

News of the World in Brief

The continued advance of the Russian troops in Galicia, in their new and surprising offensive, the growth of popular sentiment in Germany for internal government reform, and the imminence of the military draft in the United States were of chief interest in the world's news of the week. China is on the verge of plunging into the war against Germany with an initial force of half a million men, and the American troops under General Pershing are encamped close to the battles raging on the western front. Austrians and Italians are still in a deadlock on the southern front, while in France and Belgium Germany's desperate efforts to gain back the territory she once conquered and later lost have been apparently without avail.

Germany's internal troubles have apparently come to a head in the Reichstag, and the resignation of three cabinet members is rumored, while the probable solution will lie in the formation of a coalition cabinet.

Food Bill Vote Due

Already the food preparedness campaign in the United States is showing results, and in all the staple food crops a tremendous increase over last year's output is predicted by experts. The food control bill will reach a vote in the Senate on or before Saturday of this week, the members of the upper house having given their unanimous consent to this procedure.

Preparations for the draft are being rapidly made and within a few days 687,000 men will be chosen for the American army. Exemptions will be made in the case of those whose trades are such as to aid in carrying on the war, and states with heavy voluntary enlistments will be given credit for this in the drawing. Radical changes in physical requirements, however, have lowered materially the number of men who will be rejected.

Deport Spies

Determined to be rid of persons who are sending war news to Germany, the U. S. government has ordered the deportation of all Teutonic diplomatic agents in this country. Another manifestation of German activity is to be found in the I. W. W. disturbances in some of the western states, according to federal officials.

The chief American war move of the week consisted of the introduction in Congress of the administration bill authorizing the establishment of a gigantic aerial corps. Another measure for financing the aerial program will be introduced soon, providing an appropriation of $429,241,000.

British Probe Failure

Germany's submarine activities have been but little abated, and America's shipping losses during the first six months of this year amounted to 11 times the total losses of previous years, it is estimated.

On Monday occurred a gigantic explosion of the black powder warehouse at the Mare Island navy yards, resulting in the death of six and the injuring of 31 people. No explanation for the disaster has been made public.

Digging up the past with promises of a nasty scandal, British authorities, military and civil, started yesterday the investigation of the causes of the failure of the first Mesopotamian expedition. It is understood that ex-members of the British cabinet are involved.

J. E. WARNER IS ASSAULT VICTIM

ENTERS HOUSE TO BORROW FROM RANCHER, AND IS HIT ON HEAD—WOUNDS ARE NOT DANGEROUS.

(From Thursday's Daily.)

Suffering from a scalp wound inflicted Tuesday night, J. E. Warner, of the Brothers section, is at the Bend Surgical hospital today, the result of an alleged attack by a rancher living some 17 miles from Bend. The officials are in possession of only meager details, and have not learned the name of Warner's assailant. No complaint has as yet been filed, and the victim of the attack is out of danger.

According to the information available, Warner stopped his car and went into the house to borrow a block and tackle. As he entered, he was hit over the head, presumably with the butt end of a revolver. He was immediately rushed to Bend for treatment.

SCHOOL BOARD ACTS ON MANY QUESTIONS

(From Wednesday's Daily.)

Business of infinite variety was transacted last night when the Bend school directors met for the principle purpose of allowing bills for the past month. A new order of business for future meetings was adopted, and the time for regular meetings set for 8 o'clock on the first Wednesday night of each month.

The complaint that the use of water at the high school is too great, was taken up, and an inspection of the plumbing authorized on the theory that the undue use of water will be found due to some defect in connections.

Notice from the city to construct a legal walk in front of lots 6, 7 and 8, block 24, Park addition, was discussed, then laid on the table. The clerk was authorized to ascertain whether or not the bid for construction of the new school building which was accepted from E. P. Brosterhouse, will include excavation for a furnace room.

BATTERY CHARTER PETITIONS PLACED

P. R. Brooks Leaves Copies to Be Signed by Men Wanting to Enlist in Branch of National Guard.

(From Wednesday's Daily.)

Leaving Bend tonight for an absence of several days, P. R. Brooks will leave here the form for a petition to the adjutant general, asking for a charter for a battery of mountain artillery so that the applicants may have the privilege of enlisting in the National Guard. Copies of the petition are placed at the Pilot Butte Inn, the office of The Bend Bulletin, one with Frank Prince, one with Frank Kellher and one with the Bend Press.

BITTERS SALE NOT UNLAWFUL

BROWN PUTS MATTER UP TO DRUGGISTS.

Pharmacists Ready to Co-operate With District Attorney in Preventing Sale of Medicines for Use as Beverages.

(From Wednesday Daily.)

That the prohibition law does not bar the sale of bitters or other proprietary medicines containing a large percentage of alcohol unless the druggist or storekeeper making the sale has reason to believe that the compound will be used as a beverage is the opinion given by Attorney General Brown to District Attorney H. H. De Armond. In his letter, which was received this morning, Mr. Brown further states that the State Board of Pharmacy has the right to regulate the sale of such compounds.

He suggests that druggists and other merchants selling medicines capable of producing alcoholic intoxication be required to account for the amounts of the compounds bought and sold, as a means of showing their good faith. When too large an amount is being purchased by an individual, or when too frequent purchases are made, it should be evidence to the seller that the medicine is being used as a beverage.

Co-operation Assured.

Mr. De Armond stated this morning that the matter had been put up to the druggists and storekeepers of the county who are handling compounds of the kind, and that they have all showed a commendable disposition to co-operate with him in seeing that the spirit of the law is enforced. This, he says, should make the enactment of a city ordinance unnecessary.

"Such co-operation," Mr. De Armond declared, "will undoubtedly cut down the sale of such preparations, and will eliminate much of the drunkenness in the county. Mr. Brown's opinion does not in any way affect the case of Frank Sheffield, as I consider that his complaint against local druggists was merely a case of sour grapes."
