

Blackleg!

Has been found on one of the Central Oregon ranges. Protect your stock by using

BLACKLEG PELLETS

These are intended for one purpose only—the prevention of blackleg in cattle. For sale in any quantity by

REED & HORTON

BEND OREGON

LOCAL NEWS ITEMS

(From Wednesday Daily.)

R. B. Weaver left for Baker today for a visit.

Mrs. S. C. Nickerson is spending a week with her parents near Maupin.

D. T. Carmody left last night for Portland to be married this morning.

J. S. Beesley was in from Redmond last night to buy a small quantity of hay.

Mrs. P. E. Renno and two children were in from Deschutes yesterday visiting Mr. Renno.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Haines and small sons left for Spokane, where they will remain two weeks.

H. W. Shafer returned to Pendleton today. He has been employed in the woods near Bend recently.

Miss Eleanor Whitmore left today for a two weeks' vacation at the Lewis ranch on the Deschutes.

Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Rudell are expected back the latter part of this week from Hood River, where they are spending their vacation.

Mr. and Mrs. Manuel Saunders and son came in from Burns last night. Mr. Saunders is a sheep man and will spend several days in town on business.

Miss Ethel Wheeler, of Redmond, who has been at the Wright Hotel during the summer, left today for her school in the eastern part of the state.

Fred Ellenburg returned last night from a month's auto trip to coast points. He covered 3000 miles in all, returning by way of the Mackenzie Pass.

Mrs. F. F. Smith and Miss Pearl Hightower were on last night's train for Frances, Wash. They have been the inspiration of several informal parties recently.

Roy Gilson, Miss Gladys Brandenburg, Lyle Richardson and Miss Imie Miller motored the Metolius river yesterday on a fishing trip. They went in Mr. Richardson's car.

Mr. and Mrs. M. Kenney, William Hunt and Robert Whitson spent the week-end camping at Benham Falls. They motored over Saturday evening prepared for hunting and fishing.

Miss Bertha Carter and her grandfather, C. M. Edwards, arrived from Seattle this morning and went on to Five Mile Ranch, near Burns, where they will live with Mrs. Carter and Mrs. Edwards.

T. H. Foley returned last night from an auto trip to California points, accompanied by his brother-in-law, Percy Adams, of Eugene. Mr. Foley will motor to Eugene later in the week to bring back his family.

T. L. Collier, representative for Oregon of the National Weather Strip Company, is making his headquarters in Bend while installing his product in the Pilot Butte Inn. Mr. Collier has associated with him Mr. J. L. Gibson.

A marriage license was issued this afternoon from the office of County Clerk Haner for Daniel L. Brumbaugh and Miss Helen H. Cunniff, both recently arrived here from Goldendale, Washington. The wedding will be held the latter part of the week.

Charles Huntington, better known to football fans as "Shy," and Captain of the University eleven which beat Pennsylvania last fall, is in Bend representing the Stadelman Fruit and Produce Company, of The Dalles. Football prospects at the University are uncertain this fall, said Captain Huntington, but it is probable that a number of the old stars will return.

(From Tuesday's Daily)

Father Sheehan is spending several days at Hermiston.

William Jelkin, of Portland, went to Redmond this morning for a visit.

W. D. Cheney, of the Bend Park Co., is in Bend from Seattle on business.

Roy Allen came in from The Dalles last night to take his draft examination. He will return in several days.

Miss Sadie Riegel has gone back to her home at Terrebonne after staying since Sunday with her sister, Mrs. Frank Martz, of Bend.

A. H. Demke, wire chief of the Pacific Telephone & Telegraph Company at The Dalles, spent yesterday in town on an inspection trip.

Mrs. Frank Sloan and two children returned to their home at Stanfield today. They had been on a motor trip to Lakeview and visiting Mr. Sloan's farm near Bend for five weeks.

Charles Foss, of Portland, representing the California Trojan Products company, left for Tumalo today to submit an experimental irrigation proposition to be tried out on the ranch of E. J. Dunn. He is demonstrating digging ditches with dynamite and outlining irrigating systems. From Tumalo he will go on to Baker then back to Portland on Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Omar C. Spencer and Mr. and Mrs. Homer Carpenter, of Portland, stopped in town over night on their way to Klamath Falls by motor car. They like Bend and intend coming back soon and spending more time here looking over the country. The return trip is to be made via the Barlow Road. Mr. Spencer is an attorney and is connected with the Pilot Butte Inn and the Oregon Trunk railroad. Mr. Carpenter is interested in the Willamette Iron and Steel Works.

