

Central Oregon Neighborhood News

LOWER BRIDGE GIRL IN TACOMA SCHOOL.

(Special to The Bulletin.)
LOWER BRIDGE, Oct. 2.—Mr. and Mrs. Kidder and son, of Portland, were visiting with their daughter, Mrs. L. A. Hunt, the past week.
Gus Stadig was a Redmond visitor on Friday.
Miss Fern Walters left Thursday evening for Tacoma, where she will attend high school this year.
L. A. Hunt made a business trip to Redmond Thursday.
Mr. Wilson is shearing sheep at the Hoskins ranch this week.
Mr. and Mrs. Joe Howard, Lester Holloway, L. F. Rice and Frank Chapman were among those attending the sale at Ogg's last Tuesday.
Mrs. A. S. Holmes was a guest at Mrs. Campbell's Wednesday.
Mrs. C. F. Hoskins, Marion and Naomi Hoskins motored to the Wilson mill Wednesday.
Mrs. Harrington, Denzil Harrington and Jerry Grosskreuger attended the Sisters Fair.
Mr. and Mrs. David Milburn were shopping in Redmond Tuesday.
Charlie Hiscock has his threshing machine rebuilt and started threshing at Gus Stadig's Thursday.
Marion Hoskins was a Bend visitor on Saturday.
Mr. and Mrs. Joe Howard and Lester Holloway were in Redmond Friday evening.
C. F. Hoskins received three calves from Tillamook Thursday, and expects a shipment each week.
Several of the men from Lower Bridge attended the water meeting at Cloverdale Saturday afternoon.

BIRTHDAY PARTY AT PRINGLE FLAT HOME

Mrs. Harry Evans Elected as School Clerk to Replace Mrs. Davis, Who Moved to Bend.
(Special to The Bulletin.)
PRINGLE FLAT, Oct. 2.—Mr. and Mrs. Harry Evans entertained last Saturday evening in honor of their daughter, Miss Nine, the occasion being the latter's fifteenth birthday.
At the school meeting called a short time ago, Mrs. Harry Evans elected clerk in place of Mrs. Archie Davis who has moved to Bend.
Clyde Baisley and Harry Evans, Jr., are home from the mills.
Mr. and Mrs. Pat Palmer have moved from the mill to their home-stand.
Eighteen children are enrolled at the Pringle Flat school.
Miss Lillian Hamlin is staying with her aunt, Mrs. Stetson, while attending school at the Flat.
Mrs. Stetson has moved into the Rivers house, where she will live this year.
Potato digging has started in this vicinity.
Mrs. Webber presented the school with a new flag rope.

SISTERS FAIR RATED AS VERY SUCCESSFUL

Keen Interest Evincied in the Prize Awards—Financial Outlook Now Seems Favorable.
(Special to The Bulletin.)
SISTERS, Oct. 2.—The Sisters fair held September 25, 26 and 27, was a success from the start and the agricultural exhibit was the best ever seen here. The $15 cash prize for the best display of farm products fell to Mrs. Ed. Mills, while W. R. Abbey was the winner of the $15 cash prize for the best garden exhibit. Mrs. H. K. Allen was the winner of the watch bracelet offered for the best display of canned fruits and vegetables. A popular feature of the fair this year it was the Baby Show, under the personal patronage of Mrs. H. L. Corbett, of Portland. Dr. Waldron and Dr. Myers, of Portland, were in charge and a large number of babies were entered and scored. The results from the eugenic tests will not be known until returns come from Portland. Mrs. A. M. Pringle's baby, of Bend, received the prize for the best looking baby at the show.

The fair promises to be a success financially.

