearlessly and impartially against the rich and poor alike, with due regards for the rights of all

(Paid Adv.)

Have you any ALFALFA HAY for sale?

If so, get our prices, as we are in the market for a few hundred tons of second and third cuttings. This we can handle loose at this time.

Our new FEED MILL is nearing completion and when it is finished we will have SCIENTIFICALLY MIXED RATIONS, both MOLASSES and PLAIN, for all kinds of STOCK and POULTRY.

A CARLOAD OF DRIED BEET PULP JUST ARRIVED.

We exchange flour and feed for wheat and all other kinds of grain, and for hay.

Bend Flour Mill Company

Bend, Oregon