

WILL BLOCK PLOTTING IN DESCHUTES

DISTRICT ATTORNEY WARNS ALIENS.

DETAILS ARE SECRET

Reports Being Sent in From Bend to Federal Officials — DeArmond Emphasizes Need of Following Wilson's Advice.

(From Tuesday's Daily.) Special precautions to curb any possible outbreaks of alien feeling in Deschutes county are being made by District Attorney H. H. DeArmond, who stated this morning that he has already sent in several reports to the Federal district attorney in Portland in regard to conditions in Bend, and the vicinity. As to details concerning the information conveyed in the reports, he was unable to give any information without violating the obligation of secrecy imposed by the Federal government.

"I am not looking for trouble locally," Mr. DeArmond said this morning. "And I am endeavoring to take care that there shall be none. You never can tell what will happen, and I believe in being prepared." Mr. DeArmond mentioned the existence of Federal and state laws, seldom invoked in time of peace, but which will now be rigidly enforced in case of danger of any alien activities here. The warning to alien enemies, conveyed by President Wilson in his recent proclamation, he declared, must be carefully adhered to. The chief provisions which would apply locally are those forbidding the making of threats against the Federal government, the possession of weapons, or giving out any information which might militate against the government or its servants, or the commission or abetting of any hostile acts.

COZY TO OPEN THURSDAY NOON

HOTEL IS COMPLETELY NEW IN ALL FURNISHINGS — GUEST ROOMS ARE MOST INVITINGLY ARRANGED.

(From Tuesday's Daily.) The Hotel Cozy, under the proprietorship of Mrs. Nettie Stevenson, will be formally opened to the public Thursday noon. The new hotel and restaurant, which has been under construction for several months, is now receiving the finishing touches on the interior, which will be completed tomorrow morning in readiness for the opening.

It is the intention of Mrs. Stevenson modestly to introduce the new hostelry to the public with a special turkey dinner which will be served from noon until midnight Thursday. The new hotel building is owned by A. G. Brook and has been erected at a cost of approximately $20,000. In every detail the building is furnished throughout complete with new furniture, purchased by Mrs. Stevenson. Fifteen guest rooms will accommodate the transient guests, all of which are furnished with new furniture. The rooms are of moderate size, are light and with large windows to afford plenty of fresh air when desired.

Building Well Planned. The lobby occupies a suitable and convenient portion of the northeast corner of the building off the large vestibule to the left of the entrance. The Cozy restaurant occupies the northwest corner of the building, overlooking Greenwood avenue and Wall street, with a splendid view of the mountains. It is the intention of Mrs. Stevenson to make full use of the large white pressed brick fireplace for the comfort of guests and to enable this feature to give the dining room a cozy appearance at all times.

All the conveniences for speedy service, cleanliness and good food have been arranged for in the large kitchen. Mrs. Nettie Stevenson, the proprietor-manager of the Hotel Cozy, is entering on her eighth year of business in Bend. Since she opened the Cozy Restaurant on Greenwood avenue, near Bond street, she has conducted the business and has had a steadily growing patronage. It is Mrs. Stevenson's policy to maintain the hotel on a basis of moderate rates and to cater to the local as well as the traveling public.

HATCH CHICKENS EARLY.

A Tip on How to Obtain a More Steady Supply of Eggs.

Nature requires her subjects to take an annual vacation, and the moulting season, which begins in late summer, is the holiday time for hens. The hens stop laying and change their old feathers for a new one, requiring three or four months in the operation. When the hens take this vacation new laid eggs are scarce and remain scarce until the pullets hatched during the preceding spring begin to lay.

The remedy is very simple and is under the control of the poultryman. The first step is to have chickens hatched early, so that the pullets begin to lay when the hens begin to moult. This is not difficult. Pullets of the American breeds begin laying at about seven months of age. Leghorn pullets begin when about six months old. North of the Ohio river this means that all hatching must be over by May 1 at the latest. The best plan is to have the chickens coming at intervals during March and April. The earliest hatched pullets will, of course, begin to lay first. If any of them begin to moult their places will be taken by the later ones, and a steady supply of eggs will be more certain.

The difficulty in the way of the practical application of this matter is that so many poultry keepers are dependent on hens for hatching. As long as we have late hatched chickens we will have late sitters. The poultry keeper who wants to change from the late hatching to early hatching must therefore either get broody hens from some one else or use an incubator. After he has "changed the dates" on his flock he will have no trouble, especially with the American breeds. —New York Sun.

To Get Out of Debt.

In the Woman's Home Companion is an article on debt and how to get out of it by a woman who was almost ruined by her husband's carelessness and extravagance. Among other things she says:

"If a family that has been living outside its income wants to start to live inside, something more than a good resolve is necessary. Usually that man and woman have got to form a wholly new circle of friends. They must leave those who are living outside and take up their abode among those who are living inside. Man is a gregarious animal. His will power needs all the help it can get from a congenial and approving public opinion."