POWELL BUTTE SHEEP BRING LARGE PRICE

Sixteen Dollars a Head Is Paid by Ed. Barnard For a Flock Including 400 Sheep.
(Special to The Bulletin.)
POWELL BUTTE, Oct. 2.—Ed. Barnard purchased 400 head of sheep last week for a consideration of $16 a head.
E. N. Hall returned from Pendleton the fore part of last week.
Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Bussett visited relatives at the McKinley mill on Sunday.
Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Wilson spent a few days the fore part of last week attending to business in Portland.
Grandma Brown visited several days at the G. F. Shoberg ranch last week.
Mr. and Mrs. Tom Casey, of Portland, are visiting with Mrs. Casey's sister, Mrs. E. N. Hall.
Mr. and Mrs. Ross Bussett, Mr. and Mrs. Reaves Wilcox and Mr. and Mrs. D. R. French made a trip to Cove Orchard last Sunday.
Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Bayn, Miss Hazel Bayn and J. A. Riggs spent Saturday evening in Bend.
Miss Jessie Hartley visited with Mrs. J. F. Rice from Friday afternoon until Monday.
Miss Fay Bussett visited friends and relatives in Bend and Redmond the first of the week.
Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Shearer and daughter, Ruth, visited with Mrs. Shearer's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Sheweller, at the Oreweller mill Saturday and Sunday.
Mrs. Fred Brown returned from Portland and Vancouver the first of last week after a two weeks' visit with friends and relatives.
Mr. and Mrs. Reaves Wilcox were Bend visitors on Tuesday of last week.
Mrs. J. M. Shearer and Mrs. Allen Wilcox spent Wednesday afternoon of last week in Bend.
Mrs. A. W. Bayn, Miss Hazel Bayn and J. A. Riggs visited Mr. and Mrs. Frank Bayn at Deschutes on Tuesday of last week.
Mr. and Mrs. Walter Foster and son returned from Pendleton the middle of last week.

EAST END SCHOOL IS UNDER CONSTRUCTION

(Special to The Bulletin.)
MILLICAN, Oct. 1.—R. R. Keller visited with his brother and family while at Bend after lumber for G. Caldwell Monday, and returned Tuesday.
G. Caldwell is having more sheep brought out to Sloan's ranch.
Chas. Graffenberger made a trip to Bend after another load of lumber this week.
W. W. Grinstead also got a load of lumber this week.
L. B. Keller and family, from Bend, visited with the F. Tauscher family Sunday.
Mrs. R. R. Keller and children and Mrs. J. J. Holland were at the Beaton place Monday.
Wm. Bahm and a carpenter from Bend are busy building the East End school house.
P. B. Johnson made a business trip to Bend Thursday.
L. A. Hall is building a milk house for P. B. Johnson.
Vernon Clevenger and I. L. Owen found Clevenger's four cows, which turned up missing the past week, in Lee Riggs' corral at Hampton.
R. R. Keller shot two coyotes while herding sheep Thursday.

TERREBONNE FAMILY TO WINTER IN SOUTH

(Special to The Bulletin.)
TERREBONNE, Oct. 3.—Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Benton and little daughter, Hazel, left Sunday morning for Escondido, California, where they will spend the winter.
P. C. Churchman, of Sheridan, Oregon, is here visiting his daughter, Mrs. W. O. Raiston.
Mrs. J. R. Helfrich, who recently moved to Bend, came down Sunday, returning on the evening train.
Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Galbraith, accompanied by Mrs. M. C. Davidson, Mrs. C. C. Hyde and Mrs. C. M. Peckham, attended the special meetings in Redmond which are being conducted by Rev. Lyons.
Mrs. F. E. Martz, of Bend, spent Saturday here visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. O. Reigel.
Threshing is going on now in this vicinity. C. A. Douglas' machine started out last week.

YAKIMA MAN TAKES PLEASANT RIDGE HAY

(Special to The Bulletin.)
PLEASANT RIDGE, Oct. 2.—Mr. Ahlstrom has sold his hay at $24 a ton to a Yakima buyer.
Mr. and Mrs. O. E. Anderson attended the Tumalo Fair on Friday.
Mrs. J. A. Chase, Rasmus Peterson and Mrs. Johansen were business callers in Redmond Saturday.
Mr. and Mrs. Jake Peterson were called to Bend Sunday to attend the funeral of her brother-in-law, who died Saturday night.
J. A. Chase, Wayne Chase, Mr. Jones, Mr. Hewins and Mr. Scott are helping Mr. Baughman hay this week.
Mrs. Whitmore was a caller at the J. A. Chase home Saturday.
Rasmus Peterson finished baling hay last Monday and has baled for Antoine Ahlstrom, Mr. Warner and W. H. Gray this week.
O. E. Anderson bought eight head of young stock at the Ogg sale.
Mrs. Greenhaigh, Mr. Conlin and wife and daughter were callers at the J. A. Chase home Sunday.
The oldest son of Mr. and Mrs. Jones came home from the lumbering camps for a vacation and a visit with his parents recently.
Miss Rita Chase left Tuesday for Bend to work for Mrs. Anderson.
Noah Gray cut sweet clover for O. E. Anderson this week.
H. A. Garlock and family arrived in Pleasant Ridge Monday and moved into their recently purchased from Mr. Parsons.
Mr. Mallory lost a heifer Friday.