(From Monday's Daily.)

M. M. Ernst was in Bend over Sunday from La Pine.

Nick Thomas and J. Peterson were in Deschutes today.

Mr. and Mrs. M. M. Foster are in from Redmond for the day.

Miss Patricia Niswonger has gone to The Dalles to join her family.

Mrs. Inez Pence returned today from a six weeks' trip to Portland.

Maurice O'Keefe and A. E. Banister went to Lakeview this morning.

M. M. Wheeler was in the city yesterday from his home in Redmond.

Jay H. Upton, of Prineville, was in the city this afternoon on legal business.

C. W. Grey returned to Portland after spending a month with C. W. Huffschmidt.

Mrs. Hal H. Perry, of The Dalles, wife of Conductor Perry, spent last night with her husband in Bend.

Jack O'Sullivan and Dennis O'Connor drove out to Mr. O'Connor's sheep ranch at Sisters this afternoon.

A. R. Coats, of Fort Klamath, spent several days in town, on his way to The Dalles. He left this morning.

Albert Hixon left for Portland Saturday, after concluding a visit of several weeks at the home of H. E. Nordeen.

After spending ten days with Mr. and Mrs. G. R. McIntyre, Mrs. M. A. Double returned to her home in McMinnville today.

Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Snyder and son are in Terrebonne at the home of Mrs. Lou Dexter. They will be gone three days.

Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Jarvis, Mr. and Mrs. Fred N. Wallace and Miss M. Nichols, of Tumalo, were week end visitors in Bend.

You Are Invited to Inspect Our First Fall Exhibition of

LADIES' COATS

just in by express.

This season we have assembled the most striking array of Exclusive New Fabrics. The styles are particularly interesting—new—spirited—with plenty of conservative models to choose from. Come in to-day or tomorrow, even if you decide to postpone buying until later. It will be well worth your while to learn what's the correct thing for this season.

The New Coat Prices range from $13.50

to $40.00

STOP AND SHOP AT

MANNHEIMER BROTHERS

THE BEST PLACE TO TRADE AFTER ALL

Mrs. H. E. Nordeen will leave this evening for Vancouver, Wash., where she will visit friends and relatives for several weeks.

Mrs. Mettie Bellows, of Springfield, Mass., who has been visiting Mrs. T. A. McCann, went to The Dalles this morning.

Clean - 'em - Up - Sale!

A FINAL EFFORT to Make a Quick DISPOSAL OF SUMMER STOCKS

$25.00 Men's Suits, Sale $18.45

$20.00 Men's Suits, Sale $14.95

$15.00 Men's Suits, Sale $11.95

You are afforded an altogether exceptional opportunity to purchase high-grade merchandise at less than present wholesale prices. Summer grades closed out at a radical reduction.

THE STORE THAT SETS THE PACE

Men's Toggery

A. L. French

Bend Ore.

THE STORE THAT SETS THE PACE

NOTIONS!

Thread

Pins

Needles

Buttons

Elastic

Hair Nets

Combs

Brushes

Braids

Hair Pins

Crochet Cotton

Cotton Bats

Supporters

Handkerchiefs

Towels

Yarns

Laces

Ribbons

When it's

NOTIONS

we are

HEADQUARTERS

WARNER'S

Bend's Economy Center

THE SMILE THAT HAS MADE A NATION HAPPY

SPECIAL MUSIC by enlarged LIBERTY ORCHESTRA

H. B. Healey, Director

The Musical Score always fits the picture.

Sunday Matinee and Evening and Monday, Aug. 26-27

DOUGLAS FAIRBANKS

USES IT EARLY AND OFTEN IN

"In Again-Out Again"

By Anita Loos.

Directed by John Emerson

Just Regular Prices: 10c for the Kiddies 25c for Grown-Ups

A TIP Come Early. "Doug" always plays to standing room only.

SEE ME

SEE BETTER

"I Like to Read but My Eyes Won't Let Me."

Many people say that, when with a little care their eyes could be strengthened. Eyes, like hands and arms get tired, need rest or attention. You can get the right kind of advise and treatment here in our shop. We are located here permanently and will give you the service your eyes are entitled to.

Optometrist DR. C. H. FRANCIS Optician

with Myron H. Simons, O'Kane Building

LIBERTY BEND