

Blackleg!

Has been found on one of the Central Oregon ranges. Protect your stock by using

BLACKLEG PELLETS

These are intended for one purpose only—the prevention of blackleg in cattle. For sale in any quantity by

REED & HORTON
BEND, OREGON

LOCAL NEWS ITEMS

(From Wednesday's Daily.)
J. P. Reyes went to Portland on a business trip last night.
E. B. Cooper left today to spend several months in Portland.
Paul Hosmer left last night for Portland, to enlist in the army.
Leo M. Weston, of Brothers, spent yesterday in Bend on business.
Lee A. Thomas has returned from a business trip to Roosevelt, Washington.
H. Sonju was in town several days from Redmond and returned this morning.
Mrs. Charles Stauffer, of Stauffer, is a guest at the Wray home for a few days.
Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Skuse returned to Bend last night from an auto trip to Spokane.
H. H. Kilgore, a sheep and cattle man from Siskiyou, came to Bend on business today.
Mr. and Mrs. Harry Fruer, of Chicago, are in Bend as guests of Mr. and Mrs. A. S. Larson.
Mrs. Julia Parrott is in Milton and expects to spend the winter with her sister who will teach school there.

Mrs. Conley, of Kansas City, arrived last night to spend a vacation with Miss Eleanor Whitmore at the Altamont.
Mrs. Harrison Grey and daughter, Elizabeth, are at the Grey ranch at Jersey and will remain there during the harvesting.
Mrs. W. Ferguson and little son returned this morning from Portland, where she has spent the last 19 days visiting friends.
Mr. and Mrs. O. E. Martin have gone back to their home in Independence, having spent a two weeks' vacation in town.
Dr. B. A. Cathey, of Condon, was the guest last night of Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Pringle. Dr. Cathey is on his way to Odell lake.
Inspection of local railway men was completed today and the special car hearing the board will leave tonight for Fallbridge.
Mr. and Mrs. Barney O'Donnell, Miss Nora Motts and Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Innes will leave next week by auto for San Francisco.
Mrs. H. A. Snyder and son, Harry, moved to The Dalles to make their home permanently. They were residents of Bend for over a year.
Bert Richardson came in from AUCTION SALE!

FURNITURE

SATURDAY, OCT. 1
from 2 p. m. to 9 p. m.

- DINING TABLE
- KITCHEN TABLE
- CENTER TABLES
- BEDS
- CHAIRS
- CLOCK
- TYPEWRITER DESK
- COMODE
- DRESSER
- BICYCLE
- BABY CARRIAGE
- OIL STOVE WITH RANGE
- JEWELRY
- COOK STOVE
- 1 GENTLE SIX-YEAR OLD HORSE, broke to saddle for woman or child.

H. R. GRIFFUS
AUCTIONEER
Cor. Oregon and Bond Streets

Burns last night and went to join his father in Portland. Both will return Saturday with Buick machines.

Miss Hazel Haines, of Narrows, went out to Portland last night to attend school. This winter she will complete her last year at St. Helen's Hall.

Another resident who will spend her winter away from home is Mrs. Lee Stevens, who with her small son, Willard, left for Wardner, Idaho, today.

The first recruit to be sent out by the new recruiting officer, Corporal Frank Harvey, is Orville Inman, who went to Portland today to join the infantry.

Two Portland passengers today were J. Haslet and A. J. Colvin. Mr. Haslet is taking a week's vacation while Mr. Colvin is leaving town permanently.

George and Carl Spickerman finished up their business connected with a homestead near here and left for The Dalles today. They have filed on a tract of land.

Miss Darle Burton will attend high school in Boise, Idaho, this winter and live with her aunt in that city. She came in today from Hampton and took the north bound train.

Among the passengers on this morning's train bound for Boise, Idaho, were A. N. Anderson, B. Anderson and Homer Evans. The first two have been here on business.

W. L. Blott, of Burns, is in Terrebonne and will go from there to Portland. He is accompanied by Mrs. Blott and her mother, who will leave soon for the east. The party stopped in Bend last night.

Having sold their home in Bend, Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Green left this morning to seek a new location on a ranch. They will go as far as The Dalles today. J. G. Nichols has purchased their house and lot in town.

Mrs. D. Keller and three children will leave tonight for Havre, Montana, to spend two weeks with Mrs. Keller's mother, who has been ill. A telegram received today said, however, that she was on the road to recovery.

Lieutenant Frank P. Gowan, of Burns, with Mrs. Gowan and their baby, were on their way to Vancouver Barracks this morning. After three months in camp, Lieutenant Gowan will be assigned to a commission in France.

George Black, of Seattle, is leaving for his home tonight, having concluded business connected with filing on a timber claim, which brought him to Bend three days ago. He is also interested in the Benham Falls land and may return with other Washington men to take up homesteads.

Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Calkins and Miss Jeanette Calkins, of Eugene, were in Bend this morning on the last lap of a month's auto tour. They have been through Tacoma, Seattle, Spokane and Eastern Oregon, having stopped at Nyssa to visit another member of the family. The return trip will be made through the McKenzie Pass. Mr. Calkins is president of the United States National Bank, of Eugene.

Last night E. L. Wiggins, traveling freight and passenger agent for the O.-W. R. & N., returned from the vicinity of Burns, where he has been looking over hay for the past 10 days. He is expecting a large number of cattle to come through town soon and was seeking to feed them. While in the mountains east of here Mr. Wiggins said he found that the crops were much better than had been reported and that business is exceptionally good.