CLOVERDALE WATER USERS HOLD MEETING

School Has 24 Pupils Enrolled—Miss Dorothy McCulley Is Teacher.
(Special to The Bulletin.)
CLOVERDALE, Oct. 2.—The Water Users' Association held a meeting Saturday afternoon at the home of George Cyrus.
Mr. and Mrs. Ray Abbey spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Harold Kline at the Wilson saw mill near Sisters.
Miss Mary Fryrear is spending a few days at home with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Fryrear. She is working in the court house at Prineville.
School started Monday, September 24, with 24 children enrolled. The school dismissed Wednesday for the Sisters Fair.
Mr. and Mrs. Frank Arnold, Mr. and Mrs. Bert Hodson, Mr. and Mrs.

Harold Kline, Idella and Earl Miller, Vera Skelton and Dean and Lillian Van Matre attended the Sisters Fair dance Wednesday night.
A big share of the Cloverdale people attended the Fair Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday. All reported a fine time.
Clyde Hauck and Gladys Brandenburg were supper guests at the W. W. Van Matre home last Thursday evening. Gladys Brandenburg is a niece of Mrs. Van Matre.
Fred N. Van Matre, of Bend, is foreman at the Wing mill at Sisters, formerly the Duckett mill.
H. C. Miller is hauling lumber from Sisters to finish his new house.
Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Templeton have moved to Sisters, where Mr. Templeton will work in the mill. Mr. and Mrs. Cutler will rent their place for a year.
Mrs. H. O. Wilson and Arvilla were shopping in Redmond Monday.
Miss Dorothy McCulley, of Terrebonne, is teaching the Cloverdale school and is boarding at Mrs. Anderson's.

THRESHING BEGINS IN TUMALO DISTRICT

(Special to The Bulletin.)
TUMALO, Oct. 2.—Mr. Parsons' threshing came back into the neighborhood Saturday morning, threshing for C. P. Becker and Mr. Blackwood.
Mrs. Taylor is slowly recovering from her recent illness.
Phillip Smith sold his land last week.
Mr. and Mrs. C. Steffen, who purchased Mr. Mack's place, will take possession this week.
Mr. and Mrs. Mack will visit in the southern part of the state for a while. They expect to go down into California for the winter.
Mr. and Mrs. J. N. Williamson, of Prineville, were at C. P. Becker's Monday and sold them a small bunch of sheep, about 45 head.
D. A. Kennedy and family left Monday for Washington. They will visit Mrs. Kennedy's brother, who lives north of Spokane, for a while before locating permanently.
Mr. and Mrs. Howard Hartley and little son and their neighbors, Mr. and Mrs. Krug, drove to Pendleton to attend the Round-Up. They report a great time.

STOCK MOVED, DUE TO SCARCITY OF HAY

(Special to The Bulletin.)
HAMPTON BUTTE, Oct. 1.—Chas. James and family left last Tuesday for the winter. Not being able to get hay in this vicinity for their stock they were obliged to move them out nearer Bend.
Mrs. J. M. Brickey and son, Jimmie, returned from the John Day country Monday with a load of fruit.
C. L. Hinman and Cecil Alberts passed through here Friday on their way to Bend.
Royce James took Wray's stage for Bend last Saturday.
Norval Brown was a visitor at Brookings' store Friday.
Mrs. J. O. Whitaker was a visitor in this neighborhood Tuesday.
Jimmie Brickey is helping Horace Brookings haul wood this week.
S. B. Merrill, of Harney Holes, was a guest at the Brookings Hotel last night. He recovered some of his cattle which strayed from his home.
J. M. Meeks is on the sick list.

