TESTIMONY FINISHED IN IRRIGATION CASE

Petition to Increase Water Rates Strenuously Fought by Settlers Before Commission.

(From Thursday's Daily.)

Taking of testimony before Frank J. Miller and H. H. Corey, of the State Public Service commission, came to a close last night at Sisters, in the case of the rate increase petition of the Squaw Creek Irrigation Co. Testimony given by settlers on on the project was to the effect that they could not pay the $1 an acre foot for water asked in the company's petition, and continue to hold their farms. The present rate is 35 cents per acre foot, and it is estimated that two acre feet are required for successful irrigation.

H. H. De Armond and Vernon A. Forbes, of Bend, represented the settlers.

Steve, who enlisted as an electrician, has gone to San Francisco, while John, Jr., who will rate as an apprentice seaman, to return to Bend Thursday on a two weeks' furlough before going into training camp.

(From Tuesday's Daily.)

Meeting in special session last night, the Bend school board voted to award the $30,000 bond issue recently authorized to finance new buildings in the city, to the state, on a bid of par and five per cent interest. The bonds may be retired at any time the district desires, up to 20 years.

Money for the bond purchase will come from the state school funds, formerly largely used on farm loans, but now available for school purposes because of the operation of the state rural credits law.

B. A. A. C. BUYS 300,000 BRICK

DELIVERY MUST START IN 30 DAYS—LUMBER CONTRACT TO BE LET MONDAY—CLUB TO HONOR HUNTER'S MEMORY.

(From Friday's Daily.)

The contract for 300,000 brick, at $10 a thousand, for the Bend Amateur Athletic club, was let today to the Bend Brick & Lumber Company, stipulating the commencement of delivery in 30 days, and the completion of the contract within 60 days. Brick masons will be set to work as soon as the first load arrives at the gymnasium site, and it is believed that this division of the work will be finished shortly after the last load is delivered. The contract for the lumber to be used in the building will be let Monday, President Carl Johnson announced this morning.

Formally turning over the building site to the athletic club, The Bend Company delivered the deed to Mr. Johnson today. As an acknowledgment of the obligation under which the club stands, a memorial plate bearing the name of A. O. Hunter, prominent during his lifetime in the affairs of the company, will be placed in one of the main rooms of the club.

Appointment and organization of committees is being pushed in order that active club work may start as soon as the building is ready for occupancy.

BENHAM FALLS CHANGE LOOMS

DEPARTMENT OF INTERIOR MAY ACT.

Lewis Introduces Resolution at Desert Land Board Meeting to Withdraw Request for Extension of Time on Contract.

(From Thursday's Daily.)

SALEM, May 10.—(Special to The Bulletin.)—If a resolution prepared by State Engineer Lewis is approved by the Desert Land Board, as seems probable, the fate of the 74,198 acres of the so-called Benham Falls segregation will be left entirely in the hands of the Department of the Interior.

The resolution, as drafted, would withdraw the board's former petition asking for a five year extension in time on Oregon's Segregation list No. 20, and would relinquish all right, title and interest of the state to the lands involved.

The resolution is based upon the statement that "the greatest public good will come through holding these lands intact for reclamation under some feasible plan, but it appears impossible to outline any feasible plan whereby the same can be reclaimed under the provisions of the Carey Act."

Lewis Against Early Plan.

Investigations made by Mr. Lewis in connection with the proposed compromise plan to water some 5000 acres by enlarging the Arnold Ditch company facilities, seem to have convinced him that such a project is not desirable. Mr. Lewis, who recently returned from Bend, states that the Arnold rights probably would cover no more than 1000 acres; that the proposed development would necessitate flooding of at least some of Crane Prairie, and that probably the effort suggested to develop the land would bring injunction proceedings from those interested in the Deschutes River from a power producing standpoint.

U. S. May Open Land.

Mr. Lewis states that the resolution, if adopted, would have no other effect than to leave the disposition of the segregation entirely up to the Department of the Interior.

