

The Military "Six" at Chautauqua

THE Military Girls, fascinating feminine contingent of six rollicking bundles of pretty, peppery, popping surprises, are coming to Chautauqua. The girls hit the Ellison-White Assemblies twice on the third day, leaving a wide trail of happy smiles and stinging hearts. The Military Girls are a first class orchestra of six pieces, a sextet of sweet singers, a prize drum corps and a master military drill and novelty entertainment company—all rolled into a six part package of brimming effervescence.

On one of the largest of the Eastern Chautauquas, last summer the Military Girls were voted first place over all attractions.

WOOD BRIGGS. Wood Briggs, Kentucky's wittiest son since the glorious days of Bob Taylor and W. A. Bone, the famous poet-philosopher and humorist of Illinois.

W. A. BONE. W. A. Bone, the famous poet-philosopher and humorist of Illinois.

W. L. MELLINGER. W. L. Mellinger in an eloquent informative lecture on Mexico, where he was "persona grata" with both Government and Revolutionary leaders.

Chautauquas to Hear Alpine Yodlers

Tyrolean In Native Costumes Will Present "An Evening In the Alps"

GRAUS Tyrolean Alps Yodlers, the incomparable company of Swiss singers and instrumentalists that charmed New York for forty weeks at the New York Hippodrome, have been secured for 1917 Ellison-White Chautauquas. Accompanying themselves upon the zither, mandolin, guitar and violin, the Tyroleans in the picturesque costumes of the Swiss, singing the songs of the land of William Tell, give one of the greatest descriptive fantasies on the stage or concert platform. It is called "An Evening in the Alps" and features the world's greatest yodlers in an echo song, the correct singing of which is an astonishing feat in vocalization.

The Tyroleans will probably appear only in the evening the last day of the Chautauqua.