MISS McCULLOY OPENS CLOVERDALE SCHOOL

(Special to The Bulletin.)
CLOVERDALE, Sept. 24.—The Cloverdale school started Monday morning, Sept. 24, with Miss Dorothy McCulley, of Terrebonne, as teacher.
Mrs. Frank Arnold and Mrs. Bert Hodson were shopping in Redmond Saturday.
Morris Williams, who has been working for J. E. Aldrich, went to Sisters Sunday to work in the saw mill.
Geo. Cyrus went over near Haystack Sunday to get a load of fruit.

WE SELL FOR LESS

SEE US IF YOU ARE FIGURING ON LARGE ORDERS

We Specialize on Camp and Stockmen's Supplies in quantities

TRI-STATE TERMINAL CO. PHONE 2391

Viola Miller and Lillian Van Matre were calling on Gladys Parberry Sunday afternoon.

SIX YEAR OLD DIES FROM TUBERCULOSIS

Mrs. B. C. Kline was calling on Mrs. R. O. Andrus Friday afternoon.
Mr. and Mrs. George Cyrus went to Bend last Thursday to have some dental work done. Tom Arnold took them in his car.
Mrs. Ray Abbey and Mrs. N. N. Robbins were shopping in Redmond Friday.
George Cyrus had the misfortune to lose a steer last week which bloated on clover.
W. W. Collins made a business trip to Redmond Thursday.

(From Monday's Daily.)
Cora Eliza Eakman, aged six years, two months and eleven days, died last night at the home of her aunt, Mrs. M. B. Howe, from tuberculosis. She had been ill five months. The child is survived by her father, C. E. Eakman, and a sister. The funeral will be held tomorrow morning at 10 o'clock from Niswonger's undertaking parlors.

BIG FIRST ANNUAL CENTRAL OREGON HORSE SALE

Horses and Mules will be sold to the highest bidder and must be halter-broke. Army buyers and men from largest horse dealers in the Northwest will be in attendance at this big sale

Stock will be fed by the committee at actual cost. A five per cent commission will be charged on all horses sold, to cover cost of advertising, labor, auctioneer, etc.
JAMES THRALL, Auctioneer.

Redmond Stock Yards OCTOBER 17th-18th

For Further Particulars, address
GUY E. DOBSON, Clerk
C. H. BAGGOTT, Manager
R. A. WARD, County Agt.
Redmond, Oregon Redmond, Oregon Redmond, Ore.

Central Oregon Bank BEND, OREGON

OFFICERS:
D. E. HUNTER, President
CARLETON B. SWIFT, Vice-President
E. P. MAHAFFEY, 2nd Vice-President
H. M. STEPHENS, Cashier
FENDEL WAITE, Assistant Cashier
DIRECTORS:
D. E. Hunter W. L. O'Donnell Carleton B. Swift
E. P. Mahaffey H. M. Stephens

Every facility for accomodating the investors of Central Oregon

STOP!

And investigate our prices before buying your groceries. We can save you money.

P. B. Johnson's
Millican, Ore. Telephone

TRY OUR Pasteurized Milk

Others like it. None Keeps better. Sales have doubled in past 30 days.

CENTRAL OREGON FARMERS' CREAMERY
Phone Red 131

SEE ME

SEE BETTER

Do your eyes flicker when you read? Perhaps we can help you, as the trouble may be just temporary.

School children should take special care of their eyes. They are the best friends they have.

Optometrist DR. C. H. FRANCIS Optician
with Myron H. Simons, O'Kane Building

BRICK vs. OTHER BUILDINGS

BRICK BUILDINGS IN BEND---	OTHER BUILDINGS---
VALUE ABOUT $500,000	VALUE ABOUT $2,000,000
FIRE LOSS IN FIVE YEARS NONE	FIRE LOSS IN FIVE YEARS OVER $100,000

Build With BRICK! BEND BRICK & LUMBER CO.