

YOUR Autobiography
Can be Illustrated with a
Kodak

A kodak can help you frame your own history
We do all kinds of kodak finishing

A Full Line of Kodak Supplies

REED & HORTON

LOCAL NEWS ITEMS

A. W. Benton is now located at Mesa, California.
Bert Miller was a visitor in Tumalo on Sunday afternoon.
W. F. Rogers, of Portland, was in town Tuesday on business.
C. M. McKay and H. Latham went duck hunting on Saturday.
M. C. Conlon, of Redmond, was in Bend yesterday on business.
D. E. Lumber returned on Saturday from a business trip into Canada.
Dr. C. C. Griffith, of Burns, is in Bend today on professional business.

Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Nichols have returned from a vacation trip to Portland.
The Log Cabin Barber Shop is remodeling the interior of its shop this week.
W. E. Myers, of Oregon City, has accepted a position with Reed & Horton.
J. Alton Thompson and W. D. Barnes were up from Tumalo on Saturday.
Rex Gardner, a timberman of Portland was in Bend Tuesday on business.
County Judge G. Springer came in from his ranch on Saturday on county business.
Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Schwab have returned from their homestead at Dry Lake.
Chas. W. Erskine made a trip to Prineville on business on Thursday afternoon.
Born, to Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Pringle, on Thursday, a nine and half pound boy.
Chas. Hofstetter has been assisting in the work in the Bulletin shop for the past week.
Louis Bennett made a business trip to Crescent Saturday, returning Sunday evening.
Born, to Mr. and Mrs. Roy A. White, last Thursday a nine and a half pound boy.
Gerry Horstkotte has been confined to his home for several days with the grippe.
Guy McReynolds who was confined to the house by illness last week is now out again.
Mrs. Fred Fish, returned Saturday from a several weeks visit to Spokane and Salem.
R. G. Blackwell returned Sunday from Burns, where he attended the Harney County Fair.
Mrs. G. P. Putnam and her son David left on their return to Salem on Wednesday night.
Mrs. C. S. Hudson and Donald went to Portland Wednesday night returning Friday morning.
D. L. McKay, of Portland, arrived on Sunday and is visiting with his son, Clyde M. McKay.
Fifty sacks of mail order house catalogues were received in the Bend post office last week.
R. A. Blanchard, the new county agriculturist, was in town with Mrs. Blanchard on Saturday.
Mrs. C. S. Henson leaves tonight for Marshfield, where she will visit friend for several weeks.

Hitch Your Wagon to a Star

that's a good motto. We have fastened our theatre to one-hundred stars of the first magnitude in screen art.

John Barrymore

In the five reel comedy, The Red Widow, tonight and Thursday, 10 and 15 cents.

Marie Doro

In a drama of Irish hearts, next Sunday and Monday. And coming very soon we have

Dustin Farnum

in David Garrick,

Pauline Frederick

in The Eternal City,

Geraldine Farrar

in Maria Rosa, all stars in the vest

Paramount Program

shown only at

The Bend Theatre

CATLOW & DOONAR, Mgrs.

Watches

ELGIN 17 Jewell, in Dust Proof Case $12.00
WALTHAM 17 Jewell, in Dust Proof Case $12.00
ELGIN Movement, in 20 Year Filled Case $10.00
We have watches from $1.00 to $100. Come in and get our prices

Larson & Co.

Watchmakers and Jewelers
BEND, OREGON

Mrs. B. C. Cady, Miss Winifred Aldrich and Mrs. Snyder were visitors in Tumalo on Sunday.

County School Superintendent Myers came over from Prineville yesterday on his way to La Pine.

Mrs. Mary Boesch, of Salem, arrived yesterday morning to visit her cousin, Mrs. Henry Whitsett.

Thomas Tweet, who two weeks ago fell from a wagon and broke two ribs, is again able to be out.

Mrs. F. B. Willis, of Lewiston, Idaho, arrived in Bend on Monday and expects to make her home here.

W. D. McRae, of Portland, arrived in Bend last Thursday and is visiting with his daughter, Mrs. R. J. Todd.

H. M. Abbot returned Friday morning from a three weeks business trip to Centralia, Washington and Medford.

Grant Raymond returned Saturday night from Culver, where he attended the session of the Jefferson Circuit court.

H. H. De Armond attended the meeting of the C. O. I. Co. Water Users Association in Redmond on Saturday.

S. C. Kiesling, who has been with The Shevlin-Hixon Company for several months, left last night for Spokane.

The Foreign Missionary Society of the Methodist church will meet with Mrs. K. Nelson on Friday afternoon at 3 o'clock.

Fred W. Hyndman, of Klamath Falls, Democratic candidate for the state legislature was in Bend Sunday campaigning.

The Bend Hardware Co. is remodeling the interior of its store and will remove its office to the rear of the building.

H. G. Klapp, general manager of the Bend White Pine Sash Company, arrived in Bend last Saturday morning on business.

D. E. Hunter, of The Bend Company, leaves tonight for a month's business trip to Dayton, Ohio, Detroit and Chicago.

A Prohibition meeting under the direction of L. D. West and Rev. H. C. Hartranft, was held last Sunday afternoon at Tumalo.

Word was received this morning of the death at Cedar Springs, Penn., of L. C. Furst, the father of G. H. and L. C. Furst, of Bend.

Mr. and Mrs. T. H. Short and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Short, of Burns, were trading last Saturday with the R. M. Smith Clothing Company.

W. G. Hastings is preparing to build a residence in Boulevard addition next the H. W. Skuse bungalow, now under construction.

E. G. Rourke, "Bill" Brock, Fred La Follette and T. H. Jolly are in from Crescent today for a load of young fish for Crescent lake.

