

BEND THEATRE HAS INTERESTING FILMS

Mary Pickford and Other Big Stars to Be Seen During Fourth of July Week.

Complying with the popular demand of the public for variety in their amusements, the Bend Theatre has announced an exceptionally interesting program of specially selected stars and productions for the coming holiday week. And also realizing the enormous demands upon the public pocketbook during the Liberty Loan, Red Cross and other campaigns, they are showing this special program at no advance over the regular prices which are from 10 cents to 25 cents, according to the production.

America's Sweetheart Coming.
The headliner for the week is Mary Pickford, in her most charming production, "The Poor Little Rich Girl," playing on next Sunday and Monday, with a matinee on Sunday afternoon.

As Gwendolyn, the "poor little rich girl," who had all that money could buy but scarcely knew her parents, Mary Pickford, in "A Poor Little Rich Girl," her newest Artercraft picture, adapted from the well known Eleanor Gates subject, is afforded a role of exceptional Pickford qualities. The story tells of how Gwendolyn, who is left entirely in the care of her nurses and servants as a result of the social and business "duties" of her parents, finally brings about a big change in the lives of her little family. Through their little daughter, the selfish parents are brought to realize that each is travelling in the wrong direction and that their real goal is happiness rather than wealth.

Home Peters Returns.
A most unusual picture is that of the "Velvet Paw," which was taken at the heart of the nation in Washington, D. C., and a great part of the "photographing of which" was witnessed by President Wilson. Many beautiful scenes of the city and the National Capitol, besides views in the California mines. Not only mines but wonderful orange groves figure in the story. She will appear as Betty in "Betty to the Rescue." Her doting father, who has sunk all his money in a mine, leaves her in the care of some friends who make her believe she is wealthy until their orange crop is wiped out by a sudden frost. How Betty takes the management into her own hands, discovers that her mine is worth a fortune, and goes into the arms of the man she loves, is depicted in a delightfully original and satisfying manner.

A special matinee in addition to the night performance has been arranged for the Fourth of July for many who will want to see De Wolf Hopper as "Mr. Goode, the Samaritan." This veteran of the comedy, who makes fun of all his troubles, takes the part of a benevolent old gentleman who becomes enmeshed in the coils of the law when he buys a stolen automobile from Foxy Monte, a crook. His many amusing experiences in the jail, together with the band of crooks which the philanthropist tries to reform, leads the film on to an exciting finish.

Fannie Ward, Queen of Light Comedy
A program of several changes would not be complete without a showing of Fannie Ward, who has a long string of stage successes, surmounted by a remarkable screen career. She will appear on Tuesday, July 3, only, in a gripping story of

PYTHIANS SADDENED BY JUDGE'S DEATH

(From Thursday's Daily.)
The sudden death of Judge W. L. Bradshaw, news of which was received in Bend this morning, is being keenly felt by members of the Knights of Pythias and Bend attorneys who knew Judge Bradshaw best.

"I can not say too much in memory of the life work and fine personality of Judge Bradshaw," said Vernon A. Forbes, who as an attorney has known Judge Bradshaw for the past nine years. "He was a man who never made enemies and had the respect of everyone who knew him. His death is a hard blow to myself and other Bend attorneys and friends, of which the Judge had many, in Bend as well as in other parts of Central Oregon."
Judge Bradshaw died yesterday afternoon in the Multnomah county court house at Portland, where he had been holding court during the illness of Judge Morrow.
For 28 years, up to his death yesterday, Judge Bradshaw had been a circuit judge in The Dalles district, which included old Crook county up to 1915, when a new district was formed. Since the formation of the new district his Bend friends have not seen him often. It being nearly two years since Judge Bradshaw's last visit to Bend.
It was partly due to Judge Bradshaw's call, two weeks ago, to fill the place of Judge Morrow in Portland that the Central Oregon convention of Knights of Pythias, which was to have been held in Bend June 12, was postponed.
