

War Census Day Proclaimed a Legal Holiday in Oregon

(From Monday's Daily.)
PORTLAND, May 28.—By official proclamation of Governor Withycombe, War Census Day, June 5, will be a legal holiday throughout the state of Oregon.

In his proclamation the governor calls upon every patriotic citizen to assist in the big task of registering all men of military age, and to make War Census Day an event memorable in the state's history.

The proclamation follows, in full:
Proclamation.

Whereas, the President of the United States has designated June 5, 1917, as the day upon which our citizens shall register in accordance with the provisions of the selective draft law, and

Whereas, on this day we face a gigantic task new in our national history and one whose proper conduct can only be attained through the united co-operation of every citizen, and

Whereas, it is vitally desirable that the registration be accomplished with thoroughness and dispatch, both as a testimonial to the efficiency of our democracy and as a moral example stimulating our allies and depressing our adversaries, and

Whereas, it is especially fitting that this occasion be made one of patriotic festival fittingly celebrating the nation's unity and the willingness of its citizenship to serve our flag and to make sacrifice, if needs be, in a righteous cause.

Now, therefore, I, James Withycombe, by virtue of the authority vested in me as governor of the state of Oregon, do proclaim Tuesday, June 5, 1917, as War Census Day, and I do further declare it a legal holiday, believing that by so doing the purposes above set forth will best be served. And I call upon the patriotic men and women of Oregon, and their sons and daughters, to make of this day an occasion memorable in the history of our state, marking, as it does, a great forward step in the efficient utilization of our manhood upon the side of democracy and justice in the world war, to the end that world peace may the sooner be restored and permanently assured.

In testimony whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Seal of the State of Oregon to be hereunto affixed.

JAMES WITHYCOMBE, Governor.

U. S. SAILOR GIVEN BEND HIGH DIPLOMA AT COMMENCEMENT

Robert Fulton, on Furlough as Apprentice Seaman, Completes Studies and Finishes With Class.

(From Saturday's Daily.)

For the first time in the history of the local high school, a sailor in the pay of the United States navy was graduated here last night, when Robert Fulton was handed his diploma by City Superintendent Thordarson.

Several weeks ago young Fulton left for Portland and enlisted in the navy as an apprentice seaman, but so heavy a demand for training camps has been made since recruiting started that he was given an indefinite furlough, and told that he would be called as soon as new training quarters were opened. Immediately returning to Bend, he resumed his work in the high school, caught up on the work he had missed because of his trip to Portland, and formally completed his high school course with the other members of his class last night.

IT'S worth your while to get what good tobacco judges say about W-B CUT, and to notice the way men are changing over to it. Talk it over with some one who chews W-B CUT—there's something sound and fundamental about the tobacco. It's not gummy with syrup; just tobacco through and through—and mighty rich, sappy leaf at that—shredded and lightly salted to bring out the good tobacco taste.
