

SENATOR LANE LAUDS WILSON

DEMOCRACY'S RECORD IS REVIEWED

Prosperity, Peace, Progressive Legislation, Mexican Situation. All Receive Attention—Big Crowd Attends Friday Night Rally

An abundance of red fire was about all that was needed last Friday night to make the Democratic rally, held in the Hippodrome upon the occasion of the address of Hon. Harry Lane, United States senator of Oregon, a genuine old-time rally. Senator Lane was escorted to the Hippodrome from the evening train by a large number of Democratic Fords. Encomiums for President Wilson and the Democratic administration came forth in abundance from Senator Lane, who attributed to the present administration a large measure of the unprecedented prosperity which, he said, the country has experienced in the last four years; the peace with the European nations now at war, progressive legislation, amelioration of the burdens of labor and the weeding out of corrupt influences, which he also said the present administration inherited from the Republican regime before it.

Shows Progressive Trend.
Senator Lane was loud in his praise of the President's attitude on the Mexican situation, child labor and handling the federal armor plate situation, rural credits law and the Adamson bill. Not, according to the senator's views, since the administration of Abraham Lincoln has there been a president whose attention has been so intensely directed toward the betterment of all humanity alike, meting out justice to all, raising the general standard of all classes, as has been shown during the administration of Woodrow Wilson. Charging that the wealth of the country was behind Candidate Hughes, and alleging that under such circumstances, if elected president, Mr. Hughes could not urge legislation favorable to the common people, Senator Lane provoked much applause from his audience.

Rural Credits Praised.
President Wilson, the speaker said, is deserving of the unanimous support of every farmer in the United States for his consistent attitude upon the rural credits law recently adopted by congress. This act, he said he believed, could not have been enacted for at least 40 years hence had not President Wilson been in the presidential chair. The speaker was also commendatory of the President on his aggressiveness regarding the enactment and operation of the federal reserve bank law which, he said, was one of the most constructive measures adopted in recent years by congress.

That the President did wisely in his actions regarding the Mexican situation and that intervention in Mexican political and economic problems would have brought the administration into disrepute with other nations of the world was the feeling held by the speaker.

Friday evening's meeting was the largest political gathering held in Bend during the present campaign. It was spirited and the speakers' remarks were frequently interrupted by applause and cheering.

Senator Lane was introduced by Mayor J. A. Eastes, president of the Woodrow Wilson Club. Before the speaker took the floor, R. P. Minter gave zest to the meeting in an introductory speech. Others seated on the speakers' platform were: W. L. Cobb, Henry B. Ford and G. W. Shriner.

BERG VS JOHNSON TOMORROW

Heavyweights Will Wrest at Hippodrome—Martin Also on Bill.

Wrestling fans will see John Berg, of Spokane, former world's champion wrestler, and I. A. Johnson, self-styled as one of the world's strongest men, in a wrestling match tomorrow night at the Hippodrome, under the auspices of the Bend Athletic Club. The match is scheduled to start promptly at 8:30 o'clock.

Max Martin, who has been enjoying a record for a clean slate since he came to Bend, will take on five local men with the agreement that he will throw them all in 20 minutes. If any one of the men stays with Martin 19 minutes, Martin loses the match.

Johnson is scheduled to put on several strong men acts for the occasion.

A surplus of $5,200,000 from the postal service during the fiscal year ending June 30 is reported by Postmaster-General Burleson. With the department more than paying expenses, it would seem that the executive officials could afford to keep on the payroll members of the National Guard who responded when the President called out the Organized Militia for duty on the border.

President Wilson seems to have founded his diplomacy on a rock which is off its base most of the time.

The Eastern wits persist in referring to the Secretary of the Navy as Miss Josephine Daniels. No wonder the Woman's Party is camping on the trail of the Administration!

Mr. Wilson forgot to mention the pledges of economy in the 1912 platform.

"In his diplomacy," says Ollie James, "the President has sounded a new note." What, another one?

It begins to appear that that single-track mind system will have to be temporarily double-tracked. A few weeks hence, of course, it will be side-tracked.

WASHINGTON AND LINCOLN PUT RIGHTEOUSNESS BEFORE PEACE.

The supporters of Mr. Wilson say that the American people should vote for him because he has kept us out of war. It is worth while to remember that this is a claim that cannot be advanced either on behalf of Washington or of Lincoln. Neither Washington nor Lincoln kept us out of war. Americans, and the people of the world at large, now reverence the memories of these two men because, and only because, they put righteousness before peace. They abhorred war. They shunned unjust or wanton or reckless war. But they possessed that stern valor of patriotism which bade them put duty first, not safety first, which bade them accept war rather than an unrighteous and disastrous peace. There were peace-at-any-price men in the days of Washington. They were the Tories. There were peace-at-any-price men in the days of Lincoln. They were the Copperheads. The men who now with timid hearts and quavering voices praise Mr. Wilson for having kept us out of war are the spiritual heirs of the Tories of 1776 and the Copperheads of 1864. The men who followed Washington at Trenton and Yorktown and who suffered with him through the winter at Valley Forge and the men who wore the Blue under Grant and the Gray under Lee were men of valor, who sacrificed everything to serve the right as it was given them to see the right. They spurned with contemptuous indignation the counsels of the feeble and cowardly folk who in their day spoke for peace-at-any-price. — From the Speech of Colonel Roosevelt at Battle Creek, Michigan, in Behalf of Mr. Hughes.

Few Canines Are Worth Assessing in Crook County

Dogs 20 $255
So says the recent report of County Assessor H. A. Foster, recently published in The Bulletin.

That makes the average assessed valuation of 20 dogs in all Crook county only $12.75.

It may be that there are only 20 dogs in this 7,756 square miles that, by their owners, are worth notice for assessment.

But in no way does that conform with the testimony of a small boy, if you ask him how much he will take for his Spitz, shepherd, terrier or hound.

There were several dozen dogs of various breeds running loose last summer in Bend, whose owners thought enough of them to muzzle when the rabies scare was on.

Where are the valuable bulldogs, bird dogs, duck dogs, lapdogs, bear dogs, sheep dogs, watchdogs? It is apparent that for some reason these more valued canine specimens have been overlooked by some of their owners, who would not part with them for a considerable amount of cash, since they are assets for pleasure purposes, protection purposes and good all-around work purposes. Just what pedigree must a dog have, or just how much does he have to be thought of to have monetary value so far as the publicity is concerned, when the assessor makes his annual tour of the county?
