

K. OF P. OFFICIAL PRAISES BEND

IS BEST CITY IN STATE, SAYS GLEASON.

Grand Vice-Chancellor of Pythias Pays Tribute to Neil A.
Southwick—Many Attend Banquet.

(From Thursday's Daily.) Paying a tribute to the progressiveness of Bend, Walter G. Gleason, grand keeper of records and seals of the Knights of Pythias of Oregon, declared last night at the Pythian banquet at the Emblem club, that Bend is the best city in the state. He asserted that Portland is missing a good bet in not paying more attention to this city.
He emphasized the point that optimism is the door of success. The remainder of his speech was given over to the benevolent work of the order which he represents.

The banquet was given in honor of Mr. Gleason and Leslie E.
Crouch, grand vice chancellor, more than 50 members of Deschutes Lodge, No. 103, and their wives attending. M. A. Palmer was toastmaster. Decorations were carried out in electric lights in the colors of the lodge, blue, yellow and red.

Mr. Crouch in his address paid a lasting tribute to the memory of Neil A. Southwick, killed in Sunday night's auto wreck, and in mentioning Denton G. Burdick, now convalescing from injuries received at the same time, suggested that a tribute is better given during life than after death. He said that he considered Bend one of the best cities he had visited for several weeks, and that during his coming term as grand chancellor he intended to visit here for two or three days.

S. C. Caldwell, mayor-elect of Bend, one of the charter members of the lodge present, spoke briefly on the original organization, and N.
P. Smith, also a charter member, related the history of the lodge since its inception. "D. W. Gibson entertained with a reading on Damon and Pythias, and J. B. Anderson contented himself with paraphrasing remarks of the toastmaster.

An orchestra composed of W. J.
Sproat, Robert Innes, Mrs. D. A.
Houston, William A. Harris, Wil-ham Van Cleve and B. D. Ketchum furnished music for the evening.

SINNOTT SENDS SEEDS

Congressman "Nick" Sinnott has requested The Bulletin to assist him in the distribution of the government vegetable and flower seeds allocated to him for this community by the department of agriculture.
This method of distributing seeds papers of his district was first tried by our congressman last year. It worked so satisfactorily that he is repeating it this year. It was found that this method got the seeds in the hands of those really desiring them, and so was far better than the method of sending them out indiscriminately. Congressman Sinnott also requested us to announce that he retained a small quantity of the seed at his office in Washington (room 494 house of representatives). Anyone failing to obtain seeds otherwise may thus get them directly by writing him there, so long as the supply lasts.

STOCKMEN WANT PEACE; TO SELECT BOUNDARIES

A meeting of cattle and sheepmen, that was intended to be pacific in character, turned out to be decidedly the contrary yesterday afternoon at the Pilot Butte hotel when the sheepmen, who have been using the range east of Bend for grazing approximately 10,000 head, failed to put in their appearance.
The session was called by several prominent cattlemen living east of Bend, who have become exercised over the invasion by Lake county sheep owners of Crook county range which has been used by the cattlemen for years, to ascertain whether some boundaries could be established that would not damage the cattle range.

It was unanimously expressed at the meeting yesterday that the cattlemen must take immediate action to prevent the use of the cattle range for sheep grazing purposes, and to save the grass for the coming spring's grazing.

There was no disposition manifested yesterday to renew old feuds connected with range wars. The cattlemen believe that a more amicable settlement can be effected.
The cattlemen suggest that the Bend-Burns road be made the boundary line and that the sheepmen can confine the herding of their sheep to the territory south of this road and the cattlemen will hold their former grounds north of the road.

R. E. Grimes, of the Pilot Butte ranch, will appoint a committee of six cattlemen to wait on the sheepmen for their answer to this proposal.

DRY SPELL MAKES POOR HUNTING FOR LOCAL SPORTSMEN

Dry weather has made unusually poor sport at this time of year for duck and goose hunters, was the report brought back to Bend yesterday afternoon by a party composed of John Steidl, his sons Steve and John, Jr., and Bruce Deyarmond, who spent the greater part of the week 25 miles up the river.

During their stay they saw about 25 waterfowl of all kinds, they stated on their return. Mallards were especially scarce. It is thought that the birds are making headquarters in the mountain lakes during the dry spell.

DIVISION LINE FOR STOCK AGREED UPON

Adam Kotzman, as Referee, Effects Settlement Between Cattle and Sheep Owners.

That the embryo range war between cattle and sheep men in this section is at an end before it had fairly commenced, was the announcement this afternoon of Adam Kotzman, a rancher living near the city, one of the referees appointed to effect a settlement between the two factions, and who has just brought to completion an agreement between the stockmen using the range near Bend.

According to this agreement, the Bend-Burns road, beginning at a point two miles from the city, will be the boundary line between sheep and cattle for a mile and a half, and the balance of the disputed territory will be divided by the Horse Ridge road, which intersects the Bend-Burns highway.
Cattle will graze to the north of the boundary, and sheep to the south.

Both cattle and sheep raisers, Mr.
Kotzman declared, expressed themselves as entirely satisfied with the arrangement.

It's worth remembering, Mr. Subscriber and Mr. Advertiser, that the cost of everything that goes to make a newspaper has risen, except the subscription and advertising rate.