(From Tuesday's Daily)
W. L. Powers, of the O. A. C. faculty, arrived in Bend last night.

J. L. Galther returned last night from a business trip to Prineville.
C. O. Wallace and Guy McCallister are in the city today on business from Tumalo.

Clarence Brokaw was on his way to Redmond today to spend several months.

A. J. Emerick finished his work for the summer and has gone back to Portland.

Charles Charleton returned to Powell Butte today after coming to town on business.

Paul Hosmer will leave tonight for Portland to enlist in the forestry regiment of the army.

W. H. Feight is now back in Prineville, having spent some time visiting six miles east of Bend.

E. M. Eldridge, of Portland, made his semi-annual sales trip to Bend this week. He left for Hood River today.

Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Beer and son, of Klossauqua, Iowa, arrived today and will visit with Charles Beer, of this city.

A. K. Richardson, of Burns, is in Portland, where he went after a new Buick car which he will drive back Saturday.

Miss Inez Scott has arrived in Bend from Spokane, and will make her home here with her sister, Mrs. Zeph LaBoy.

W. L. Coshaw left last night for Portland to take the Pasteur treatment for rabies. He was badly bitten about the face yesterday.

P. B. Johnson and family, of Millican, came in last night from their trip to Iowa and South Dakota, where they spent the past two months.

The Store with Good Goods

MARKS of MERIT

WHEN there's a wedding, a birthday, or anniversary, or any occasion arises to make a gift, whether it be from custom or sentiment, it means a visit to our store. People know that we stand for the highest grade of merchandise, the newest and brightest ideas in jewelry, the finest of Diamonds and the best of Watches.

Larson & Company

Watchmakers & Jewelers
At the Sign of the Big Clock Bend, Oregon

Phone Black 1291
LEE A. THOMAS, A. A. IA.
Architect
2-4 O'Kane Building
BEND - - - OREGON

DR. TURNER
EYE SPECIALIST, of Portland
Visits Bend Monthly,
Watch Paper for Dates, or Inquire of
THORSON, THE JEWELER

FALL APPAREL

ARRIVING DAILY

NEW COATS

In plushes, mixtures, velours--this season's authentic styles--a wide range of fabrics in every size. Priced at $13.50

to $40.00

NEW SILK DRESSES

In Taffetas and Satins, $18.50 to $27.50

NEW WOOL DRESSES

Materials of French Serge, Storm Serge, Poplins, Wool Taffetas, etc., from $6.75 to $23.50

New Neckwear Novelties

The Popular Tuxedo Neckwear made of Pique in several shapes, at 35c--50c

We are Sole Agents in Bend for CARTER'S KNIT UNDERWEAR

Backed by the experience of over 50 years, this Underwear is without an equal, and was selected by us after looking over the foremost underwear lines made in America.

Carter's Underwear--FOR MEN
FOR WOMEN
FOR CHILDREN
CARTER'S ALMA UNDERWEAR FOR INFANTS

Distinguish the Best from the Rest. Ask for Carter's Underwear

STOP AND SHOP AT

MANNHEIMER BROTHERS

THE BEST PLACE TO TRADE AFTER ALL

Ralph W. Pepla, formerly of this city, is in Bend for a few days to wind up business affairs. He is now employed in one of the Portland shipyards.

The railroad inspection board, which has been in Bend since yesterday morning, will probably go out tomorrow. A new set of rules and regulations are being introduced to the local trainmen for the first time. Members of the board are B. L. Sperry, John Kimble and James Welch. The last named is the conductor who brought the first train into Bend.

R. M. Smith, A. Stevens and J. Edward Larson went sage hen hunting Monday in Mr. Larson's car. They report a good time, but only one sage hen.

Hans Nelson, who has been on his ranch in Harney county for the better part of the spring and summer, arrived in Bend yesterday and will remain here for a time visiting with friends.

J. E. Tourtelotte, of Portland, went to Hood River this morning on business. He had just come in from Paisley where he is superintendent of construction work of the new school being erected there. The building will require several weeks more for completion.

Seventh Day Adventists Will Answer.
The lecture which was given last Monday night against the faith and teaching of Seventh Day Adventists will be answered tonight, August 30, in the Cotton Tabernacle. Subject, "Law and Grace." All interested persons are invited to be present.—Adv.

Shirts

that Please and Wear

at $1 to $3

MEN'S WORK and DRESS SHOES

in black and tan at $2.50 to $7

SATHER'S

SEE ME

SEE BETTER

"I Like to Read but My Eyes Won't Let Me."

Many people say that, when with a little care their eyes could be strengthened. Eyes, like hands and arms get tired, need rest or attention. You can get the right kind of advise and treatment here in our shop. We are located here permanently and will give you the service your eyes are entitled to.

Optometrist DR. C. H. FRANCIS Optician with Myron H. Simons, O'Kane Building

Labor Day Smoker

Hippodrome, Monday at 4 P. M.

Billy George of Bend vs. Percy Brooks of Walla Walla

10 Rounds of BOXING

REFEREE..... DR. MANNING
Preliminary..... Kid Bosco vs. Hanny Sidel
The Management guarantees absolute satisfaction in these bouts.