

The Well-Dressed Farmer

MOST men who own farms are well dressed these days; they know that a man's appearance is regarded by his neighbors as some indication of his prosperity. And most farmers are prosperous, and all of them want to look prosperous.

We have one great advantage in talking to farmers about clothes.

Hart Schaffner & Marx clothes are so well known to all of you that we needn't say very much about quality; you know they're good clothes. The name of these makers on any garment is all that the well-informed buyer needs to see; after that it's merely a question of finding your size, your fabric, your size. We don't have to "sell" Hart Schaffner & Marx clothes; men who appreciate good goods "buy" them.

We mention farmers especially in this advertisement because they are, of all business men, most keen to have the best for their money. They appreciate value.

We sell lots of good clothes to farmers; just as we do to all sorts of business men; Hart Schaffner & Marx clothes are the kind such men want.

G. E. Ross, secretary of the State Highway Commission, drove into town yesterday accompanied by his father, G. A. Ross, of North Yakima, Washington. They came in from the Dalles on a tour of inspection and went out this morning. Included in their route was a trip to the Ochoco forest. Mr. Ross expressed himself as much pleased with road improvements in this locality.

Four men were sent to Vancouver this morning to join the various branches of the service. Harvey McKenzie is entering the engineer corps as a camouflage artist, the first to leave Bend. James A. Elder will go as a baker in the quartermaster's corps, while Frank Neth joins the infantry and William E. Carey, the field artillery. This is the largest group of men sent to Vancouver from here at any one time since Corporal Harvey has been stationed in Bend as recruiting officer.

Makes Good in the North.

A cough remedy must be good to give satisfaction in a northern state's variable weather. Relieves croup, opens air passages, eases strangling fight for breath. Sold everywhere.—Adv.

FUNERAL HELD HERE FOR HANS JOHNSON

Odd Fellows and Spanish-American War Veterans in Attendance at Impressive Services.

(From Wednesday Daily.)

One of the most impressive funerals held recently in Bend was that of Hans Johnson which took place yesterday afternoon from the Scandinavian Lutheran church. It was well attended by Odd Fellows and Spanish-American War veterans. Mr. Johnson was well known as a rancher near Tumalo. He died Saturday after a lingering illness from cancer of the stomach.

Rev. Bruno conducted the church services while the lodge was in charge at the grave. A quartette composed of Mrs. Louis Bennett, Mrs. T. H. Foley, Charles Erskine and O. A. Thorsen furnished the music. The principal parts of the pastor's remarks was in Scandinavian.

The Whole Neighborhood Knows.

Mrs. Anna Pelzer, 2523 Jefferson St., So. Omaha, Neb., writes: "Foley's Honey and Tar cured my daughter of a bad cold. My neighbor, Mrs. Benson, cured herself and family with Foley's Honey and Tar, and in fact most everyone in our neighborhood speaks highly of it as a good remedy for coughs and colds." Sold everywhere.—Adv.
