

THESE COLD NIGHTS YOU NEED A GOOD Hot Water Bottle.

We have a fine assortment—guaranteed for two years. Give them a trial.

REED & HORTON
The Rexall Store

LOCAL NEWS ITEMS

S. W. Martin, a Silver Lake business man, was in town last week. A masquerade ball is to be given on Halloween at the Hippodrome. George A. Jones went to Portland last week on business. Alfred A. Aya was in town from La Pine on Monday. New display counters have been received by The Warner Company. R. M. Smith left Sunday evening on a business trip to Portland. F. W. Levern was up from Tumalo last Saturday on business. Born, to Mr. and Mrs. Harold E. Smith, on Sunday, a 10-pound girl.

Mrs. Floyd Dement is in Portland this week on a visit.

D. V. Mackintosh, who has been in Alaska for seven months, returned Sunday morning to Bend.

The Forest office is planning to erect two bridges, one over Odell creek and the other over Davis creek.

The Loyal Order of Moose gave a successful dance last night at the Hippodrome.

Misses Mabel Lorence and Helen Manney spent the week-end at the Vandeventer ranch up the river.

The Pilot Butte Hotel has begun serving special Sunday dinners to its patrons.

The Methodist Ladies' Aid is giving a chicken pie social this evening in the Commercial Club rooms.

W. A. Davis went to Fallbridge Saturday evening on a business trip, returning Monday morning.

S. I. Tulles, formerly of Silver Lake, has opened a home-made candy shop in the rooms north of the Bend Theatre on Wall street.

The Presbyterian Ladies' Guild will meet with Mrs. Stanley Linatou Wednesday afternoon, November 1, at 2:30 o'clock.

Mrs. C. Botwright, who has been visiting with Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Gagen, left Saturday for her home in Portland.

A. Whelan went to Portland Saturday evening to spend the week-end with his family, returning this morning.

Earl T. Smith, of Homedale, Idaho, arrived in Bend last week and will spend some time here looking over prospects for locating.

Louisa Beezer, architect for the O'Kane building, left last Thursday for Seattle, after inspecting the work on the building.

Mr. and Mrs. Lyman Baird and daughter left Saturday morning for Portland, to remain during the winter.

L. C. Whitted, with his mother and sister, Eugenia, returned Friday morning from an extended visit to Fort Lauderdale, Fla.

Mrs. W. W. Faulkner and B. Ferrell have moved their offices from the O'Donnell block on Wall street to suite 6-8-10 O'Kane building.

H. G. Klapp, of Spokane, general manager of the Bend White Pine Sash Company, was in Bend last week on business.

Rev. George Van Waters, of the Episcopal church of Hood River, was in Bend Monday and Tuesday of last week.

Watches

ELGIN 17 Jewell, in Dust Proof Case $12.00
WALTHAM 17 Jewell, in Dust Proof Case $12.00
ELGIN Movement, in 20 Year Filled Case $10.00
We have watches from $1.00 to $100. Come in and get our prices

Larson & Co.

Watchmakers and Jewelers
BEND, OREGON

M. W. Wagner, Mrs. G. Wagner, Edith Wagner and Mrs. A. Fisher, of Minneapolis, arrived in Bend last week. They may remain here permanently.

A. H. Horn has begun work on the erection of a modern seven-room bungalow in River Terrace. The residence will be built of brick and will cost approximately $4,000.

J. L. Peringer, pastor of the Baptist church, attended the convention of his church at Salem last week, and also spent a day in Portland on business.

Mr. and Mrs. T. H. Darrow and Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Wurtz, of Buhl, Idaho, spent a few days of last week in Bend looking over prospects. They toured overland from California.

A. G. Powell was last week awarded the contract for the erection of an eight-room residence for H. A. Miller in Park Addition. Work was commenced Monday morning.

The marriage of Patrick McNamee and Miss Maude Hart was solemnized last Wednesday afternoon at the Presbyterian church by Rev. H. C. Hartranft.

P. L. Gallier, formerly a merchant in Wenatchee, has accepted a position with the R. M. Smith Clothing Company.

F. F. Fisch returned Thursday from a business trip to Portland. Mr. Fisch was accompanied as far as Cliver by his family, who visited there until his return.

R. B. Mutzig went to Portland Friday to visit with his family and also attend the football game between Nebraska and the Oregon Agricultural College.

T. W. Munyan, of Roseburg, has accepted a position as baker with the American Bakery. Mr. Munyan expects to send for his family as soon as he can obtain accommodations for them.

George F. Robertson, of Portland, formerly with the Pilot Butte Development Company and the Bend Water, Light & Power Co., was in Bend Friday and Saturday, looking after his local property interests.

Mrs. C. J. Catlow has been employed to teach the fifth and sixth grades of the Bend public schools. Mrs. Catlow's classes will occupy the middle bungalow near the high school.

Through the courtesy of the management of the Hippodrome, the Bend football squad netted approximately $60 on its dance last Tuesday. The proceeds will be devoted toward the purchase of needed equipment. The hall was donated by the management.

Seth Stookey, who is grazing 200 head of horses about four miles east of Bend, has moved his family from Wilbur, Wash., to Bend to reside. Mr. Stookey has been in Bend about two months and is much impressed with this locality.

