

Central Oregon Neighborhood News

LOWER BRIDGE

(Special to The Bulletin)

LOWER BRIDGE, Dec. 12.—C. H. Miller, of Redmond, was a welcome visitor in these parts on Thursday of last week, looking over the telephones and wires.

Mrs. Marian Hoskins assisted with the musical part of the play given at Redmond on Monday night of this week, which was pronounced to be the best ever given there by home talent. Several families from the neighborhood motored in to see the play.

There will be a Christmas tree and musical program at the schoolhouse on Saturday night the 23rd. Mrs. R. S. Town, Mrs. Mary Nealigh and Miss Marian Hoskins will have charge of the program. Everybody is expected to take part.

Mrs. Arthur Jaeger and children left for Bend on Sunday, where they will reside this winter and where Mr. Jaeger has work on the building of the new hotel.

Mrs. Alfred Leathley has been visiting the past week with her niece and family, Mr. and Mrs. E. Mitchell.

Joe Howard, Jr., is having his hauled. Others in the neighborhood will have theirs hauled, also.

Carl House is making daily trips to Redmond, where he is taking the Pasteur treatment, having been bitten by a mad coyote several days ago.

Jerry Grossgruber lost a cow and calf on Monday, cause unknown.

Fred Walter and son Darwin are digging a well. They expect to strike water at about 25 feet.

The Parent-Teachers' association held a meeting at the schoolhouse on Saturday afternoon.

HAMPTON BUTTE

(Special to The Bulletin)

HAMPTON BUTTE, Dec. 13.—Horace Brookings made a business trip to Bend this week. While there he visited his son Paul, who is attending school in Bend.

Jim Hartoon registered at the Brookings hotel Tuesday, being on his way from Bend to Lost Creek.

Billy Robinson and Wm. Schneider made a business trip to Bend Monday, returning Tuesday.

Cris Tinner returned to his home after being out several months.

The Royat school will render a Christmas program on the afternoon of December 24.

Mr. Morris, who purchased the Pat Stewart place, is looking after his interests here. He expects to move out with his family next spring.

N. C. Ewing purchased several tons of hay from Oscar Butzein.

Oscar Butzein of Stauffer was a business visitor here last Saturday.

Misses Betha Graham, Dorothy Hinman, Agnes Schreder and Audrey James were callers at the Meeks' home Saturday.

SISTERS

(Special to The Bulletin)

SISTERS, Dec. 18.—The entertainment given by the teachers and pupils of the Sisters school Friday afternoon was a decided success in every way. The attendance was large and the program excellent.

Joe Duckett was a business visitor in Redmond Friday.

Ed Spoo has a crew cutting logs for the J. P. Duckett lumber mill.

The Sisters school closed Friday evening for the Christmas holidays. The teachers are planning to go home during the vacation.

Billy Lang, who has been working in a Bend meat market, was in Sisters Friday.

Mr. Geo. E. Aitken, the postmaster of Sisters, has purchased the building formerly occupied by the Dennison Furniture and Hardware company. He is moving the post office and his drugs into the new quarters. Mr. Aitken has just returned from Portland where he purchased a large stock of Christmas goods which he will have on sale during the holidays. Mr. Clift is helping with the work of putting the building in order.

Mr. L. Weinstein made a business trip to Redmond Saturday. Mr. Weinstein, who is proprietor of the store formerly owned by Robert Smith, is now holding a large sale which is to continue until December 23.

A large number of the young people of Cloverdale attended the school entertainment given at the Sisters school Friday evening.

Clyde Duckett, who has been a student at Marysville college, Tenn., has returned home to his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Duckett, of this place.

The dance at Allen's hall Friday evening was well attended and all had a good time.

The pupils and teachers of the Sunday school are planning for a Christmas celebration Christmas eve. There will be a short program and a tree. Every one is invited to come.

A number of the young people of Sisters attended the dance given Saturday night at Tumalo.

Earl Updike and wife have rented C. J. Lloyd's house and moved to town.

On Monday a number of Cloverdale farmers were repairing the Sisters farmers' telephone line.

PRINGLE FLAT

(Special to The Bulletin)

PRINGLE FLAT, Dec. 14.—Mr. and Mrs. Dell Davis attended the dance at Mr. Faush's Friday night. Mrs. "Pat" Palmer is spending a few days in Bend.

Stereoptican views will be shown at the hall this week Thursday evening.

There will be a Christmas entertainment on Friday evening at Pringle Flat.

Saturday evening the young folks met at Mr. and Mrs. Damekon's to string popcorn for the Christmas tree. Quite a lot was strung, some was eaten and a glorious time was reported.

