

BROWN LOST 3 DAYS IN WOODS

COLLAR BONE BROKEN FIRST NIGHT, WHEN MAN LOSES THE TRAIL 12 MILES FROM BEND — HAD NO FOOD.

(From Saturday's Daily.)
After spending three days lost in the woods near Bend, with his collar bone broken, Clarence E. Brown, an employee of S. E. Logan at the tie camp 12 miles from Bend, walked into Dr. Coe's office in Bend last night.
When lost, Mr. Brown was on his way back to camp from his day's work in the woods. Missing the trail, he wandered through the woods until dusk, when he fell off a rock ledge about six or eight feet, lighting on his shoulder and breaking the collar bone. He thought it to be only sprained and kept up his attempts to reach camp.
After spending, as near as he could estimate the time this morning, about a day and a half without locating his camp, Brown went back to the river and followed it into Bend. He arrived here about 7 o'clock last night, this journey taking about a day and a half, due to his weakened condition.
Mr. Brown stated this morning that he had nothing to eat with him when lost, and could secure nothing until he reached Bend last night, being three days without food.
After arriving in Bend, Mr. Brown learned that a searching party had been sent out from his camp and had been scouring the woods for him.

FAST SMOKER CARD STAGED

JACK WAGNER AND FRED GILBERT WILL SPEED OVER THE 10-ROUND HIGHWAY — BOTH MEN ARE FAST.

(From Tuesday's Daily.)
Mauger W. L. Doudlah has signed up a creditable looking card for the smoker to be held in the Hippodrome under the auspices of the Bend Athletic club Monday evening, July 2.
Jack Wagner, of Portland, will take the leading role against Fred Gilbert, of Bend, in a 10-round match. If Wagner is half as good as he is reputed by Portland experts, he will give the local mittster the toughest go he has had in a long time.
Of Wagner, and the coming go, the Oregonian of last Sunday says: "Jack Wagner, the rugged Portland lightweight who put the skids under Harry Casey, the Seattle whirlwind recently, has signed to box Fred Gilbert, lightweight champion of Central Oregon, in Bend, on July 2. They will step over the 10-round distance and it should be one of the best battles ever staged in that city."
"Wagner is one of the foremost contenders for the northwest lightweight championship and is a clever two-fisted boxer. He carries a knockout punch in either hand and has an uppercut that few can get away from. After his bout with Gilbert, Jack will go after Muff Bronson, Pete Mitchell and Lloyd Madden to pave his way to the title."
"In Gilbert he will be meeting a tough customer who has a reputation for rough battling. In most of his bouts Fred has stopped his opponents before the distance has been covered."
"All Wagner has to say about Gilbert is, 'the harder they battle the better I like it. They cannot come too fast for me.' Gilbert thinks otherwise and expects to put the Rose City mixer in slumberland before the tenth round comes up."
Frank McKeehan, who is toughening himself in a warehouse at Madras throwing grain sacks, is getting into good shape to meet Gus Davis, who is shoving lumber through the Brooks-Seaton box factory. Davis is a brother of Tracy Davis, of Everett, who has been something of a sensation in the Sound country.
Ted Hoke and Al Bray, two local boys have been signed for a six-round go. Both Bray and Hoke have boxed considerably in Bend and their performances are well known. Kid Rosen, who has always been a mirth maker for local boxing fans, will go over the four-round route with Young Jack Allen.
Tickets are now on sale for the match.

BAND OF SHEEP GIVE TO RED CROSS FUND

(From Saturday's Daily.)
When the Bend subscriptions to the Red Cross are sent in, there will be included $50 contributed by a band of sheep. Robert N. Stanfield, speaker of the last legislature, represents them in the transaction, with Vernon A. Forbes, of Bend, as intermediary.
It happened thus. Several days ago a band of Stanfield's sheep, being taken through town to the summer range, wandered off into lawns and gardens and did a little early mauling on their own account. Forbes heard of this and wired Stanfield, saying that under the circumstances it would be proper and fitting if a donation were made to the local Red Cross fund. Promptly a wire came back, saying "Put us down for $50," and signed "Stanfield & McCormick." They are down.
It is now suggested that as there will be further Red Cross drives, it would be wise to arrange for lawns along the whole route to be taken by the sheep when passing through town.