As through the resolution the state would go officially on record as withdrawing its previous request for an extension of time on the contract, this, presumably, would mean that the Department would entertain no further requests for extension. It is pointed out that the probable effect would be for the government to open the lands to homestead entry.

The only alternative to such a course would be to further preserve the segregation as a unit, pending possible future irrigation development. However, it is argued, such a step seems improbable in view of the fact that the co-operative survey of Central Oregon projects made some years ago by the government, established the fact that the Benham Falls project was the least desirable and most costly of the several tentative and possible projects in the interior.

S-H WINNER IN TWELVE INNINGS

LUMBERMEN BEAT OUT TWO POINT LEAD.

Hard Hitting, Many Walks, and Donated Runs Mark Clash With Jefferson County—Game at Prineville Postponed.

Standing of the Teams.

CLUB—	W.	L.	Pct.
Jefferson County	2	1	.666
Shevlin-Hixon	2	1	.666
Prineville	1	1	.500
Bend	0	2	.000

(From Monday's Daily.)

With a two-run lead to overcome in the last half of the twelfth, two men down and two on bases, the Shevlin-Hixon nine slipped over the needed two tallies in yesterday's game here with the Jefferson county team, without contributing the third out. Who this would have been was still problematical when the game broke up with a score of 13-12.

Baker was first up in the last frame, and went out on third's assist to first. Houston walked. Dieters went to first on a fielder's choice, Simpson filed out to second, and Boland walked, clogging the sacks. At this juncture Leary was hit by a pitched ball, forcing Houston, and Dieters stole home while the Jeffs were protesting that Leary had tried to be hit. Jimmy Clifford scored Boland with a timely single through third.

Clifford Shows Class.

Incidentally, it should be mentioned that this same Clifford, who has been camping in the gardens in previous contests, displayed more class than any other masked marvel who has yet appeared on the local grounds this season. Of the other end of the Bend battery it might be mentioned that when he had the pill under control he was unhittable, fanning 11, but that in the remainder of the time he walked 11 on balls, and donated no less than four runs to Jefferson via the wild pitch route.

Boland Starts Scoring.

The game started with a blank inning and a half, but Boland started trouble in the last of the second with a clean single. Leary went first on pitcher's error, Boland pilfered third, and romped home with Leary when Overhulce in center field dropped Clifford's long fly. In the third, Dieters scored. Baker adding one in the fourth, with Shoots, Boland and Clifford contributing in the fifth. The lumbermen were blanked in the next three, but Boland and Leary trotted home in the ninth to tie the score. Delter's tally in the tenth was the last for the mill men until the twelfth.

Wild Pitching Aids.

The Jeffs waited until the third inning before starting anything. Then Boring went first on pitcher's error, stole, and went to third when Meade hit, scoring on McGee's single. Overhulce walked and Meade scored on a wild pitch. The same cause chalked up McGee's tally. McGee and L. Michel scored in the fifth, P. Wiegand in the sixth, N. Wiegand, M. Michel and P. Wiegand in the seventh. McGee crossed the plate again in the tenth, and in the twelfth L. Michel and N. Wiegand decorated the center of the tally square.

As a special feature of the game it should be mentioned the stick-work of Boland, of the Lumbermen. Out of seven times up, he clouted out three singles, one two-bagger, walked twice, and flied out once.

JEFFERSON COUNTY—	Position	SHEVLIN-HIXON

Umpire—Frank Shugert, of Bend.

Due to the heavy rains of the night before and the morning for which the game was scheduled, the clash between the Bend team and Prineville, in the Crook county seat, was postponed.

TO FORM RED CROSS AUXILIARIES HERE

Deschutes, Crook and Jefferson Counties Expected to Furnish at Least 1000 Members.

(From Friday's Daily.)

The Bend chapter of the American Red Cross having formed, the next step in the organization of Central Oregon in the great humanitarian work is the formation of auxiliary chapters in the towns of this section, according to Mrs. A. Lambert-Trahan, secretary of the local chapter.