County School Superintendent Myers is in town this week. H. H. De Armond and S. E. Roberts made a trip to Lower Bridge yesterday.

County Assessor H. A. Foster came over from Prineville on Monday for a few days' stay.

Mrs. Ada B. Millican passed through town on Wednesday on her return to the family ranch at Milliken.

W. R. Wilkinson is in Portland purchasing supplies for the new saw-mill of The Gardner-Wilkinson Company. Mr. Wilkinson is registered at the Portland.

In its department "Prominent Men of Portland," the Portland Telegram recently carried a biographical sketch of O. Laugaard, the engineer who had charge of the construction of the Tumalo project.

The R. M. Smith Clothing Company and the Mannheim Bros. have their display windows specially dressed appropriate of the Halloween season. Both stores' displays are exceptionally attractive.

The management of the Hippodrome is planning to give a big masquerade ball on Halloween.

Le A. Thomas and Guy H. Wilson went to Portland Saturday night on business connected with the new Bend school building.

---The fact that our Shoe Business is growing by leaps and bounds is vitally significant. It means first, that old customers have good reason to return and second, that those who have tried our Shoes are passing the good word along to their friends. We are amply prepared to meet every demand for Shoes for every member of the family.

Walk-Over Shoes for Men

$4.00
$4.50
$5.00

For Women

Queen Quality

SHOES

$3.50 to $7.00

Star Brand Work Shoes $2.75 to $7
Tess and Ted School Shoes for Boys and Girls $1.85-$3.25
Stinbac Baby Shoes 25c to $1.00

RIGHT OUT OF THE BOX—These New White Broadcloth Collar and Cuff Sets; fashion's latest; 50c, 75c, $1.25. See them.

SELECT YOUR COAT, SUIT OR SKIRT here and now, while our assortment and size range is complete. New shipments arriving each week.

FOR MEN—The Genuine Malone Loggers' Pants, all wool, at $4.00
Malone Stag Shirts, none better made, at $5.00

Stop and Shop at

MANNHEIMER BROTHERS
THE "QUALITY FIRST" STORE

H. E. Vincent, forest ranger near Sisters, was in Bend yesterday and while in town obtained a quantity of fish for distribution in the Metolius river.

E. G. Rouck, of Crescent, is in town today on business. Born, to Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Warren, in Kenwood, Sunday, a girl.

Mrs. J. S. Clement, of the Depot Hotel, who has been very low with pleurisy, left Tuesday for the coast.

The prohibition campaign will close here on Sunday evening, November 5, with a meeting at the Hippodrome. The principal speech will be delivered by Rev. H. C. Hartranft. The meeting will begin at 7:30.

Mrs. C. V. Ebers will sing at the Presbyterian church Sunday morning.

Miss Letta Benn, of Aberdeen, Washington, arrived Monday night and is visiting with Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Estes. Miss Benn will also visit with her sister, Miss Mary Benn, before her return to Aberdeen.

Mrs. W. W. Faulkner, dentist, and B. Ferrell, physician and surgeon, have moved their offices from the O'Donnell block to Suite 6-8-10 O'Kane Building.—Adv. 24c

You will sure have a big time at the Halloween masquerade at the Hippodrome. Don't miss it.—Adv.

Melride Confectionery Store will open about November 1, in O'Kane Building.—Adv. 33-324 c.

Four chairs at your service at the Metropolitan. No waiting.—Adv.

Want Ads only ONE CENT a word.

Golden West Coffee is "Just Right"

Bend's Economy Center

WARNER'S

The Variety Store

Specials

Thursday, Friday, Saturday

15 cent Flour Sifter	10c	Brooms ---special values	25c
15 cent Egg Beater	10c	Ax Handles for	25c
Egg Fry Pan	05c	Galvanized Pails	25c
Quart Stew Pan	10c	10-qt. Preserve Kettle	25c
Good Heavy Outing Calicos on sale at	06c	14-qt Dish Pan	25c
Sateen Bloomers ---each	25c	Large Roaster for	29c
		Wash Board for	25c

Extra Special Prices on GUERNSEY WARE Cooking and Baking Dishes

PICTORIAL REVIEW PATTERNS

FOOT REST HOSIERY

Howdy Pap!

IT'S Your Business to be Comfortable;

its realization is your pleasure. For the restful hours when business cares are laid aside, you'll fully enjoy the wholesomeness of soft, loose, roomy Pajamas, in either the one or two piece garment, cut like a well made suit---not like a bag---good looking enough to use for lolling about bust before bed time.

Our fall stocks reveal also some new styles in Men's Bedroom Slippers.

A. L. FRENCH

MEN'S FURNISHINGS

"THE STORE THAT SETS THE PACE."

If you want A No. 1 Groceries

Heinz
Holly
Albers
Fountain
Schillings
Diamond W
Royal Club
Golden West

In any grade and at the Lowest Prices and if you want the best of service TRADE WITH

Hilles
Wadco
Cudaby
Kelloggs
Del Monte
Tea Garden
Pref'd Stock
Pacific Coast

ESTABLISH'D STYLE CENTER

E. A. Sather

BEND'S PIONEER MERCHANT