

PLANS LOOMING FOR CHAUTAUQUA

COMMITTEE WILL MEET WITHIN NEXT 30 DAYS—DATES FOR BEND ARE SET FOR JUNE 6 TO 11 INCLUSIVE.

(From Monday's Daily.)

In the midst of zero weather, preparations are already being considered for the coming Chautauqua season and within 30 days, announces J. A. Eastes, chairman of the general committee in charge, a meeting of committee members and guarantors will be called to arrange for the securing of grounds, the appointment of special committees and to attend to other preliminary details.

Announcement of the coming meeting was prompted by a letter received by Mr. Eastes from J. B. Hurd, of the Ellison-White company, which will furnish the talent for the Chautauqua, fixing the dates for June 6 to 11 inclusive. Mr. Hurd stated in his letter that it might be necessary to change the time a few days one way or the other, but that in all probability the dates given would remain in effect. The company, he stated, would expend one-third more on talent for this season, than was the case last year.

The present guarantee amounts to $1200 and approximately 100 have already signed up for season tickets.

APPEAL TAKEN FROM PAISLEY DECISION

Action of C. E. S. Wood Gives Renewed Hope for Favorable Adjudication of Land Case.

(From Thursday's Daily.)

SALEM, Or., Feb. 1.—(Special.)—An appeal has been filed by Col. C. E. S. Wood to the supreme court in the case affecting the Paisley project, the Chewaucan Cattle company and the Northwest Townsite company.

In a recent decision Judge Daly, of Lake county, ruled in favoring the Chewaucan Cattle company. Just after the decision was rendered, representatives and attorneys of the Northwest Townsite company, who are backing the project, stated that no appeal would be taken owing to the cost involved in the action, but it is generally felt that owing to the loss that would be incurred through the dropping of the project development the cause should be carried to the higher courts to obtain a more favorable settlement.

COUNTY COURT HAS UNCLOUDED SESSION

Question of Financing County is Issue—New Bids on Record Books May Be Asked.

(From Thursday's Daily.)

The first session of the county court, with no cloud hanging over Deschutes county, was held today in Bend, but the meeting was largely limited to the discussion of routine matters. The chief question which for the financing of county business until taxes are available.

The purchase of record books was again brought up, and it is probable that all bids will be rejected and new offers called for, as those before submitted were identical in amounts.

A petition was received by the court asking for the improvement of the road passing the brickyards and leading to the Gardner-Wilkinson mill.

WHO'S A FARMER?

(From Monday's Daily.)

In a recent debate Representative Brownell, the Clackamas orator, referred to himself as a farmer. Vernon Forbes who, although probably the most diminutive member, represents the largest district in the state, and has a voice that covers the entire district, referred to "us farmers," meaning Brownell and himself. There is a faint suspicion that both are taking credit for gardens at home which are cared for and cultivated by their wives.—Cottage Grove Sentinel.

GOVERNOR SENDS COPY OF DRY LAW

Levi D. Wiest, who was one of the leaders in the campaign for the passage of the "bone dry" amendment at the last general election, has received from Governor Withycombe a copy of the law as passed by the legislature, putting the provisions of the amendment into effect. On the front page of the law the Governor has written, "Approved February 2, 1917, James Withycombe, Governor."

BANKS OFFER PRIZES TO THE STUDENTS

Cash and Books to Be given to Pupils Doing Meritorious Work During the Last Year.

(From Monday's Daily.)

To stimulate creditable scholastic work, the First National and Central Oregon banks are offering prizes this year in cash and books, to students whose work at the close of the present year show a certain high average.

A service medal will be given by the First National bank to the student who, in the opinion of the teachers and students, has done the greatest service during the year in the community, home and school. The students will ballot on this nomination about four weeks before the close of school and the nominees will be considered by the high school faculty and the election will be made prior to commencement. The medal will then be made and presented to the successful candidate on the evening of commencement. The student obtaining the highest grade in the examination in current history to a magazine, the selection of which will receive one year's subscription is made upon the recommendation of the high school faculty. The third prize which the First National bank will offer, is a $3 magazine, which will be given to the person writing the best essay on the subject, "Our City—a Problem." This prize is open to competition only among the juniors and seniors. According to its policy in the past, the bank will offer a $5 prize to each student who wins a place in each of the three divisions of public speaking, in preparation for the Redmond field and track meet to be held in May.

The Central Oregon bank offers to each high school student making triple A grades, books to the value of which will be $5 for each student. The triple A means that the pupil must stand A in department, attendance and in scholastic work.

ENTERPRISE PRAISED

(From Thursday's Daily.)

Congratulations continue to come to the First National Bank, of Bend, for its enterprise in issuing the pamphlet containing the text of the Federal and state rural credit laws. The last letter is from Dr. Hector Macpherson, of the Oregon Agricultural College, who took a prominent part in the preparation of the Oregon law.

Dr. Macpherson writes as follows: "I have been watching for an opportunity to send you my congratulations on your enterprise and public spirit in putting this information into the hands of your patrons. The fact that their local banker took enough interest in the movement to place the two opportunities for a cheaper credit before them in this impartial manner should not only give them confidence in the movement, but increase their confidence in your institution."

ANNOUNCE ELIGIBLES

Prineville and Bend Applicants Qualify for Mail Service.

(From Friday's Daily.)

The Bend postoffice is in receipt of the eligible register from which to fill any vacancies which may be declared here, and which is created by the civil service as the result of examinations held in Bend on December 9 of the year just passed.

Benjamin D. Fox, of Prineville, is the first on the list, having passed highest in the examinations, and Russell W. Nicholson, of Bend, is second on the eligible list.

CELEBRATE ANNIVERSARY

Mr. and Mrs. James A. W. Scoggin, of Tumalo, celebrated the thirty-ninth anniversary of their marriage on the evening of Jan. 27. A delicious family dinner was enjoyed at 6 o'clock, and later a crowd of neighbors and friends came in to assist in the fun. The evening was made merry by a literary and musical program, with dancing as a supplement. Refreshments were served at midnight and the friends departed with hearty congratulations and the hope that many more anniversaries would be enjoyed by the hosts.

BUSINESS IS DOUBLED

Postal Receipts for January Make Total of $1672.51.

Business transacted at the local postoffice during the last month doubled that of the corresponding period in 1916, for receipts in January just past totaled $1672.51. Postmaster Henry B. Ford announced this morning. Receipts for January a year ago were $850.

January receipts were slightly under those of December, when $1985.97 was reached, but this is accounted for by the amount of Christmas business, which swelled the aggregate during the last month of the year.