The national Red Cross finds it impossible to recognize communities of less than 5000 people in the formation of chapters, Mrs. Trahan says, but auxiliaries may be established in smaller communities. Crook, Jefferson and Deschutes counties have been set off as territory of the Bend chapter and it is hoped to obtain at least 1000 members. It is expected that an auxiliary will be formed in every town and community within the jurisdiction of the Bend chapter. The chapter reports direct to the national headquarters and the auxiliary to the chapter.

Any resident of the United States may become a member on payment of $1.00 per year, no obligation being thereby entailed. Any wishing further information are invited to address Mrs. A. Lambert-Trahan, secretary of the Bend chapter, Bend.

Y. M. C. A. NEEDS ARE OUTLINED

SUBSCRIPTIONS FOR ARMY ASSOCIATIONS RECEIVED AT UNION MEETING — COMMITTEE CONTINUES WORK.

(From Monday's Daily.)

Rev. A. J. Montgomery, of Portland, was the speaker of the evening last night at a union meeting held at the Hippodrome as the starting point of a campaign to raise between $1200 and $1500 for Y. M. C. A. army camp work. Rev. Montgomery sketched the results achieved by the Y. M. C. A. on the Mexican border and in Europe, and urged the need for similar endeavor for the American soldiers who are being enlisted to make war on Germany. Central Oregon is expected to contribute between $1200 and $1500 as its share.

Subscriptions for $150 were received, and the work was continued today, a committee composed of Rev. W. C. Stewart, of the Methodist church, and G. M. Raymond, soliciting among the business men of the city.

Yesterday morning, Rev. Stewart spoke in Madras on the Y. M. C. A. movement, other meetings of similar nature being held in Prineville and Redmond.

CENSUS OF FARMERS NOW BEING TAKEN

(From Friday's Daily.)

While recruiting officers are busily enlisting the youth of the country in the army and navy, the agricultural agents are at work tabulating the agricultural resources and learning what the farmers need in order to insure maximum results from their flocks and lands this summer.

In the state of Oregon a personal canvass of the farmers is being made, County Agricultural Agent Blanchard having charge of the work in Deschutes county. Every farmer is being asked to fill out a farm survey blank telling how many acres he has in crop, how much livestock he has, what seed he has for sale and what his seed, labor and machinery needs are.

Another phase of the food preparedness campaign is seen in a big poster calling for 2000 boys to enlist for farm service. Boys 16 years old and over are wanted. Minimum wages are fixed for different classes of work and a movement is on foot to grant school credits to those regularly assigned to farm service.

LITTLE RIVER SETS A 30 YEAR RECORD

(From Wednesday's Daily.)

That Little River, above La Pine, normally 40 feet in width, is now nearly 300 yards across, was the statement of County Judge W. D. Barnes and County Treasurer Clyde M. McKay, just returned from a trip of inspection to the Little River bridge. The structure is entirely surrounded by water, they declare, but in no danger. The river is higher than at any time in 30 years, residents of the section say.

NEW BUILDING TO BE STARTED

A. M. PRINGLE LETS CONTRACT FOR $15,000 — SECOND STORY PROMISED MASONS — WORK BEGINS TOMORROW.

(From Tuesday's Daily.)

Work on the excavations for the A. M. Pringle building at the corner of Wall and Oregon streets, will be started tomorrow morning, the general contract having been let to J. C. Cunningham for $15,000, Mr. Pringle announced this afternoon. Mr. Cunningham is also the architect for the structure.

The building has been altered considerably from the original plans, which contemplated only a one-story block. The Bend Masons, however, have signed up for the second story, which will be used exclusively for lodge purposes. While applications have been made for all the rooms on the ground floor, no contracts for any of these have been signed, Mr. Pringle states. The ground dimensions of the building are the same as planned at first, 50x100.

It is expected that work will soon be commenced on the foundations, for the lot is so much lower than the intersecting streets, as to render necessary excavations slight.