Mr. and Mrs. S. S. Stearns and daughter, of Prineville, passed through Bend yesterday on their way home from a visit to La Pine.

Hans Nelson, who was called several weeks ago to Burns on account of the illness of his mother, returned to Bend last Thursday.

Matt Clark, Ray Hickman, of Portland, and J. Washburn, of Duluth, Minnesota, timbermen, came in to Bend this morning from Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry P. Manion returned last Thursday morning from Seattle. Mrs. Manion has been visiting with relatives in Seattle for some time.

The Ladies Aid Society, of the M. E. Church, will hold their monthly social meeting at the home of Mrs. Francis, next Wednesday afternoon, October 18.

Carl House, of Lower Bridge, is assisting with the linotype work in The Bulletin shop this week. Mr. House was with The Bulletin for a short time in 1913.

Fred Horstkotte, of the firm of Dion & Horstkotte, builders of The Shevlin-Hixon Company's saw mills, arrived in Bend this morning to inspect the new mill.

Mrs. Roland Henriot and daughter, Miss Ruby left Monday night for Portland, where they will visit a few days before leaving for Los Angeles to visit for a few months.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Mannheim returned this morning from Chicago, where they were called recently on account of the death of Mr. Mannheim's mother, Mrs. J. Mannheim.

W. J. Sproat, J. A. Brinkley and Fred Moffit, of the Deschutes National Forest's local office, left yesterday for a three weeks trip at the Long Butte project where they will do extensive land classification work.

H. H. De Armond and S. E. Roberts left yesterday morning on a campaign trip to Millican, Brothers, Hampton, Paulina and Post. Both feel assured of a good vote on the west side and will go after the east side vote as well.

Miss Lenora Mock, who has been with the Bend Water Light & Power Co. for several months, left today to join her parents at Walla Walla.

Mrs. M. Kroeger has accepted a position as bookkeeper to succeed Miss Mock.

Mr. and Mrs. F. B. Cleveland and Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Rock, of Albany, Minnesota arrived in Bend on Monday. They are visiting with relatives, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Cleveland, and expect to locate permanently in Bend.

The George barber shop is moving into a part of the office rooms formerly occupied by C. V. Silvis and H. H. De Armond. Mr. De Armond will later move to the O'Kane building and Mr. Silvis will occupy the vacated quarters.

Bertha Carter, the 13 year old daughter of Mrs. Marion Carter, died of pneumonia on Sunday. Funeral services were held at the Baptist church, at 2 o'clock yesterday, Rev. Peringer officiating and interment made in the Pilot Butte cemetery.

F. J. Lonergan, of Portland, district deputy for the Knights of Columbus, and J. P. Hanly, Grand Knight, of Portland, of the Knights of Columbus were visitors in Bend on Sunday. They held a meeting with local K. Cs. with the view in the near future to establishing a council in Bend.

You'll want to see these new and Exclusive

Blouses

JUST RECEIVED...in the new wanted shades...priced from.....
$5.00 to $7.50

The Store where everybody buys their Coat, Suit or Skirt at a REAL SAVING. No charge for alterations.

A Special purchase of Ladies'

Coverall Aprons

with or without elastic belts
Special Values from 50c to 75c

Ladies' Lingerie and

Tailored Waists

in the latest designs...priced from
$1.00 to $3.00

Queen Quality Shoes

We fit you Right
$3.50 to $7.00

Stop and Shop at

MANNHEIMER BROTHERS

Satisfaction With Every Purchase

V. V. Hampham returned Sunday evening from a month's stay at Paulina Peak and Walker Mountain, where he has been supervising the construction of several cisterns for water supplies to be used by employees in the forest service during the summer months.

Mrs. George S. Young received word this morning from her sister, Mrs. Roy Houghtaling, that Mr. Houghtaling had been killed. No details were given in the message. Mr. Houghtaling was a former resident of Bend and Mrs. Houghtaling visited here this summer.

A desirable bread knife free with every annual subscription to The Bend Bulletin.

ONE CENT A WORD is all a little Want Ad will cost you.

The Eternal City marks passing of another milestone in moving pictures. Coming soon to The Bend Theatre.

MUSIC CLASSES TO BEGIN.
Mrs. Bernice Halley-Forrest announces that her classes in music will start on September 12.—Adv 261f

McBride Confectionery Store will open about October 14 in O'Kane Building.—Adv. 28-32p.

Four chairs at your service at the Metropolitan. No waiting.—Adv.

Want Ads only ONE CENT a word.

Golden West Coffee is "Just Right"

Great Play

Our New Fall Suits are Full of Dash & Pep

The Spirit of the Sports is right in them; every one is a winner in the game of fashion. As fine a "lineup" as was ever shown for men who appreciate smart effects. Make this Shop your Goal for Quality Clothes and you'll score every time. We play the game squarely...our guarantee says FULL SATISFACTION.

$15--$20--$25

A. L. FRENCH

MEN'S FURNISHINGS

"THE STORE THAT SETS THE PACE."

We Are Two Years Old

And we are celebrating all this week

Some Extra Big BARGAINS

Thursday, Friday and Saturday

For Economy's Sake Shop at

Warner's

Bend's Economy Center

ROYAL WORCESTER CORSETS

Correct for the New Gowns

THE more closely you follow fashion's trend, the more fully you appreciate the style supremacy of these charming corsets.

With absolute assurance they strike the new note that is pervading the field of fashion.

Observe, for example, the model illustrated. Note its excellent lines, ample boning, freedom at the bust and gentle curve at waist.

It's only one of many recent models which we are featuring.

Prices range from $1 to $5.

ESTABLISHED STYLE CENTER

E. A. Sather

BEND'S PIONEER MERCHANT