The Palmer children are staying with Mrs. Fred Hamlin while their mother is in Bend.

Friday morning the Settelmeyer children's team became frightened when the boys started to unhitch, and ran away, wrecking the buggy. Mrs. Jensen has returned to Bend.

Mrs. Stetson visited Mrs. A. B. Davis Saturday.

POWELL BUTTE

(Special to The Bulletin)

POWELL BUTTE, Dec. 19.—Mr. and Mrs. Billy Wilson, Mr. Riggs and Miss Jessie Hartley, Mr. and Mrs. Reaves Wilcoxon, Max Strixner and Miss Gladys Breen attended the home talent play in Redmond Monday night.

On Friday evening the high school students of Redmond came out to Community hall and gave a play, the proceeds to help pay for the hall. The young people gave an excellent program, and every one appreciates their efforts on our behalf very much. Dancing was indulged in after the play and all enjoyed a most pleasant evening.

On Thursday of last week Mr. and Mrs. Allen Wilcoxon, Mrs. J. M. Shearer and daughter Ruth motored to Bend. Mrs. Shearer and daughter remained to visit several days with Mr. and Mrs. Oreweiler. Mrs. R. W. Bayn accompanied them as far as Deschutes, where she visited with Mrs. Frank Bayn for a few hours.

Miss Fay Bussett came out Friday evening and remained until Saturday evening with Mrs. Willcoxon. They attended the play in the evening, and motored to Bend on Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Bayn were dinner guests at Allen Wilcoxon's on Sunday.

Mrs. G. Truesdaye entertained at dinner Sunday for Mr. and Mrs. John Skeen of Powell Butte and Rex Powell, of Prineville.

Miss Ada Morse spent Sunday at home. Clarke took her back to Redmond Monday morning.

Mr. and Mrs. E. N. Hall plan to leave Thursday for Portland, where they will spend the holidays.

Mr. N. P. Alley, Mrs. Van Doren and Mrs. Truesdale were Bend visitors one day last week.

Mrs. A. W. Bayn spent Friday and Saturday in Prineville with her daughters.

Miss Edna Morse came home from

Paulina Saturday to visit the home

(Continued from Page 2.)

STOP!

And investigate our prices before buying your groceries.
We can save you money.

P.B. Johnson's
MILLICAN, ORE. Telephone

Sweeten Your Table For Christmas Day

Fresh, wholesome pastries make up an important item on your Christmas menu, and our pastries are like those you have at home.

If You'll appreciate it if you try our—

Christmas Fruit Cakes

Christmas Cookies

Anise Cookies

Short Cake

Special Christmas Layer Cakes

Mince and Pumpkin Pies

Apple, Blackberry and Peach Pies

CHRISTMAS CANDIES

You always delight in munching at candy Christmas day. Park & Tilford's in special Christmas mixture in five-pound boxes, $1.50. We have a fine assortment of Krause's bulk candies, 50c the pound.

SPECIAL ORDERS FOR ICE CREAM

will be delivered to your door ready for serving Christmas day, in any quantity.

AMERICAN BAKERY

Call by Phone Black 411

HUEY & OLIVER

A

Good Dinner is one of the most essential features of a

Merry Xmas

The following is a partial list of things you may desire

HEINZ PLUM PUDDING

HEINZ FIG PUDDING

HEINZ MINCE MEAT

HEINZ PURE CIDER and

WHITE PICKLING VINEGAR

NONE-SUCH MINCE MEAT

BOILED CIDER

GRAPE JUICE

LOGANBERRY JUICE

SALAD DRESSING

MRS. PORTER'S MAYONNAISE

PRESERVES

JELLIES

PICKLES IN GLASS

BULK PICKLES

PRESSED FIGS

BLACK DRIED FIGS

WHITE FIGS

DATES

DRIED GRAPES

FANCY DRIED FRUITS

FRESH COCONUT

CITRON

ORANGE PEEL

LEMON PEEL

Also a complete line of Nuts and Candies.

From

our assortment of Fresh Fruits and Vegetables you can get

FANCY APPLES

RIPE PEARS

ORANGES

BANANAS

LEMONS

GRAPE FRUIT

CRANBERRIES

FRESH PINEAPPLE

LETTUCE

CELERY

CAULIFLOWER

PARSLEY

BRUSSELS SPROUTS

SPINACH

SWEET POTATOES

CUCUMBERS

CABBAGE

BEETS ETC.

Louis Bennett, Grocer

Phone Black 331

O'Kane Building