Nervous Systems.

In man and all of the higher animals the nervous system centers in the brain, and life is dependent upon the condition of the brain, so that the slightest injury to it means death or derangement of faculties. But in the case of the worm and other creatures of the lower kind the nervous tissues are distributed over the body and do not center in the head, so that a worm may be cut in half and still live.

Speak to the Horse.

The human voice has more or less marked influence on all animals. In managing horses especially the voice is of the greatest use. It should be quiet and, though confident and masterful, not loud and boisterous. No one should ever touch a horse without at the same time speaking to it.

Love and Strife.

Of a truth love and strife were aforesaid and shall be, nor ever, methinks, will boundless time be emptied of that pair. And they prevail in turn as the circle comes round and pass away before one another and increase in their appointed time. —Empedocles.

MINISTER MAY SERVE IN ARMY

REV. H. C. HARTRANFT, SON OF GERMAN PARENTS, READY TO GIVE AMERICA BENEFIT OF MILITIA EXPERIENCE.

(From Tuesday's Daily.)

Although the son of German parents, and a minister of the Gospel as well, Rev. H. C. Hartranft, pastor of the Presbyterian church of this city, is ready and willing to enter the American army in the war against Germany just as soon as a call is made which will require his services. Rev. Hartranft does not contemplate enlisting as a chaplain, either, and the experience gained as second lieutenant in the Pennsylvania militia, previous to his being ordained, he is willing to turn to some account in the service of his country.

Rev. Hartranft's parents are both in Berlin, but his father with four brothers, fought for the Union in the Civil War. Rev. Hartranft declares that in spite of his German blood, it is distinctly a case of "America first" with him.

CENTRAL OREGON HAY GOES TO TILLAMOOK

Coast County Dairymen Want One Thousand Tons at Least.

(From Thursday's Daily.)

During the last few weeks the county agent of Tillamook county arranged through the agent of Deschutes and Crook counties for the purchase of six carloads of Central Oregon hay for the Tillamook dairymen. This hay took so well with the dairymen of Tillamook that a wire was received for several additional cars that could not be filled for want of hay. Now comes a letter from County Agent Jones, of Tillamook, saying that his dairymen want to contract for 1000 or more tons of Crook and Deschutes county hay for fall delivery.

The Tillamook dairymen have decided that if they can buy all the hay they need from the farmers over here that they will use all their land for pasture, green crops and silage, and they are anxious to know what can be done in the matter so they may plan their cropping system under the new conditions.

It begins to look as if Central Oregon farmers are not going to have to worry about a market for their crops. Quality and quantity count when it comes to getting before the bigger markets and that is what the farmers of these two counties are learning to produce.

FIGHT FOOD SHORTAGE

Planting of Gardens On Vacant Lots Is Being Urged.

(From Tuesday's Daily.)

County Agricultural Agent Blanchard has made plans for active assistance to the people living in the towns of Crook and Deschutes counties, to assist the nation in the crisis of war, by helping themselves to produce as much as possible on the vacant lots and other vacant land in and near the towns in our counties. Not only is the matter to be urged in general, but a series of instructional meetings will be held for the grown-ups, the school children organized and marshalled into service and the assistance of the churches through their committees and boy scout work, brought into the work so far as possible.

The season of 1916 showed a remarkable decrease in cereal products according to U. S. Department of Agriculture figures. The present season owing to unfavorable conditions, indicates that the situation of the previous year will not be very materially bettered. Even before the war, congress viewed with concern the fact that our nation is increasing at the approximate rate of 2,000,000 souls a year, which requires around 750,000,000 bushels of cereal foods to supply this increase. It is a matter of historical record that in a state of war the food consumption is much greater, and during the length of hostilities becomes the one great problem.

Prices are bound to rise. It is the duty of every man with a family to utilize what space is available for gardens. A plot 50x100 feet could be made to yield from 1500 to 2000 pounds of food products. In our altitude and under our frost conditions it is imperative that only the hardiest varieties be planted. A poster is being prepared, suggesting varieties to be used and giving other hints on gardening lines. The agriculturalist stands ready to serve.

EVANGELIST SPEAKS ON LIFE OF CHRIST

(From Thursday's Daily.) Evangelist H. E. Marshall spoke last night on the subject, "The Stoning of Jesus." The audience was large and very appreciative.

"No man is competent to pass upon the life of Christ unless he has studied it," the speaker declared. "His life is conceded to be flawless by all. There was not an act in his life that merits the stoning. What have you against Christ? His teaching and life have given us our homes, our country, and everything worth while. And what is more, the rock you hold against Him, you can never throw. The judgment will reveal the rock you hold in your hand."

Dr. Marshall's subject for tonight will be, "Loosed by the Devil."
