SNOW CUTS OFF DUST NUISANCE

INDIAN PREDICTION FULFILLED,
WHEN STORM, ALMOST BLIZ-
ZARD, IN SOME SECTIONS,
VISITS COUNTRY.

(From Monday's Daily.)

Dust swirls gave way to snow swirls and the Warm Springs Indians' prediction of "heap big snow," in two weeks, was fulfilled, when a flaky covering was deposited at intervals from Saturday night until this morning. In Bend, the precipitation in a water equivalent, reached only .04 of an inch, while the snow depth itself, was approximately two inches, but in several sections near here, the storm amounted to a veritable blizzard. As no extreme cold was attendant no suffering among stock has been reported in consequence.

Drifting rapidly, the snow blocked roads in the vicinity of Bend, particularly the one to La Pine, where autos starting out yesterday, were forced to turn back without completing the trip. Drivers reported that the snow was so dry, that when found at any depth at all, the wheels would absolutely refuse to take hold.

Local climatic conditions indicated that the light fall of snow so far recorded is only a forerunner of more to come within the next 24 hours.

COOPERATIVE PLAN FAVORED ON FOREST

Forest Supervisor W. G. Hastings is in receipt of a letter from the Indian agent at the Warm Springs reservation, asking that a plan of co-operation for the coming fire season, be formulated. Mr. Hastings is of the opinion that the forest and agency work may be so dovetailed as to make operations cheaper, together with a lessening of the fire hazard.

SUCCESSFUL FARMER TO START TEACHING

John Tuck, Aged 54, Takes Examination for Certificate—Formerly Taught in the East.

(From Monday's Daily.)

After retiring from the life of an educator for several years, John Tuck, of Powell Butte, was in the city today to take an eighth grade examination for a teacher's certificate. He expects to teach in the vicinity of Redmond for the balance of the school year, as an accommodation to the school board. Mr. Tuck is 54 years of age.

He has been an educator for the greater part of his life, but worn out by the confining life, abandoned teaching for farming after he came west 11 years ago. Successful in tilling the soil, and with regained health, he declares that his return to educational work will be of short duration.

TRAVELERS MUST KEEP ON ONE ROAD

Rocks Ingeniously Arranged in the Highway Prevent Cutting Up New Powell Butte Road.

(From Monday's Daily.)

Travelers between Bend and Powell Butte, whether they go by auto or other motor power vehicles, are compelled to keep in the straight and narrow path, through the ingenious endeavors of some person or persons living in that district.

Instead of using the entire road bed, cutting several pairs of wheel tracks, only one track is permitted. Rocks, of such size as do not permit driving over, have been carefully laid from the outer edge of the roadbed toward the center at short intervals along the Powell Butte highway, permitting the running of vehicles in only one track. This, it is thought, prevents cutting up the entire roadbed.

The roads between Bend and Powell Butte, until the present snow, were in fine condition for travel.

TOM MADOC IS BROUGHT BACK

RUNAWAY BOY TELLS OF LIFE AS ORPHAN, AND SAYS HE WOULD MUCH RATHER LIVE IN THE COUNTRY.

(From Monday's Daily.)

After an absence of nearly two weeks, little Tom Madoc, who left his home here a week ago last Wednesday, was brought back to Bend from the Dale Tussing homestead, by O. O. King, a mail carrier, and given into the care of S. E. Roberts.

The youngster was not greatly overjoyed at being brought back from the country, but was inclined to take the matter philosophically. He said that he was an orphan, and had been adopted last July, coming to Bend with his foster parents about five weeks ago. He declared that he preferred living in the country, and would have liked to remain on the Tussing homestead indefinitely. Mr. Madoc asked last week that the boy be returned.

Although in no sense bashful, the boy was not talkative, only replying briefly to direct questions. "No, I wasn't afraid," was his reply when questioned in regard to his lonely trip from Bend. "There wasn't anything to be afraid of."

Shortly after his arrival, Sheriff Roberts took the little chap to a restaurant, and watched him consume a meal that would have made some grown men jealous.

FORMER BEND MAN IS IN SANITARIUM

That it has been found necessary to remove John Peters, formerly of this city, to the Puget Sound sanitarium, because of his mental condition, was the word received today by Sheriff S. E. Roberts, from Mrs. Frank Moyer, of Auburn, Washington. Peters' sister, Peters was taken from his bachelor cabin near Bend January 13.

BEND QUINTET WILL PLAY PRINEVILLE

Local Five Shows Up Strong Against High School Team, Winning 59 to 17, Last Night.

Bend Prineville basketball teams will clash in the first game of the season in Bend next Thursday evening at the Hippodrome at 8:15 o'clock. The Bend five is now going in fair shape, and with two more stiff games this week to tune up on, the local quintet should be in the best shape for Thursday's performance against the Crook county five.

The local five has two weaknesses. The guarding is the weakest department of its tactics, although the prospects in this department look better than they did a week ago. Nelson is fast, but needs another man with equal speed to cover the guarding as it should be. The team is slow on foot as a whole, as was evidenced in its game last night with the high school, in which the town five defeated the high school 59 to 17. The school team, although midgets, played fast ball.

Reed and Foster seem to make up the backbone of the Bend team. Reed is about 90 per cent sure on baskets from the field, and Foster, towering no less than eight feet with his arms stretched skyward, handles the ball in passes and shooting in such a way that a center of ordinary height has little chance to tip the ball.

It is understood here that Prineville has a fast and aggressive team, that has been working for several weeks and is ready for Bend Thursday evening.

A nominal admission of 25 cents will be charged for the game.

Prineville Boy Signed.

After a series of efforts on the part of Jimmy Richardson, of the Portland Beavers, Ernest Estes, of this city, has been signed up for the coming season to the manager of the Beavers.

It is said that he will be farmed out to Spokane for training, and that the manager of the Beavers has great hopes for this youngster. "Bob" has many admirers in the local fraternity of fans, and will make good in professional ball without question.—Crook County Journal.

BEND TAKES RECORD

Barney O'Donnell Sells Steers in Portland at $9 Rate.

(By United Press to The Daily Bulletin)

PORTLAND, Jan. 30.—All previous records in prices paid here for cattle were broken in Portland yesterday, when a carload of choice selected fat steers from Bend sold at $9 at the North Portland yards. The steers were hay fed, and the price is the highest ever paid here for Oregon stock.

They were brought in by Barney O'Donnell, Bend butcher, and were, for the most part, from the Mayfield ranch in the Crooked river valley.
